The Colonization of Land in Matthew's Gospel Maziél Barreto Dani,2024-08-19 In The Colonization of Land in Matthew s Gospel Maziél Barreto Dani proposes that land is constructed as a colonized and subjugated entity Traditional scholarship claims that the Gospel of Matthew is detached from spatial territorial discussions and that geographical land concerns are displaced with Christology Dani however reinterprets multiple implicit and explicit references to land in the Gospel to show continuity rather than discontinuity with the Hebrew Bible s concerns with material land promises She does so by engaging the Gospel within its broader Roman Hellenistic and Jewish contexts where the theme of land possession is pervasive Central to the Gospel and the imperial contexts from which it emerges are contestations over the land and proclamations to whom the land belongs Dani argues that while Judea and neighboring lands are under the firm control of Roman imperial power during the first century CE Matthew s Gospel envisions Rome s demise and the control of land being transferred to an alternative empire governed by the sovereign rule of God Though God liberates the land from Rome s oppressive grasp and restores land promises to the righteous poor at Jesus return the land fails to escape colonial control That is the world while relinquished from Roman hegemony is reasserted under God s power and domination In arguing that Matthew s Gospel employs an imperializing agenda involving land reclamation the Gospel may be a source for validating and justifying the modern colonization of foreign and occupied land under the guise of God s purposes The Colonization of Land in Matthew s Gospel challenges colonial ideologies which oppress not only peoples but the lands which they inhabit

From Resurrection to New Creation Michael W. Pahl, 2010-02-01 What is Christianity really all about? Is it in its essence about proper religious rituals or correct religious beliefs or acceptable moral behavior? What is at the heart of an authentic Christian faith and life? In From Resurrection to New Creation, Michael Pahl provides an introduction to Christian theology which attempts to answer these questions, proposing that the heart of Christianity is not a set of rituals or beliefs or behaviors but an event, the resurrection of the crucified Jesus from the dead that prompts a story the gospel or good news of salvation through Jesus Jesus resurrection Pahl claims is the starting place and the compass in the journey of Christian theology our journey to understand God God s work in the world and how we should live out God s purposes for humanity Thus beginning with Jesus resurrection and using this event as a guide Pahl surveys the terrain of classic Christian belief and practice The Trinity the identity of Jesus the work of the Holy Spirit the nature of humanity Christ s atonement for sin salvation and the gospel baptism and the Eucharist the church and the future state all these landscapes and more are explored in this concise introductory survey of essential Christian theology
