Senate documents ,1891 Computers in Art, Design and Animation John Lansdown,Rae Earnshaw,2012-12-06 The collection of papers that makes up this book arises largely from the joint activities of two specialist groups of the British Computer Society namely the Displays Group and the Computer Arts Society Both these groups are now more than 20 years old and during the whole of this time have held regular separate meetings In recent years however the two groups have held a joint annual meeting at which presentations of mutual interest have been given and it is mainly from the last two of these that the present papers have been drawn They fall naturally into four classes visualisation art design and animation although as in all such cases the boundaries between the classes are fuzzy and overlap inevitably occurs Visualisation The graphic potential of computers has been recognised almost since computing was first used but it is only comparatively recently that their possibilities as devices for the visualisation of complex and largely abstract phenomena has begun to be more fully appreciated Some workers stress the need to be able to model photographic reality in order to assist in this task They look to better algorithms and more resolution to achieve this end Others Alan Mackay for instance suggest that it is not just a matter of providing more and more pixels It is a matter of providing congenial clues which employ to the greatest extent what we already know Becoming One With the World Kathleen Kesson,2024-08-01 Becoming One With the World A Guide to Neohumanist Education responds to an urgent need to reconceptualize the fundamentals of education in light of the many social ecological and political challenges facing humanity today It answers the call for a new educational paradigm one based on a far richer more insightful understanding of human possibility one that decenters human exceptionalism in favor of a new ecological consciousness one that promotes harmony and cooperation between humans and non human others and one that cultivates wisdom Neohumanist education strives for a harmonious balance between spiritual development and critical engagement with the world in the belief that an awakened conscience translates into transcending differences and creating a sense of unity with all beings The book is designed to enhance the spiritual and pedagogical knowledge and skill of teachers parents and school leaders who are seeking more holistic approaches to educating young people Both richly theoretical and eminently practical the book applies the primary commitments of Neohumanist education cultivating love and kinship with humans and non human others freeing the mind from dogma and limitations fostering a balanced approach between inquiry into the outer objective world s and the inner subjective world s and awakening the desire for social and environmental justice to the full spectrum of traditional subject matter It draws upon a wide range of new research and scholarship to illustrate an educational model capable of maximizing human potential and inspiring young people to create a future that is just joyful and sustainable ENDORSEMENTS What a wonderful book Packed into its pages are decades of experience as a meditator yogi parent educator and Neohumanist This latter is the crux of this text designed to lay out in clear accessible language the fundamentals of this rich and inspiring philosophy and to touch on ways it can find its way into the daily flow of the classroom and school A philosophy worth its salt is one that actually makes a difference in the day to day lives of people In Kathleen Kesson and her comprehensive book we find just this practical pragmatic insights into a philosophy both new and ancient It is a gift to educators and anyone committed to wholesome futures for children society and of course the planet Marcus Bussey University of the Sunshine Coast Australia Becoming One With the World is an extraordinary book While its primary aims are explaining the philosophy of Neohumanism and detailing a Neohumanistic approach to education it is simultaneously a comprehensive summary and synthesis of scholarly literature in the field of holistic education Unifying knowledge and methods from many curricula areas including spirituality ecology aesthetics literacy cultural diversity and ethics it offers a clear orientation to a way of educating young people that seems key to human surviving and thriving Aostre Johnson Saint Michael s College in Vermont Art and Industry: (1892) Industrial and manual training in the public schools United States.
