Canadian Modern Architecture Elsa Lam, Graham Livesey, 2019-11-19 Royal Architectural Institute of Canada RAIC President's Medal Award multi media representation of architecture Canada's most distinguished architectural critics and scholars offer fresh insights into the country's unique modern and contemporary architecture Beginning with the nation's centennial and Expo 67 in Montreal this fifty year retrospective covers the defining of national institutions and movements How Canadian architects interpreted major external trends Regional and indigenous architectural tendencies The influence of architects in Canada's three largest cities Toronto Montreal and Vancouver Co published with Canadian Architect this comprehensive reference book is extensively illustrated and includes fifteen specially commissioned essays

Twelve Modern Houses, 1945-1985 Graham Livesey, University of Calgary. Canadian Architectural Archives, Michael McMordie, Geoffrey Simmins, 1995 This publication part of the ongoing mandate of the Canadian Architectural Archives to examine the characteristics of Canadian architecture as reflected in the collections of the University of Calgary Library examines twelve architect created houses designed between the 1940s and the 1980s for several distinct regions of Canada The architects chosen number among the most prolific and best known in Canada who were working during this period including Raymond T Affleck Raymond Moriyama Arthur Erickson Douglas Cardinal John B Parkin Associates and Patkau Architects Other architects with perhaps a more regional reputation have also been included such as the Vancouver based firm of McCarter Nairne Calgary's Jack Long and Edmonton's Peter Hemingway Apart from the documentation of the twelve houses drawings and photos there are interpretative essays on each A co authored introductory essay explores several related themes modernity the contemporary house approaches to landscape and the role of drawings in contemporary practice

Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23

Suburban Modern Robert M. Stamp, 2004 While avant garde modernism disrupted the art salons architecture schools and design studios of the world's more sophisticated urban centres in the 20th century Calgary slept through the cultural upheavals as a provincial backwater Calgary's initiation to modernism might be dated to February 13 1947 when Imperial Oil blew in its famous well at Leduc Or the 1948 football season when Tom Brooks and Les Lear wrapped the Calgary Stampeders football team around an innovative and modernist looking T formation backfield to win the Grey Cup Calgarians embraced the modern age after the Second World War taking modernism into the streets and into the suburbs They went beyond art architecture and design and redefined modernism to include homes furniture appliances and cars In the process Calgarians democratized feminized and suburbanized modernism Suburban Modern examines controversies over coloured margarine and mixed drinking in post war Calgary It shows how new petro office buildings transformed the downtown skyline during the 1950s and 1960s and how new bus lines roads and bridges changed the city's transportation network As the city sprawled horizontally to engulf its ever expanding suburbs shoppers deserted downtown for suburban malls The book follows young couples into their post war dream homes with modern furnishings and barbecue appointed patios Suburban Modern argues that the suburbs rather than the downtown defined Calgary's approach to modernism

Modern Architecture Graham Livesey, 2024-11-15 Modern Architecture The Basics examines technological stylistic socio political and cultural changes that have transformed the history of architecture since the late 18th century Broad definitions of modernity and postmodernity introduce the book which comprises 24 short thematic chapters looking at the concepts behind the development of modern and postmodern architecture These include major historical movements key figures and evolving building typologies There is also an emphasis on the changing city during the 19th and 20th centuries Approaches to representation and its impacts on architecture are studied along with the changing global role of architecture as cultural expression The book introduces new topics including gender race postcolonialism and indigeneity An undaunting contemporary and inclusive account of modern architectural history this is a must read for all students of architecture as well as those outside the discipline approaching the subject for the first time

Hidden in Plain Sight Cora J. Voyageur, David Newhouse, Dan Beavon, 2011-10-08 The acclaimed and accessible Hidden in Plain Sight series showcases the extraordinary contributions made by Aboriginal peoples to Canadian identity and culture This collection features new accounts of Aboriginal peoples working hard to improve their lives and those of other Canadians and serves as a powerful contrast to narratives that emphasize themes of victimhood displacement and cultural disruption In this second volume of the series leading scholars and other experts pay tribute to the enduring influence of Aboriginal peoples on Canadian economic and community development environmental initiatives education politics and arts and culture Interspersed are profiles of many significant Aboriginal figures including singer songwriter and educator Buffy Sainte Marie politician Elijah Harper entrepreneur Dave Tuccaro and musician Robbie Robertson Hidden in Plain Sight continues to enrich and broaden our understandings of Aboriginal and Canadian history while providing inspiration for a new generation of leaders and luminaries

Glenn, 2018-06-26 This Handbook provides the first comprehensive international overview of significant contemporary Indigenous architecture practice and discourse showcasing established and emerging Indigenous authors and practitioners from Australia Aotearoa New Zealand the Pacific Islands Canada USA and other countries It captures the breadth and depth of contemporary work in the field establishes the historical and present context of the work and highlights important future directions for research and practice The topics covered include Indigenous placemaking identity cultural regeneration and Indigenous knowledges The book brings together eminent and emerging scholars and practitioners to discuss and compare major projects and design approaches to reflect on the main issues and debates while enhancing theoretical understandings of contemporary Indigenous architecture The book is an indispensable resource for scholars students policy makers and other professionals seeking to understand the ways in which Indigenous people have a built tradition or aspire to translate their cultures into the built environment It is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in the field of the built environment who need up to date knowledge of current practices and discourse on Indigenous peoples and their architecture Thirsty Land into Springs of Water Brooke Kathleen Brassard, 2025-07-15 Looking at the example of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints Thirsty Land into Springs of Water answers questions about Canadian and religious identities immigration and integration Brooke Kathleen Brassard sheds light on the Latter day Saint experience in southern Alberta between 1887 and 1947 revealing how the Latter day

Saints integrated into Canadian society while maintaining their peculiar identity through architecture business practices political participation gendered roles and family structures Drawing on family histories correspondence meeting minutes and oral histories Brassard explores how the Church negotiated the tension between integration and otherness The book demonstrates how Latter day Saints in southern Alberta embedded themselves in the social economic and political structures of Canada and how they adapted Mormonism to Canadian circumstances It draws on the concept of lived religion and historical methodologies to reveal the complications that occur in the process of negotiation for members of a minority religion in Canada Thirsty Land into Springs of Water ultimately illuminates the ways in which mainstream Canadian society forces newcomers to decide what they will adopt reject or adapt in order to belong

Contemporary Architects Ann Lee Morgan, Colin Naylor, 1987 To strengthen the contemporary focus of this volume we have added about forty architects and have deleted some whose activity ceased before World War II In making these decisions we have been assisted by an Advisory Board As in the first volume we have continued to define the word architect very broadly so as to include planners theorists structural engineers and landscape architects whose work seems to be central to the enterprise of creating habitable spaces in our day Editor's note

Sights of Resistance Robert James Belton, 2001 CD ROM contains Chapters from text Glossary

Architecture in Transition Kelly Crossman, 1987 The world of Canadian architecture was transformed during the years before 1900 New technologies such as the steel frame changed the way buildings were constructed new styles such as the Richardsonian Romanesque changed the way buildings looked and the development of the Canadian economy meant that new types of buildings were required Many of the public buildings banks houses hotels department stores and factories constructed during these years determined the character of Canadian cities for the next half century

Tremaine Houses Volker M. Welter, 2019-11-19 This volume analyzes the extraordinary patronage of modern architecture that the Tremaine family sustained for nearly four decades in the mid twentieth century From the late 1930s to the early 1970s two brothers Burton G Tremaine and Warren D Tremaine and their respective wives Emily Hall Tremaine and Katharine Williams Tremaine commissioned approximately thirty architecture and design projects Richard Neutra and Oscar Niemeyer designed the best known Tremaine houses Philip Johnson and Frank Lloyd Wright also created designs and buildings for the family that achieved iconic status in the modern movement Focusing on the Tremaines houses and other projects such as a visitor center at the meteor crater in Arizona this volume explores the Tremaines architectural patronage in terms of the family's motivations and values exposing patterns in what may appear as an eclectic collection of modern architecture Architectural historian Volker M Welter argues that the Tremaines patronage was not driven by any single factor rather it stemmed from a network of motives comprising the clients practical requirements their private and public lives and their ideas about architecture and art
