Modern Art And The Object Ellen H. Johnson, 2019-03-04 This book is devoted to a reexamination of modern art from the point of view of the artist's approach to the object. It chronicles the complex changing relationship between art and the object over the past hundred years: a fundamental organicism relationship as one thing grows out of another.

"Patricia Johanson and the Re-Invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010" Xin Wu, 2017-07-05 Impeccably researched and richly detailed, this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 more years' career of Patricia Johanson, an important artist in the second half of the twentieth century. Examining the artist's search for an art of the real as a member of the post-World War II New York art world and how such pursuit has led her from painting and sculpture to public garden and environmental art, Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation, challenging the centrality of art objects. This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist. It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth-century art. Following Johanson's artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art, architecture, garden, civil engineering, and environmental aesthetics, it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world. The artist's concept of nature is highlighted, and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought are unveiled. Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives, Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson's oeuvre, including drawings, paintings, sculptures, installations, garden proposals, and built and unbuilt projects in the United States, Brazil, Kenya, and Korea.

Dan Flavin Michael Govan, Tiffany Bell, 2004-09-10 Light, considered the purest embodiment of the divine, is the basis of all art to one degree or another, so why not make art out of light? Dan Flavin, 1933-1996, an innovative and prolific American sculptor who can be considered an abstract minimalist and installation artist, chose as his medium commercial fluorescent tubes, and with these everyday lights created works of radiant and evocative beauty. Flavin had many major shows and created a number of permanent public installations; now his work is being celebrated in a magnificent retrospective exhibition that will travel across the country. This handsomely produced volume by Govan, director of the Dia Art Foundation, and Bell, who worked with Flavin, presents exquisite photographs of Flavin's seminal light compositions and expert biographical and critical assessments. Citing Byzantine icons, William Ockham, and Barnett Newman as influences, Flavin created ravishingly beautiful colors and profoundly nuanced constructions with seemingly banal industrial materials transforming ordinary spaces into places of wonder For a definitive catalog see Dan Flavin The Complete Lights 1961 1996 The Paintings of Joan Mitchell Jane Livingston, Joan Mitchell, Linda Nochlin, Yvette Y. Gerdts,Patricia Trenton,2003-11-10 Presenting interpreting and celebrating the world renowned and the lesser known California artists who have uniquely defined and redefined the still life this volume offers an exploration of the sensual pleasures the aesthetic challenges and the intellectual and perceptual associations of a century of art through the prism of a single genre BOOK JACKET Planets on Tables Bonnie Costello,2018-07-05 Poets have long been drawn to the images and techniques of still life Artists and poets alike present intimate worlds where time is suspended in the play of form and color and where history disappears amid everyday things The genre of still life with its focus on the domestic sphere seemed to some a retreat from the political and economic pressures of the last century Yet many American artists and writers found in the arrangement of local objects a way to connect the individual to larger public concerns Indeed the debates over still life reveal just what is at stake in the long standing quarrel over poetry s meaning and usefulness By exploring literary works of still life by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams Elizabeth Bishop and Richard Wilbur as well as the art of Joseph Cornell the eminent critic Bonnie Costello considers how exchanges between the arts help to establish vital thresholds between the personal and public realms In her view Stevens and Williams bring the turmoil of history into their struggle for local aesthetic order Bishop studies history in the intimate objects and arrangements she finds in her travels Cornell an artist inspired by poetry and loved by poets links his dream boxes to contemporary events and Richard Wilbur seeks to mend a broken postwar world within the hospitable spheres of art and home In Planets on Tables Costello describes a period when some of America s greatest poets and artists found in still life a way to contemplate the good in the midst of confusion to bring the distant near and to resist rather than escape the pressures of their times
