Modern Ireland and Revolution Cormac O'Malley,2016-11-11 In 1922 following a decade of political ferment and much bloodshed the Irish Free State was established became stabilised and developed along conservative lines During these years the prevailing impulse was to reprove the actions of republicans who had rejected the Anglo Irish Treaty and many significant revolutionary voices were left unheeded One mind more agile than most of his contemporaries belonged to Ernie O Malley It was through his vastly popular clipped lyric memoirs especially On Another Man's Wound in 1936 that many of the complexities of the republican mindset were brought to light for readers worldwide In Modern Ireland and Revolution leading Irish and American historians and academics deliver critical essays that consider the life writings and monumental influence of Ernie O Malley and the modern arts that influenced him After his involvement in the War of Independence and the Civil War O Malley developed a modernist approach while living abroad for ten years he was devoted to the arts moved in circles that included Georgia O Keeffe and Paul Strand and through his probing mind counteracted any notion that republicans of his era were dull inflexible idealists In this fascinating collection art and revolution coincide enriching every preconception of the minds that supported both sides of the Treaty and revealing untoward truths about the Irish Free State's process of remembrance

Ireland on Show Fintan Cullen, 2017-07-05 Looking past the apparent lack of a sustainable Irish display culture this book demonstrates that there is a very full story to tell of the way Ireland displayed its art from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century Ireland on Show analyzes the impact of the display of art as a significant political and cultural feature in the make up of nineteenth century Ireland and in how Ireland was viewed beyond its own shores in particular in Great Britain and the United States Fintan Cullen directs much needed critical attention and analysis to a subject that has been largely overlooked from an Irish perspective This study moves beyond museums to address the range of art institutions in Irish cities that displayed art from the Royal Hibernian Academy founded in the 1820s to Hugh Lane's Municipal Art Gallery opened in Dublin in 1908 Throughout the book explores the battle between the display of a unionist ethos and a nationalist point of view a constant that resurfaces over the period By highlighting the tension between unionist and nationalist viewpoints Cullen uses the display of art to investigate the complexities of Irish cultural life before the founding of the Free State
