Divided into 15 chapters this book provides the reader with an insight into certain representations of mothers and motherhood in history and today's societies in some areas of the world notably in Britain and Asia. Key facts about the history of motherhood are presented together with the use of very recent notions and phrases portraying good and bad mothers. An analysis of the concepts of naming and blaming along with regret with respect to mothers in 21st century societies provides food for thought. Other issues addressed are varied and numerous: the politics of early intervention, feminist critique, mothers with disabilities and mothers of disabled children, incarcerated mothers, surrogate mothers, teenage mothers, lesbian mothers and mothering in Eastern Asia, namely in China, Japan and Korea. Interestingly, both visual arts and literature play a crucial role in this analysis. The publication will appeal to students, academics, researchers and the general public interested in and seeking to comprehend the shifts that have occurred over time in connection with the vast and inexhaustible subject of motherhood and mothers, a private and public matter. Readers are also provided with a rich reference section dealing with the latest publications on the issues tackled by prominent academics and researchers in human geography, women's studies, sociology, gender studies, contemporary history and the arts. Modern Informative Nursery Rhymes Kellet I.

Min, 1993-01-01. This book includes inventive rhymes to assist children; the intent of these rhymes is to make children thirsty for sips of knowledge. The rhymes are written to induce children's interest in science. Facts/concepts contained in this book include composition of stars, distances in space, components of our solar system, Newton's laws of motion, gravity, Einstein's theories of Special General Relativity.
