include Modernization of people and writing Realism romanticism and modernist aesthetics Chinese literature on the stage and screen Patriotism war and revolution Feminism liberalism and socialism Literature of reform reflection and experimentation Literature of Taiwan Hong Kong and new media This handbook provides an integration of biographical narrative with textual analysis maintaining a subtle balance between comprehensive overview and in depth examination As such it is an essential reference guide for all students and scholars of Chinese literature The ALA Guide to Researching Modern China Yunshan Ye, 2014-03-28 Covering modern China not just Chinese culture from an historical perspective this important new book fills a sizeable gap in the literature Chinese Literature Dan Yao, 2012-03-09 This accessible illustrated introduction takes the reader through the rich Chinese literary tradition from ancient times to the twentieth century exploring poetry drama opera novels short stories the modern media and the authors who created these cultural treasures Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2009-12-22 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature A New Literary History of Modern China David Der-wei Wang, 2017-05-22 Featuring over 140 Chinese and non Chinese contributors this landmark volume edited by David Der wei Wang explores unconventional forms as well as traditional genres emphasizes Chinese authors influence on foreign writers as well as China's receptivity to outside literary influences and offers vibrant contrasting voices and points of view A History of Contemporary Chinese Literature Zicheng Hong, 2007 A thorough overview and analysis of the literary scene in China during the 1949-1999 period focusing primarily on fiction poetry drama and prose writing Provided by publisher Chinese Modern Xiaobing Tang, 2000-04-03 An analysis of the Chinese experience of modernity through the literary works films and other cultural artifacts that represent it Afterlives of Letters Satoru Hashimoto, 2023-10-24 Honorable Mention 2024 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for East Asian Studies Modern Language Association When East Asia opened itself to the world in the nineteenth century Chinese Japanese and Korean intellectuals had shared notions of literature because of the centuries long cultural exchanges in the region As modernization profoundly destabilized cultural norms they ventured to create new literature for the new era Satoru Hashimoto offers a novel way of understanding the origins of modern literature in a transregional context drawing on Chinese Japanese and Korean language texts in both classical and vernacular forms He argues that modern literature came into being in East Asia through writerly attempts at reconstructing the present's historical relationship to the past across the cultural transformations caused by modernization Hashimoto examines writers' anachronistic engagement with past cultures deemed obsolete or antithetical to new systems of values showing that this transnational process was integral to the emergence of modern literature A groundbreaking cross cultural excavation of the origins of modern literature in East Asia featuring remarkable linguistic scope Afterlives of Letters bridges Asian studies and comparative literature and delivers a remapping of world literature

A Cultural History of Modern Chinese Literature Fuhui Wu, 2020-02-27 This is an illustrated cultural history of the emergence of modern literature in China from the late nineteenth century through the early years of the Chinese Republic the 1930s and the war period ending in 1949 Wu Fuhui takes an interdisciplinary approach to the topic drawing in book production translation popular and elite texts international influences and political history Presented here in English translation for the first time Wu argues that this was a transformative period in Chinese literature informed both by developments in China's domestic history and the dynamics of global circulation and encounter

Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind, Mayhem and Money Maghiel van Crevel, 2008-08-31 Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind Mayhem and Money is a groundbreaking contribution to scholarship well suited to classroom use in that it combines rigorous analysis with a lively style Covering the period from the 1980s to the present it is organized around the notions of text context and metatext meaning poetry its socio political and cultural surroundings and critical discourse in the broadest sense Authors and issues studied include Han Dong Haizi Xi Chuan Yu Jian Sun Wenbo Yang Lian Wang Jiaxin Bei Dao Yin Lichuan Shen Haobo and Yan Jun and everything from the subtleties of poetic rhythm to exile bashing in domestic media This book has room for all that poetry is cultural heritage symbolic capital intellectual endeavor social commentary emotional expression music and the materiality of language art in a word

A Critical History of Contemporary Chinese Fiction Cheng Guangwei, 2024-12-31 This book studies the history of contemporary Chinese fiction criticism highlighting the role of critics in shaping contemporary literary history The author divides the history of contemporary Chinese fiction criticism into three periods 1949 1976 1977 1991 and 1992 2015 The first period saw the emergence of the circle of critics who insisted on judging literary works by political standards The second period brought the rise of the Beijing Critics Circle and the Shanghai Critics Circle The former advocated artistic standards in judging works while the latter introduced contemporary Western literary theories into literary criticism The third period marked the emergence of Scholarly Criticism Criticism of Women's Fiction and Post 1960s Fiction Criticism reflecting critics' attitudes toward history and philosophy Drawing on historical materials this study illuminates contemporary literary trends and the contributions of key writers and critics It also relates literary criticism to the social environment underlining the simultaneous relationship between contemporary fiction criticism and social ideology This book will be invaluable to scholars and students of Chinese literature and literary criticism especially those interested in the diverse landscape of contemporary Chinese culture Literary Culture in Taiwan Sung-sheng Yvonne Chang, 2004-10-06 With monumental changes in the last two decades Taiwan is making itself anew The process requires remapping not only the country's recent political past but also its literary past Taiwanese literature is now compelled to negotiate a path between residual high culture aspirations and the emergent reality of market domination in a relatively autonomous increasingly professionalized field This book argues that the concept of a field of cultural production is essential to accounting for the ways in which writers and editors respond to political and economic forces It traces the formation of dominant concepts of literature competing literary trends and how these ideas have met political and market challenges Contemporary Taiwanese literature has often been neglected and misrepresented by literary historians both inside and outside of Taiwan Chang provides a comprehensive and fluent history of late twentieth century Taiwanese literature by placing this vibrant tradition within the contexts of a modernizing local economy a globalizing world economy and a postcolonial and post Cold War world order A Novel Approach to China Gengsong Gao, 2022-01-03 This book explores Chinese novelists' distinctive contributions to the China debate in terms of the key issues of Chinese language power dynamics and Confucian tradition As China is rising Chinese scholars and policymakers are debating heatedly over China's past present and future Who are the major debaters How do they analyze China's problems and figure out solutions What are the main achievements and weaknesses of the Chinese intellectual debate and discourse Chinese novelists also get involved in the China debate However their voices are rarely heard This book argues that by dramatizing the diversities of ordinary social actors everyday languages active discursive practices and enchanted local traditions Chinese novelists do not merely illustrate the dominant liberal the New Left and the New Confucian ideologies but enrich the China debate and provide a novel approach to our understanding of modern China
