From Ritual to Modern Art Manfred Ewel, 2001 This beautifully produced and lavishly illustrated book addresses the huge imbalance in appreciation and representation of African art Museums exhibitions lavish catalogues magazines and publications on African art are largely dominated by non African scholars and institutions These imbalances lie in the economic and political discrepancies the history of European colonialism in Africa and the Western tradition of scholarship and public education on art history and ethnography Outside Africa East African art has been assumed to be more or less non-existent This is one of the few publications to have come out of Tanzania bearing witness to the appreciation of sculptural art and its tradition in that country The book arose out of a symposium on The Significance of Traditional Cultures for Today's Society which brought together Tanzanian and other experts organised by the National Museums of Tanzania and the German Cultural Centre in Dar es Salaam Papers from that symposium together with additional articles on the history and current state of sculpture in Tanzania present art from an African perspective and include contributions from Western scholars joining forces with African scholars Sociological ethnological and art historical approaches are included illustrating sculpture as the prime example of fine art in Africa both in its purely aesthetic sense and intricately linked with its ever changing cultural context Modern Makonde Sculpture (Catalogue of an Exhibition Presented Under the Auspices of the School of Art and the Program of East African Studies. War explores the ways in which these Second and Third World actors collaborated and clashed in these everyday spaces and brings these multi faceted multi actor histories to a vital centre ground The Arts of Africa ,1989 Raiding the Icebox
Peter Wollen,2020-05-05 Raiding the Icebox is a kaleidoscopic review of the avant garde and radical subcultures of the twentieth century and explains how the most powerful artistic statements of the era redrew the line between high and low art Beginning with an analysis of the role of Diaghilev and the Russian Ballet Wollen argues that modernism has always had a hidden suppressed side which cannot easily be absorbed into the master narrative of modernity Wollen reviews the hopes fears and expectations of artists and critics such as the Bauhaus movement as fascinated by Henry Ford s assembly line as they were by the Hollywood dream factory concluding with Guy Debord s caustic dystopian vision of an all consuming Society of the Spectacle Finally Wollen chronicles the emergence of a subversive sensibility as he explores some of the unexpected new cultural forms which non Western artists are taking as modernism enters into crisis at the beginning of a new century reversing the rules of the game and raiding the icebox of the West
