Japan Works John Price,2018-09-05 The postwar miracle says John Price made Japan and its corporations the toast of the global village with scholars across the United States pointing to Japan as the model for future enterprise The economic bubble burst however in 1989 and Price documents difficulties that have surfaced since that time In Japan itself the common self assessment is rich country poor people and government reports regularly criticize society for being too enterprising In emulating Japan Price asks are we choosing a path Japan itself is rejecting Price probes the paradoxes in postwar labor management relations particularly in the years between 1945 and 1975 Basing his analysis on the history of labor in Mitsui s Miike mine in Kyushu Suzuki Motors in Hamamatsu and Moriguchi City Hall the author questions the common interpretation that industrial relations are based on lifetime jobs seniority based wages and enterprise unions He also asks whether Japanese workers have been genuinely empowered by the developments in recent years In his description of the rough and tumble world of postwar Japanese industrial relations Price pays particular attention to the Occupation period the rise of Shunto the increased industrial conflict prior to 1975 and the transition to generalized labor management cooperation Relying on French regulation theory and on Michael Burawoy's concept of production regimes Price suggests a revisionist interpretation of the transformation of Japan's political economy offering new insights into the rise of lean production and the quality movement in Japan

Swamidass, 2006-09-21 The Encyclopedia of Production and Manufacturing Management is an encyclopedia that has been developed to serve this field as the fundamental reference work Over the past twenty years the field of production and operations management has grown more rapidly than ever and consequently its boundaries have been stretched in all directions For example in the last two decades production and manufacturing management absorbed in rapid succession several new production management concepts manufacturing strategy focused factory just in time manufacturing concurrent engineering total quality management supply chain management flexible manufacturing systems lean production and mass customization to name a few This explosive growth makes the need for this volume abundantly clear The manufacturing industry thinks and acts more broadly than it did several decades ago The most notable change has been the need for manufacturing managers to think in technological strategic and competitive terms This is a very favorable development and it leads to manufacturing success The entries in this encyclopedia include the most recent technical and strategic innovations in production and manufacturing management The encyclopedia consists of articles of varying lengths The longer articles on important concepts and practices range from five to fifteen pages There are about 100 such articles written by nearly 100 authors from around the world In addition there are over 1000 shorter entries on concepts practices and principles The range of topics and depth of coverage is intended to suit both student and professional audiences The shorter entries provide digests of unfamiliar and complicated subjects Difficult subjects are made intelligible to the reader without oversimplification The strategic and technological perspectives on various topics give this Encyclopedia its distinctiveness and uniqueness The world of manufacturing today is increasingly competitive It is apparent that manufacturers must respond to these competitive pressures with technical and strategic innovation This encyclopedia has been developed to help researchers students and those in the manufacturing industry to understand and implement these ongoing changes in the field

Inside the Mind of Toyota Satoshi Hino, 2024-11-01 Winner of a Shingo Research and Professional Publication Award Toyota's sustained growth attracts the attention of economists and industrialists around the world eager to learn the secrets of Toyota's lasting success In Inside the Mind of Toyota: Management Principles for Enduring Growth Satoshi Hino examines the source of Toyota's strength the fundamental thinking and management structures that lie beneath the creation of its famed Toyota Production System From the perspective of a professional with 30 years experience in the auto industry Hino presents a fresh and detailed analysis of Toyota's essential management system from its very beginnings into the 21st century The ultimate goal is not simply to mimic Toyota's formula but to learn from it and in doing so surpass it From the Translator's Foreword Unlike most Toyota watchers Hino urges us to set our sights not on replicating Toyota's success but on surpassing it This point is crucial because it moves our attention away from slavish imitation of what is visible on the surface and challenges us to tap into deeper and more powerful mechanisms of excellence This is not a cookbook and it is not Toyota Lite It deserves serious study application and experimentation Learn how Toyota thinks Hino is telling us Learn Toyota's strengths make them your own and then exceed them Andrew Dillon September

Modern Management Methods Ernest Dale, Leno Ceno Michelin, 1966 Effective Hospital Management Rufino Macagba MD MPH, 2019-04-30 This book proposes that hospitals should aim not only to heal or rehabilitate the sick but should also teach people how to live a healthy life The management system described can be used by hospital managers at any level to improve performance and results following a team approach where various needed skills are added when needed The key to success is to have team members and staff whose competencies complement each other Mastering hospital management is a lifetime quest but one can begin to use and benefit from the proven management methods described Continuing improvements are achieved by having a team committed to continuous improvement whose skills reinforce one another reading recommended books learning from visiting other hospitals and talking to colleagues in those hospitals Dr Rufino L Macagba Factory and Industrial Management John Robertson Dunlap, Arthur Van Vlassingen, John M.
