The Nordic Languages Oskar Bandle, Lennart Elmevik, Gun Widmark, 2002 Annotation This handbook is conceived as a comprehensive history of the North Germanic languages from the oldest times up to the present day Whereas most of the traditional presentations of Nordic language history are confined to individual languages and often concentrate on purely linguistic data the present work covers the history of all Nordic languages in its totality embedded in a broad culture historical context The Nordic languages are described both individually and in their mutual dependence as well as in relation to the neighboring non Nordic languages The handbook is not tied to a particular methodology but keeps in principle to a pronounced methodological pluralism encompassing all aspects of actual methodology Moreover it combines diachronic with synchronic systematic aspects longitudinal sections with cross sections periods such as Old Norse transition from Old Norse to Early Modern Nordic Early Modern Nordic 1550 1800 and so on The description of Nordic language history is built upon a comprehensive collection of linguistic data it consists of more than 200 articles written by a multitude of authors from Scandinavian and German and English speaking countries The organization of the handbook combines a central part on the detailed chronological developments and some chapters of a more general character chapters on theory and methodology in the beginning and on overlapping spatio temporal topics in the end Scandinavian Review ,1917 Anxiety in Modern Scandinavian Literature Markus Floris Christensen,2024-06-17 This book explores how states and traits of anxiety are reflected in the style and structure of certain works by three key figures of modern Scandinavian literature August Strindberg Inger Christensen Karl Ove Knausg rd On the basis of particular literary analyses it develops a literary phenomenology of anxiety as well as a hermeneutical theory of anxiety that considers the ways in which anxiety has been represented in various genres of modern Scandinavian literature from the last three centuries Whereas the former uncovers the ways in which anxiety is reflected in literary form and style the latter interprets the relationship between author text and reader as well as the effects of genre As Strindberg s works capture the tensions between existential indeterminism and naturalistic determinism and make way for negative aesthetic pleasure poetry such as Christensen s challenges scientific and psychiatric conceptions of anxiety and instigates a change in how humans conduct themselves in relation to the experience of anxiety Finally Knausg rd s autofictive work gives voice to the socially anxious self of late modernity and incites moments of self intensification and reorganizes the fragile self of contemporary society In this way it becomes clear that literature is an outstanding archive of representations and transformations in the cultural history of anxiety Literature is an aesthetic medium of expression and reflection that represents anxiety in a number of ways that may enrich our understanding of anxiety today This work thus contributes to cultural and literary scholarship that contests the subjugation of anxiety to a scientific world view and aims to expose the imaginative and creative dimensions of anxiety that are often ignored in contemporary public discourse and policy I Run Line Mørkeby,2019-08-01 A new Danish play by Line Mørkeby shining a light on how we talk about death A dad loses his six year old daughter to cancer and his world falls apart He doesn't know how to process the life shattering void following her premature death He starts running to deal with his loss Only he can't stop. He runs through the pain, the memories, and the grief to try and find the point where he no longer runs but soars. The point where he is close to her again. I Run is a fast-paced, explosive, and moving one-man play about running, grief, and missing someone we love. About how you survive the death of your child. Why do we find it so hard to talk about death?
