History of Africa Kevin Shillington, 2018-08-28 This fourth edition of this best selling core history textbook offers a richly illustrated single volume narrative introduction to African history from a hugely respected authority in the field. The market leading range of illustrated material from prior editions is now further improved featuring not only additional and redrawn maps and a refreshed selection of photographs but the addition of full colour to make these even more instructive, evocative and attractive. Already hugely popular on introductory African History courses, the book has been widely praised for its engaging and readable style and is unrivalled in scope both geographically and chronologically while many competitors limit themselves to certain regions or eras. Shillington chronicles the entire continent from prehistory right up to the present day. For this new edition both content and layout have been thoroughly refreshed and restructured to make this wealth of material easily navigable and even more appealing to students unfamiliar with the subject. New to this Edition: Now in full colour with fresh new design. Part structure and part intros added to help navigation. New and improved online resources include a new testbank, interactive timelines, lecturer slides, debates, in African history essay questions and further readings. Revised and updated in light of recent research.

The Poisoned Well Roger Hardy, 2019 In The Poisoned Well veteran BBC journalist Roger Hardy presents a realist's history of the Middle East by weaving together stories of political strife and vivid firsthand accounts to illustrate that the current conflicts and crises of the Middle East are borne out of the troubled legacy of Western imperialism in the region.

Settler Colonialism in the Twentieth Century Caroline Elkins, Susan Pedersen, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an information company.

Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non-fiction presented together, this companion is for all those who like travelling, like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination. It covers guidebooks as well as books about food, history, art and architecture, religion, outdoor activities, illustrated books, autobiographies, biographies and fiction, and lists books both in and out of print. Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent, then alphabetically by country, and then by subject, cross-referenced where necessary. There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes. Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects. She is known by well-known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron. Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop, and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion.

Self-Censorship in Contexts of Conflict Daniel Bar-Tal, Rafi Nets-Zehngut, Keren Sharvit, 2017-10-30 This groundbreaking volume explores the concept of self-censorship as it relates to individuals and societies and functions as a barrier to peace. Defining self-censorship as the act of intentionally and voluntarily withholding information from others in the absence of formal obstacles, the volume introduces self-censorship as one of the socio-psychological mechanisms that prevent the free flow of information and thus obstruct proper functioning of democratic societies. Moreover, it analyzes this socio-psychological phenomenon specifically in the context of intractable conflict providing much evidence from the Israeli Palestinian conflict Moving from the micro to the macro level the collected chapters put the individual as the focal unit of psychological analysis while embedding the individual in multiple levels of context including families organizations and societies Following a firm conceptual explanation of self censorship a selection of both emerging and prominent scholars describe the ways in which self censorship factors into families organizations education academia and other settings Further chapters discuss self censorship in military contexts narratives of political violence and the media Finally the volume concludes by looking at the ways in which harmful self censorship in societies can be overcome and explores the future of self censorship research In doing so this volume solidifies self censorship as an important phenomenon of social behavior with major individual and collective consequences while stimulating exciting and significant new research possibilities in the social and behavioral sciences Conceptually carving out a new area in peace psychology Self Censorship in Contexts of Peace and Conflict will appeal to psychologists sociologists peace researchers political scientists practitioners and all those with a wish to understand the personal and societal functioning of individuals in the real world

Musical Exodus Ruth F. Davis, 2015-09-17 For nearly eight centuries from the Muslim conquest of Spain in 711 to the final expulsion of the Jews in 1492 Muslims Jews and Christians shared a common Andalusian culture under alternating Muslim and Christian rule Following their expulsion the Spanish and Arabic speaking Jews joined pre existing diasporic communities and established new ones across the Mediterranean and beyond In the twentieth century radical social and political upheavals in the former Ottoman and European occupied territories led to the mass exodus of Jews from Turkey and the Arab Mediterranean with the majority settling in Israel Following a trajectory from medieval Al Andalus to present day Israel via North Africa Italy Turkey and Syria pausing for perspectives from Enlightenment Europe Musical Exodus Al Andalus and its Jewish Diasporas tells of diverse song and instrumental traditions born of the multiple musical encounters between Jews and their Muslim and Christian neighbors in different Mediterranean diasporas and the revival and renewal of those traditions in present day Israel In this collection of essays from Philip V Bohlman Daniel J. T. Tony Langlois Piergabriele Mancuso John O Connell Vanessa Paloma Carmel Raz Dwight Reynolds Edwin Seroussi and Jonathan Shannon with opening and closing contributions by Ruth F Davis and Stephen Blum distinguished ethnomusicologists cultural historians linguists and performers explore from multidisciplinary perspectives the complex and diverse processes and conditions of intercultural and intracultural musical encounters The authors consider how musical traditions acquired new functions and meanings in different social political and diasporic contexts explore the historical role of Jewish musicians as cultural intermediaries between the different faith communities and examine how music is implicated in projects of remembering and forgetting as societies come to terms with mass exodus by reconstructing their narratives of the past The essays in Musical Exodus Al Andalus and its Jewish Diasporas extend beyond the music of medieval Iberia and its Mediterranean Jewish diasporas to wider aspects of Jewish Christian and Jewish Muslim relations The authors offer new perspectives on theories of musical interaction hybridization and the cultural meaning of musical expression in diasporic and minority communities The essays address how music is implicated in constructions of ethnicity and nationhood and of myth and history while also examining the resurgence of Al Andalus as a symbol in musical projects that claim to promote cross cultural understanding and peace The diverse scholarship in Musical Exodus makes a vital contribution to scholars of music and European and Jewish history

Counterpoints Stephanie Tara Schwartz, May Telmissany, 2010-03-08 Revolving around the theme of counterpoint extensively used by Edward Said as the interplay of diverse ideas and discrepant experiences this book aims to explore Said's contribution to the fields of comparative literature literary criticism postcolonial theory exilic and transnational studies and socio political thought among many others Overshadowed by his legitimate political positions in support to the Palestinian cause and at odds with Islamophobic hostilities Said's intellectual achievements in the fields of humanities and philosophical thinking should equally be acknowledged and celebrated Said articulates his notion of counterpoints through a vivid description of the composition of Western classical music In the counterpoint of Western classical music various themes play off one another with only a provisional privilege being given to any particular one yet in the resulting polyphony there is concert and order an organized interplay that derives from the themes not from a rigorous melodic or formal principle outside the work This book pays tribute to Said's contrapuntal methodology as well as to his academic and humanistic legacy

Assassination! July 14 Ben Abro, 2001-01-01 July 14 One of Europe's most sinister terrorist organizations hatches a brilliant plan to assassinate the feared and powerful leader of France President Charles de Gaulle Max Palk an extraordinarily talented British secret agent is summoned to Paris to hunt down the assassins before it is too late Ensnared in a terrifying web of doublecross and death Palk races against the clock to outmaneuver outshoot and outthink his increasingly desperate foes A decade before The Day of the Jackal appeared Ben Abro's Assassination July 14 became an international sensation thanks to its sizzling plot an ingenious intellectual hero and a realistic depiction of France's volatile political scene in the 1960s In fact the novel proved too real provoking outrage and a lawsuit that shut down its publication For the first time in decades this gripping underground thriller is again widely available The equally riveting story behind the novel and the controversy it spawned are carefully explained in an informative essay by James D Le Sueur Drawing upon interviews with the authors court transcripts and recent evidence and scholarship Le Sueur examines how an item of popular culture could have had such national and international repercussions

Postcolonial Realms of Memory Etienne Achille, Charles Forsdick, Lydie Moudileno, 2020 An elegant yet accessible work Postcolonial Realms of Memory not only exposes the colonial blind spot that left Pierre Nora's Lieux de memoire incomplete but begins the long task of remedying it This is a crucial intervention that the field has required for some time Gemma King Contemporary French Civilization Paris, Pretoria and the African Continent Jean-Pascal Daloz, Chris Alden, 2016-07-27 France and South Africa for two generations the premier powers on the African continent are at a crossroads With the ending of apartheid and the Cold War the divisive politics of the recent past are being replaced by a new dynamism of cooperation Analysing the nature of this complex web of economic and political association is critical to a better understanding of the future direction of this most central of relationships in Africa Bringing together a host of noted scholars and practitioners in African international relations from both France and South Africa this book addresses the changing nature of this relationship and its implications for the future of the continent     Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger, 2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations
