Modern Art And The Modern Mind:

Modern Art and the Modern Mind Josef Paul Hodin, 1972 Modern Art at the Border of Mind and Brain Jonathan Fineberg, 2015-08-01 Public lectures delivered at two separate venues the Sheldon Art Museum in Lincoln Nebraska and Kaneko in Omaha Nebraska Hegel on the Modern Arts Benjamin Rutter, 2010-07-29 Debates over the end of art have tended to obscure Hegel's work on the arts themselves Benjamin Rutter opens this study with a defence of art's indispensability to Hegel's conception of modernity he then seeks to reorient discussion toward the distinctive values of painting poetry and the novel Working carefully through Hegel's four lecture series on aesthetics he identifies the expressive possibilities particular to each medium Thus Dutch genre scenes animate the everyday with an appearance of vitality metaphor frees language from prose and Goethe's lyrics revive the banal routines of love with imagination and wit Rutter's important study reconstructs Hegel's view not only of modern art but of modern life and will appeal to philosophers literary theorists and art historians alike The Artist's Mind George Hagman, 2010-06-18 This book examines how contemporary psychoanalytic theory provides insight into understanding the psychological sources of modern art Chicago Makes Modern Mary Jane Jacob, Jacquelyn Baas, 2012-12-15 Chicago is a city dedicated to the modern from the skyscrapers that punctuate its skyline to the spirited style that inflects many of its dwellings and institutions from the New Bauhaus to Hull House Despite this the city has long been overlooked as a locus for modernism in the arts its rich tradition of architecture design and education disregarded Still the modern in Chicago continues to thrive as new generations of artists incorporate its legacy into fresh visions for the future Chicago Makes Modern boldly remaps twentieth century modernism from our new century perspective by asking an imperative question How did the modern mind deeply reflective yet simultaneously directed help to dramatically alter our perspectives on the world and make it new Returning the city to its rightful position at the heart of a multidimensional movement that changed the face of the twentieth century Chicago Makes Modern applies the missions of a brilliant group of innovators to our own time From the radical social and artistic perspectives implemented by Jane Addams John Dewey and Buckminster Fuller to the avant garde designs of László Moholy-Nagy and Mies van der Rohe the prodigious offerings of Chicago's modern minds left an indelible legacy for future generations Staging the city as a laboratory for some of our most heralded cultural experiments Chicago Makes Modern reimagines the modern as a space of self realization and social progress where individual visions triggered profound change Featuring contributions from an acclaimed roster of contemporary artists critics and scholars this book demonstrates how and why the Windy City continues to drive the modern world A Theology of Creation Thomas S. Hibbs, 2023-08-15 This book provides the first sustained philosophical treatment of Pope Francis's Laudato Si and articulates a theology of creation to recover our place within the cosmos In the encyclical Laudato Si Pope Francis discerns beneath the imminent threat of ecological catastrophe an existential affliction of the human person who is lost in the cosmos increasingly alienated from self others nature and God

Pope Francis suggests that one must reimagine humanity's place in the created cosmos. In this ambitious and distinctive contribution to theological aesthetics, Thomas S. Hibbs provides the basis for just such a recovery, working from Laudato Si to develop a philosophical and theological diagnosis of our ecological dislocation, a narrative account of the sources of the crisis, and a vision of the way forward. Through a critical engagement with the artistic theory of Jacques Maritain, Hibbs shows how certain strains of modern art both capture our alienation and anticipate visions of recovered harmony among persons, nature, and God. In the second half of the book, in an attempt to fulfill Pope Francis's plea for an aesthetic education and to apply and test Maritain's theory, Hibbs examines the work of poets and painters. He analyzes the work of poets Robinson Jeffers and William Everson and considers painters Georges Rouault, a friend to Maritain, and Makoto Fujimura, whose notion of culture care overlaps in suggestive ways with Francis's notion of integral ecology. Throughout this tour de force, Hibbs calls for a commitment to an ecological poetics, a project that responds to the crisis of our times by taking poets and painters as seriously as philosophers and theologians.

Spretnak, 2014-10-22 This book demonstrates that numerous prominent artists in every period of the modern era were expressing spiritual interests when they created celebrated works of art.
