Modern art of Japan since 1950 ,1985 Zen in the Fifties Helen Westgeest,1996 Enth It Zen in de jaren vijftig
Wisselwerking in de beeldende kunst tussen Oost en West Samenvatting The Politics of Painting Asato
Ikeda,2018-05-31 This book examines a set of paintings produced in Japan during the 1930s and early 1940s that have received little scholarly attention Asato Ikeda views the work of four prominent artists of the time Yokoyama Taikan Yasuda Yukihiro Uemura Sh en and Fujita Tsuguharu through the lens of fascism showing how their seemingly straightforward paintings of Mount Fuji samurai beautiful women and the countryside supported the war by reinforcing a state ideology that justified violence in the name of the country s cultural authenticity She highlights the politics of apolitical art and challenges the postwar labeling of battle paintings those depicting scenes of war and combat as uniquely problematic Yokoyama Taikan produced countless paintings of Mount Fuji as the embodiment of Japan s national body and spirituality in contrast to the modern West s individualism and materialism Yasuda Yukihiro located Japan in the Minamoto warriors of the medieval period depicting them in the yamato e style which is defined as classically Japanese Uemura Sh en sought to paint the quintessential Japanese woman drawing on the Edo period bijin ga beautiful women genre while alluding to noh aesthetics and wartime gender expectations For his subjects Fujita Tsuguharu looked to the rural snow country where it was believed authentic Japanese traditions could still be found Although these artists employed different styles and favored different subjects each maintained close ties with the state and presented what he considered to be the most representative and authentic portrayal of Japan Throughout Ikeda takes into account the changing relationships between visual iconography artistic style and its significance by carefully situating artworks within their specific historical and cultural moments She reveals the global dimensions of wartime nationalist Japanese art and opens up the possibility of dialogue with scholarship on art produced in other countries around the same time particularly Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy The Politics of Painting will be welcomed by those interested in modern Japanese art and visual culture and war art and fascism Its analysis of painters and painting within larger currents in intellectual history will attract scholars of modern Japanese and East Asian studies
