Hess,2025 El amor brujo trans Love the Magician is a theater work by the Spanish classical composer Manuel de Falla It showcases flamenco the music of the Gitanos who traditionally form Spain s underclass When it premiered in Spain in 1915 it proved controversial some Spanish critics applauded Falla for celebrating the music of a marginalized culture while others attacked his mixing of classical and popular idioms Since then El amor brujo has intrigued arrangers and artists It has been repeatedly reshaped rearranged and repackaged either by Falla himself or by artists ranging from the concert pianist Artur Schnabel to the super showman Liberace or to various jazz and pop arrangers El amor brujo has also figured in soundtracks whether frothy movie musicals from the 1940s somber accounts of recent

Redefining Hungarian Music from Liszt to Bartók Lynn M. Hooker,2013-10-25 Some of the most popular works of nineteenth century music were labeled either Hungarian or Gypsy in style including many of the best known and least respected of Liszt s compositions In the early twentieth century B la Bart k and his colleagues questioned not only the Hungarianness but also the good taste of that style Bart k argued that it should be discarded in favor of a national style based in the genuine folk music of the rural peasantry Between the heyday of the nineteenth century Hungarian Gypsy style and its replacement by a new paradigm of authentic national style was a vigorous decades long debate one little known inside or outside Hungary over what it meant to be Hungarian European and modern Redefining Hungarian Music from Liszt to Bart k traces the historical process that defined the conventions of Hungarian Gypsy style Author Lynn M Hooker frames her study around the 1911 celebration of Liszt s centennial In so doing she analyzes Liszt s problematic role as a Hungarian born composer and leader of Hungarian art music who spent most of his life outside of Hungary and questioned whether Hungary s national music was more the creation of Hungarians or Roma Gypsies The themes of race and nation that emerge in the discussion of Liszt are further developed in an analysis of discourse on Hungarian national music throughout the Hungarian press in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Showing how the discovery of genuine folk music by Bart k and Kod ly often depicted as a purely scientific matter responds directly to concerns raised by earlier writers about the problem of Hungarian music Hooker argues that the innovations of Bart k and Kod ly and their circle are not so much in correcting a flawed concept of the national as in using the idea of national authenticity to open up freedom for composers to explore more stylistic options including the exploration of modernist musical language Meticulously researched and elegantly written Redefining Hungarian Music from Liszt to Bart k is essential reading for musicologists musicians and concertgoers alike

Gabriel Fauré: The Songs and their Poets Graham Johnson,2017-07-05 The career of Gabriel Faur s a composer of songs for voice and piano traverses six decades 1862 1921 almost the whole history of French m die is contained within these parameters In the 1860s Faur the lifelong prot of Camille Saint Sa was a suavely precocious student he was part of Pauline Viardot s circle in the 1870s and he nearly married her daughter Pointed in the direction of symbolist poetry by Robert de Montesquiou in 1886 Faur as the favoured composer from the early 1890s of Winnarretta Singer later Princesse de Polignac and his songs were revered by Marcel Proust In 1905 he became director of the Paris Conservatoire and he composed his most profound music in old age His existence steadily productive and outwardly imperturbable was undermined by self doubt an unhappy marriage and a tragic loss of hearing In this detailed study Graham Johnson places the vocal music within twin contexts Faur's own life story and the parallel lives of his many poets We encounter such giants as Charles Baudelaire and Paul Verlaine the patrician Leconte de Lisle the forgotten Armand Silvestre and the Belgian symbolist Charles Van Lerberghe The chronological range of the narrative encompasses Faur's first poet Victor Hugo who railed against Napoleon III in the 1850s and the last Jean de La Ville de Mirmont killed in action in the First World War In this comprehensive and richly illustrated study each of Faur's 109 songs receives a separate commentary Additional chapters for the student singer and serious music lover discuss interpretation and performance in both aesthetical and practical terms Richard Stokes provides parallel English translations of the original French texts In the twenty first century musical modernity is evaluated differently from the way it was assessed thirty years ago Faur's no longer merely a Master of Charms circumscribed by the belle époque His status as a great composer of timeless
