Darjeeling Dinesh Chandra Ray, Srikanta Roy Chowdhury, 2022-12-22 History has always dealt with people yet often gazing at the people from the perspectives of the non-people colonizers intruders outsiders and the privileged elite insiders who seem to have internalized the mainstream perspective framed by the outsiders In this context a group of scholars working on Darjeeling felt that there was a need for an inclusive people's history of the Darjeeling hills The present volume tries to fill this gap of the missing voices of the people of the Darjeeling hills and their cultures through re-writing inclusive history of society and culture from below not only by decoding the elements that are treated as tradition but also the transformations in the realms of arts and ecology For the tribal scape of the Darjeeling hills is not a static frozen zone and the people hence the geo-space are in continuous transition from traditional beings towards becoming neo-traditional Accepting history as constantly extra-mural the objectives of the book are to focus on undocumented histories related to harmony intimacy belongingness and environmental care and thereby interact the living with what is often projected as dead by rejecting to abide by any given set of references as the final scientific authentic and thereby opening up with other kinds of historical dialogue with the understated historical items that are accessible in Darjeeling Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print version of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka      Wandering with Sadhus Sondra L.
