New York More Than Ever:

Now More Than Ever Aldous Huxley, 2013-11-06 Over the course of his career British writer Aldous Huxley 1894 1963 shifted away from elitist social satires and an atheistic outlook toward greater concern for the masses and the use of religious terms and imagery This change in Huxley's thinking underlies the previously unpublished play Now More Than Ever Written in 1932 1933 just after Brave New World Now More Than Ever is a response to the social economic and political upheavals of its time Huxley's protagonist is an idealistic financier whose grandiose schemes for controlling the means of production drive him to swindling and finally to suicide His fate allows Huxley to expose the evils he perceives in free market capitalism while pleading the case for national economic planning and the rationalization of Britain's industrial base This volume contains the full text of Now More Than Ever which was believed to be lost until 1976 when a copy was found at the Harry Ransom Humanities Research Center of the University of Texas at Austin A thinker's play that has never been produced on stage it is the last previously unpublished piece of Huxley's major writings and immensely important to understanding his development as a writer The editors of this volume have annotated the play for contemporary readers Their introduction sets the play in the context of Huxley's intellectual life

With Us More Than Ever Yoram Bilu, 2020-07-21 Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson was the charismatic leader of the Chabad Hasidic movement and its designated Messiah Yet when he died in 1994 the messianic fervor he inspired did not subside Through traditional means and digital technologies a group of radical Hasidim the Meshichistim still keep the Rebbe palpably close engaging in ongoing dialogue participating in specific rituals and developing an ever expanding visual culture of portraits and videos With Us More Than Ever focuses on this group to explore how religious practice can sustain the belief that a messianic figure is both present and accessible Yoram Bilu documents a unique religious experience that is distinctly modern The rallying point of the Meshichistim that the Rebbe is with us more than ever is sustained through an elaborate system that creates the sense of his constant and pervasive presence in the lives of his followers The virtual Rebbe that emerges is multiple visible accessible and highly decentralized the epicenter of a truly messianic movement in the twenty first century Combining ethnographic fieldwork and cognitive science with nuanced analysis Bilu documents the birth and development of a new religious faith describing the emergence of new spiritual horizons a process common to various religious movements old and new

More Than Anything Kimberly Lang, 2016 From the USA Today bestselling author of Everything at Last comes the third in the delightful Magnolia Beach series a tale of two hearts adrift finding love in the most unlikely of situations The small waterfront town of Magnolia Beach Alabama gets its fair share of tourists breezing in and out but one handsome visitor might just be tempted to stay Running the Bay Breeze marina means Shelby Tanner is used to fielding strange requests from vacationers but she is still less than amused when she gets a call in the middle of the night to rescue a boat stranded nearby The clueless sailor is infuriatingly inexperienced yet also frustratingly attractive Architect Declan Hyde only planned on stopping in Alabama briefly on his move from Chicago to Miami but Magnolia Beach is proving to be more captivating than he imagined For one thing there s the sweet Southern charm For another there s the stunning tomboy who rescued him from the bay and keeps invading his thoughts As the time draws near for Declan to weigh anchor he begins to realize that Shelby may have saved more than his boat that night and leaving Magnolia Beach might set his lonely heart permanently adrift Trauma Therapy and Clinical Practice: Considerations of Neuroscience, Gestalt and the Body, 2nd Edition Miriam Taylor,2024-10-02 This book now in its second edition has become a classic in clinical studies of trauma Its informed content deeply humane style numerous clinical examples flowing narrative and ethical clarity make it an essential contribution to all contemporary clinicians and psychotherapists in training of any approach Margherita Spagnuolo Lobb Director of the Italian Gestalt Therapy Institute Italy This book calls us to think critically about the language we use to regularly examine our cherished theories and ways of working and to embrace multiple perspectives I would recommend it to all therapists wherever they are in their careers Dr Sue Wright Integrative and Sensorimotor Psychotherapist UK Working with traumatised clients can present challenges and complexities for therapists as they navigate what are often highly specific deep rooted issues Trauma Therapy and Clinical Practice has been fully updated to reflect the changes that have impacted therapy research over the past decade and represents a major advancement in how trauma is perceived While staying true to her premise of trauma as an embodied experience and retaining the book s popular three part structure in this new edition trauma is repositioned as a social justice issue and reconsiders the emphasis on neuroscience taking trauma theory further into a relational view This new edition Thoroughly explores the role of fear helplessness dissociation and shame Offers valuable insights into restoring continuity of self and of time Contains updated diverse references and intersectional analyses Uses refreshed pedagogy to help deepen learning Critically discusses concepts such as mindfulness in relation to trauma therapy Written in her trademark accessible and personal writing style Miriam Taylor examines the application of both neuroscience and Gestalt theory in recovery presenting a considered theoretical basis for working with highly traumatised people The new edition of Trauma Therapy and Clinical Practice is at the cutting edge of contemporary trauma thinking and is essential reading for trainees and practitioners in counselling and therapy Miriam Taylor is a semi retired Gestalt psychotherapist supervisor and international trainer With over 30 years experience of working with trauma her approach is embodied and relational in the widest possible sense She is the author of Deepening Trauma Practice and is on the Leadership Team of Relational Change UK Concrete Reveries Mark Kingwell,2008 An analysis of the relationship between urbanism and personal identity evaluates the ways in which people are shaped by their spaces and vice versa in an account that explores such topics as the disparities between structural interiors and exteriors the moral obligations of citizens and the role of a city s atmosphere in molding its residents beliefs 10 000 first printing How to Innovate Mary Moss Brown,Alisa Berger,2014-12-04 As the authors state Without rethinking how what when where and why we are teaching technology will merely be an expensive way of making the existing system faster and flashier In How to Innovate Mary Moss Brown and Alisa Berger founding co principals of the NYC iSchool apply their extensive on the ground experience to demonstrate a radically different approach to school transformation They introduce a scalable model of how schools can and should redefine themselves to better meet the needs of 21st century students Using a framework built around four critical levers for school change curriculum culture time and human capital the NYC iSchool model merges the teaching of big ideas and valuable skills with the realities of accountability academic preparation and adolescent development The book includes more than 20 activities that will help educators begin the process of school transformation whether they want to focus on a single program one area of change or engage in a full scale whole school improvement effort This accessible practical and inspiring resource is designed to be used over and over again in any context despite the constantly changing climates in which schools operate Reimagining school and creating more schools like the iSchool must be our highest national priority All students need to graduate from high school and college innovation ready as well as prepared for the complex challenges of continuous learning and citizenship in the 21st century Time is running short I urge you to read this book with urgency From the Foreword by Tony Wagner expert in residence at the Harvard University Innovation Lab founder and co director of the Change Leadership Group at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Public education mistakenly relies on a 19 century model to teach kids in the 21st century Moss Brown and Berger decided to change this by opening the iSchool in New York City and creating a whole new approach to how schools work They succeeded wildly and having walked the walk they now talk the talk so others can follow on the trail they blazed Joel Klein former Chancellor of the New York City Department of Education 2002 2011 Those who strive to create or transform a school will learn much from the shining example of these two fearless principals As learning contexts change with the rising tides of technology Moss and Berger focus above all on human and intellectual growth in schools Their NYC iSchool offers hope for increasing imagination equity and depth in the face of the gathering storm of standardization Kathleen Cushman co founder of What Kids Can Do and author of The Motivation Equation Moss Brown and Berger launched one of the first schools to blend personalized instruction and community connected engaging projects Anyone interested in a picture of next generation learning and the inside story of creating a great school should read this book Tom Van der Ark CEO of Getting Smart Mary Moss Brown and Alisa Berger are the founding co principals of the NYC iSchool and are currently working as the founding partners in Novare Schools a consulting group that focuses on school leader coaching school design innovation and transformation

Consuming the Entrepreneurial City Anne Cronin,Kevin Hetherington,2008-04-07 This collection offers a global perspective on the changing character of cities and the increasing importance that consumer culture plays in defining their symbolic economies Increasingly forms of spectacle have come to shape how cities are imagined and to influence their character and the practices through which we know them from advertising and the selling of real estate to youth cultural consumption practices and forms of entrepreneurship to the regeneration of urban areas under the guise of the heritage industry and the development of a WiFi landscape Using examples of cities such as New York Sydney Atlantic City Barcelona Rio de Janeiro Douala Liverpool San Juan Berlin and Harbin this book illustrates how image and practice have become entangled in the performance of the symbolic economy It also argues that it is not just how the urban present is being shaped in this way that is significant to the development of cities but also that a prominent feature of their development has been the spectacular imagining of the past as heritage and through regeneration Yet the ghosts that this conjures up in practice offer us a possible form of political unsettlement and alternative ways of viewing cities that is only just beginning to be explored Through this important collection by some of the leading analysts of consumption cities and space Consuming the Entrepreneurial City offers a cutting edge analysis of the ways in which cities are developing and the implications this has for their future It is essential reading for students of Urban Studies Geography Sociology Cultural Studies Heritage Studies and Anthropology
