Don't Give Me the Whole Truth Olav H. Hauge, James Greene, 1985 Olav H Hauge 1908 1994 was one of Norway's most highly regarded contemporary poets This extensive selection of his poems was the first to appear in English translation Though deeply rooted in his own West Norwegian landscape which he evokes memorably his poems are of universal not merely local appeal In their everyday subject matter their wry humour and their cool economy his poems are comparable to those of William Carlos Williams or Brecht The Dream We Carry Olav H. Hauge, 2008 Comprehensive bilingual volume from Norway's sage translated by the Roberts Bly and Hedin Luminous Spaces Olav H. Hauge, 2016 Sage and plainspoken Hauge's compact poems are equally rooted in his western Norwegian landscape and in world literature The Splash of Words Mark Oakley, 2016-08-16 Whether you love poetry or haven't read it since school The Splash of Words will help you rediscover poetry's power to startle challenge and reframe your vision Like throwing a pebble into water a poem causes a splash of words whose ripples can transform the way we see the world ourselves and God Through thirty selected poems from the fourteenth century to the present day Mark Oakley explores poetry's power to stir our settled ways of viewing the world and faith shift our perceptions and even transform who we are International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes The Four Questions of Melancholy Tomaž Šalamun, 1997 A large and important collection by one of Eastern Europe's major contemporary poets International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets A History of Norwegian Literature Harald S. Næss, 1993-01-01 Volume 2 Scottish Literature Alan Riach, 2022-05-30 What do we mean by Scottish literature Why does it matter How do we engage with it Bringing infectious enthusiasm and a lifetime's experience to bear on this multi faceted literary nation Alan Riach Professor of Scottish Literature at the University of Glasgow sets out to guide you through the varied and ever evolving landscape of Scottish literature A comprehensive and extensive work designed not only for scholars but also for the generally curious Scottish Literature an introduction tells the tale of Scotland's many voices across the ages from Celtic pre history to modern mass media Forsaking critical jargon Riach journeys chronologically through individual works and writers both the famed and the forgotten alongside broad overviews of cultural contexts which connect texts to their own times Expanding the restrictive canon of days gone by Riach also sets down a new core body of Scottish Literature key writers and works in English Scots and Gaelic Ranging across time and genre Scottish Literature an introduction invites you to hear Scotland through her own words Zoo and Cathedral Nancy Johnson,1996 This outstanding debut collection is the winner of the 1995 White Pine Press Poetry Prize Poetry and Revelation Kevin Hart,2017-04-20 Religious poetry has often been regarded as minor poetry and dismissed in large part because poetry is taken to require direct experience whereas religious poetry is taken to be based on faith that is on second or third hand experience The best methods of thinking about experience are given to us by phenomenology Poetry and Revelation is the first study of religious poetry through a phenomenological lens one that works with the distinction between manifestation in which everything is made manifest and revelation in which the mystery is re veiled as well as revealed Providing a phenomenological investigation of a wide range of religious poems some medieval some modern some written in English others written in European languages some from America some from Britain and some from Australia Kevin Hart provides a unique new way of thinking about religious poetry and the nature of revelation itself Scandinavian Song Anna Hersey,2016-08-11 Scandinavian art songs are a unique expression of the cultures of Sweden Norway and Denmark Although these three countries are distinct from one another their languages and cultures share many similarities Common themes found in art and literature include a love of nature especially of the sea feelings of longing and melancholy the contrast between light and dark the extremes of the northern climate and lively folk traditions These shared sensibilities are reflected and expressed in a tangible way through music Scandinavian art song has faced several challenges over the years in North America even in the American Midwest where descendants of Scandinavian immigrants are concentrated But matters have changed recently with the recent expansion of diction curricula to cover languages other than English French German and Italian The primary obstacle remains practical resources for the study of art songs and lyric diction of Sweden Norway and Denmark This guide remedies this problem Scandinavian Song is a practical guide to the art songs of Sweden Norway and Denmark Unlike other sources that give at best a cursory overview of lyric diction in the Scandinavian languages this guide provides practical information enabling teachers and students to render transcriptions of Swedish Norwegian and Danish texts into the International Phonetic Alphabet IPA an absolute necessity for any study of repertoire An extensive survey of available music sample IPA transcriptions and translations as well as a website link with native speakers reciting selected song texts make this book an invaluable resource for students and professors in North American college university and conservatory voice programs A Gathering of Mother Tongues Jacqueline Johnson,1997 Third winner of the annual White Pine Press Poetry Prize Selected by renowned Native American poet Maurice Kenny What Persists Judith Kitchen,2016 What Persists contains eighteen of the nearly fifty essays on poetry that Judith Kitchen published in The Georgia Review over a twenty five year span Coming at the genre from every possible angle this celebrated critic discusses work by older and younger poets most American but some foreign and many of whom were not yet part of the contemporary canon Her essays reveal a cultural history from the dismantling of the Berlin Wall through 9 11 and the Iraq War and move into today s political climate They chronicle personal interests while they also make note of what was happening in contemporary poetry by revealing overall changes of taste both in content and in the use of craft Over time they fashion a comprehensive overview of the contemporary literary scene At its best What Persists shows what a wide range of poetry is being written by women men poets who celebrate their ethnicity poets who show a fierce individualism poets whose careers have soared promising poets whose work has all but disappeared Poetry Review Stephen Phillips,Galloway Kyle,1991 vol 1 no 2 Feb 1912 includes Prologomena by Ezra Pound A House Called Tomorrow Michael Wieggers,2023-02-28 Copper Canyon Press celebrates its first 50 years of poetry publishing in anticipation of the next 50 years Poetry is vital to language and living This anthology celebrates 50 years of Copper Canyon Press publications one extraordinary poem at a time Since its founding Copper Canyon has been entirely dedicated to publishing poetry books here Editor in Chief Michael Wieggers invites press staff and board past and present to help curate a retrospective The result is a collection of beloved poems from books spanning half a century representing Pulitzer Prize winning books debut collections works in translation and rare books from Copper Canyon s early days This book is a tribute to Copper Canyon poets and readers everywhere because as Gregory Orr writes Certain poems In an uncertain world The ones we cling to They bring us back LifeLines Martin Wroe,Malcolm Doney,2018-11-29 Wisdom on how to live Matt Haig Beautiful wise and playful Brene Brown Some days arrive with questions so vast we feel like strangers on earth Other times our joy makes us feel entirely at home in ourselves So where do we find inspiration for living a good life Drawing on lifelines thrown down by poets thinkers and dreamers the sceptical and the faithful Malcolm Doney and Martin Wroe suggest that how we live may be more important than what we believe How do I make a good decision Can I forgive him Will this darkness pass Do I say something or keep quiet Less of an instruction manual and more of a sketchbook these are lines for living rewarding days Sacred text for the more earthy reader Bono Challenging profound and generous Vanessa Kisuule Wonderful combination of hard won wisdom and memorable quotes Richard Rohr Jewish Cultural Aspirations Bruce Zuckerman,Ruth Weisberg,Lisa Ansell,2013 In the late nineteenth century in Europe and to some extent in the United States the Jewish upper middle class particularly the more affluent families began to enter the cultural spheres of public life especially in major cities such as Vienna Berlin Paris New York and London While many aspects of society were closed to them theater the visual arts music and art publication were far more inviting especially if they involved challenging aspects of modernity that might be less attractive to Gentile society Jews had far less to lose in embracing new forms of expression and they were very attracted to what was regarded as the universality of cultural expression Ultimately these new cultural ideals had an enormous influence on art institutions and artistic manifestations in America and may explain why Jews have been active in the arts in the twentieth and twenty first centuries to a degree totally out of proportion to their presence in the US population Jewish cultural activities and aspirations form the focus of the contributions to this volume Invited authors include senior figures in the field such as Matthew Baigell and Emily Bilski alongside authors of a younger generation such as Daniel Magilow and Marcie Kaufman There is also an essay by noted Los Angeles artist and photographer Bill Aron The guest editor of the volume Ruth Weisberg provides an Introduction that places the individual contributions in context Information Literacy and Autonomy Winfried Gödert, Klaus Lepsky, 2023-06-06 Information literacy and autonomy have become key values for the image of man in a society that is increasingly shaped by digitalization and artificial intelligence The purpose of this book is to describe abstraction analogy inference plausibility and creativity as basic skills of cognitive information processing and prerequisites for autonomous informational action The Poetry Review ,1991
