Subterranean Dan White Jr., 2015-08-24 The landscape of Christian spirituality in the West is no longer lush with green grass and wild flowers blooming Instead across the country we find dry terrain where churches no longer can expect interested seekers yet most of our solutions for addressing this predicament link to anxiety around our performance and personality Rather than going back to the boardroom to cook up new techniques for a trendier church let's ask more meaningfully rooted questions Do we know how to be present in our neighborhoods Do we know how to be present in community Do we know how to be present to the in-breaking kingdom of God There is a growing groundswell discovering that we have become uprooted and detached from each other in the way we express being the church We need a subterranean movement that plunges below the surface into a way of being the people of God that carries an unwavering incarnational creed Dan White Jr uses crisp criticism narrative theology and tangible practices to uncover a hopeful pathway
