Essential Readings in Canadian Constitutional Politics Peter H. Russell, Christian Leuprecht, 2011-01-01 Essential Readings in Canadian Constitutional Politics introduces students scholars and practitioners to classic authors and writings on the principles of the Canadian Constitution as well as to select contemporary material To complement rather than duplicate the state of the field it deals with the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and with Canadian mega constitutional politics in passing only focusing instead on institutions federalism intergovernmental relations bilingualism and binationalism the judiciary minority rights and constitutional renewal Many of the selections reverberate well beyond Canada's borders making this volume an unrivalled resource for anyone interested in constitutional governance and democratic politics in diverse societies The French-Canadian Idea of Confederation, 1864-1900 A.I. Silver, 1997-12-15 At Confederation most French Canadians felt their homeland was Quebec they supported the new arrangement because it separated Quebec from Ontario creating an autonomous French Canadian province loosely associated with the others Unaware of other French Canadian groups in British North America Quebecers were not concerned with minority rights but only with the French character and autonomy of their own province However political and economic circumstances necessitated the granting of wide linguistic and educational rights to Quebec's Anglo Protestant minority Growing bitterness over the prominence of this minority in what was expected to be a French province was amplified by the discovery that French Catholic minorities were losing their rights in other parts of Canada Resentment at the fact that Quebec had to grant minority rights while other provinces did not intensified French Quebec nationalism At the same time French Quebecers felt sympathy for their co religionists and co nationalists in other provinces and tried to defend them against assimilating pressures Fighting for the rights of Acadians Franco Ontarians or western M'tis eventually led Quebecers to a new concern for the French fact in other provinces Professor Silver concludes that by 1900 Quebecers had become thoroughly committed to French Canadian rights not just in Quebec but throughout Canada and had become convinced that the very existence of Confederation was based on such rights Originally published in 1982 this new edition includes a new preface and conclusion that reflect upon Quebec's continuing struggle to define its place within Canada and the world The Makers of Canada, 1911 Makers of
