Effacing the Self Marc De Kesel, 2023-08-01 In spirituality and mysticism many seek a counterbalance to the strong emphasis on the self that modernity demands of us We desire a fixed self on the one hand and are fascinated by selflessness on the other But is our fascination with selflessness not a ruse to make that self of ours even stronger And is that self-critical question not the kernel of even traditional mysticism Marc De Kesel investigates some dark rooms of the mystical tradition to clarify this This is a book for all who want to free themselves from the conceptual frameworks and rigid dogmas of late modern religiosity The first part of the volume deals directly with early modern Christian mysticism and more specifically with the French spiritualité and discussions centered around the problem of what it means to love God in a pure radically unselfish way The second part explores the paradoxical dialectics between self and selflessness in relation to the way Christian religion deals with its own identity If Christian love is selfless why has Christianity in the end not given up its own self its own identity The third and last part of the volume discusses the dialectics between self and selflessness in three other domains popular spirituality politics and modern science It makes clear that selflessness is not limited to mysticism but is both a fascination and a problem paradox for modernity in many fields La princesse Georges Alexandre Dumas, 1881

Questioning God John D. Caputo, Mark Dooley, Michael J. Scanlon, 2001-09-01 Jacques Derrida and other scholars explore postmodern thinking about God and consider the nature of forgiveness in relation to the paradoxes of the gift In fifteen insightful essays Jacques Derrida and an international group of scholars explore the implications of deconstruction for religion focusing on two topics God and forgiveness Among the themes addressed by contributors are the possibilities of imagining God as unthinkable imagining God as nonpatriarchal imagining a return to Augustine and imagining an age in which praise is far more important than narrative Questioning God moves readers beyond the parameters of metaphysical reason and modernist rationality as it attempts to think the questions of God and forgiveness in a postmodernist context Contributors include John D Caputo Jacques Derrida Mark Dooley Francis Sch ssler Fiorenza Robert Gibbs Jean Greisch Kevin Hart Richard Kearney Cleo McNelly Kearns John Milbank Regina M Schwartz Michael J Scanlon and Graham Ward What sets this work apart from the majority of other publications on the subject of postmodern theology and prevents it from descending into a sanctimonious hagiography of Derrida s genius is the presence among the contributors of Graham Ward and John Milbank two of the founding members of the movement known as radical orthodoxy This present work is the first to document supporters of radical orthodoxy critically engaging with proponents of Derridean deconstruction Perspectives
