The Grenadier Guards in the Great War of 1914-1918 Vol 1, 2, 3 Frederick Ponsonby,2021-08-30 Excerpt When the Archduke Francis Ferdinand of Austria was assassinated at Sarajevo in Serbia on June 28 1914 it never for a moment occurred to any one in this country that the crime could in any way affect the destinies of the First or Grenadier Regiment of Footguards No one dreamed that before another year had passed not only would the three Battalions be fighting in a European war but there would even be a 4th Battalion at the front in addition to a 5th Reserve Battalion of almost unwieldy proportions Even when Austria began to show her teeth it still seemed an incident quite beyond our horizon If Austria and Serbia did come to blows Great Britain was not even indirectly involved and the British Army therefore remained unmoved The Balkan peoples were constantly in a state of warlike commotion but their troubles hardly affected the great British Empire The war clouds that from time to time darkened the European sky had hitherto always been dispersed More than once of late years the German Emperor had rattled his sword in the scabbard and talked or telegraphed to the very limits of indiscretion but nothing had ever come of it nor did it seem at all probable that the assassination of an Austrian Archduke could be made the pretext for a European conflagration Battle of the Bulge, Vol. 1 Hans Wijers, 2009 The U S Army's bloodiest battle of World War II From the foxhole stories of American soldiers in combat Based on official U S Army documents and after action reports Most accounts of the Battle of the Bulge focus on Bastogne but the Germans main thrust actually occurred to the north where Sepp Dietrich's Sixth SS Panzer Army stormed through the Losheim Gap In this region of thick forests and tiny villages U S troops halted the best of the German war machine including the 12th SS Panzer and the 3rd Fallschirmjäger Divisions WALKING DOWN MY SHADOWS vol 1 ,
