The Apocalypse of Paul (Visio Pauli) in Sahidic Coptic Lautaro Roig Lanzillotta, Jacques van der Vliet, 2022-12-28 The apocryphal Apocalypse of Paul Visio Pauli plunges us right into the heart of early Christian conceptions of heaven and hell Its vivid eyewitness account of otherworldly punishment and reward was translated into many different languages and inspired numerous later authors among whom Dante This book offers a re edition and English translation of the ancient Coptic version An exhaustive commentary makes the text accessible and situates it in the time and place where it was written fourth century Egypt As this new study shows the Coptic version is by far the best available witness of the original Apocalypse of Paul The World's Oldest Church Michael Peppard, 2016-01-26 Michael Peppard provides a historical and theological reassessment of the oldest Christian building ever discovered the third century house church at Dura Europos Contrary to commonly held assumptions about Christian initiation Peppard contends that rituals here did not primarily embody notions of death and resurrection Rather he portrays the motifs of the church's wall paintings as those of empowerment healing marriage and incarnation while boldly reidentifying the figure of a woman formerly believed to be a repentant sinner as the Virgin Mary This richly illustrated volume is a breakthrough work that enhances our understanding of early Christianity at the nexus of Bible art and ritual

Blair, 2019-06-01 No detailed description available for Islamic Inscriptions Tod und Ritual in den christlichen Gemeinden der Antike Ulrich Volp, 2015-12-22 The development of Early Christian rituals in connection with death and burial has so far not sufficiently been explored Volp's study focuses on the surviving literary sources both pagan and Christian together with inscriptions and other archaeological remains while taking into account recent results from science and humanities A summary of death and ritual in the ancient Mediterranean religions is followed by detailed analyses of the Christian sources from the 2nd to the 5th century Thus basic developments are being discovered which led to and accompanied the forming of Christian rituals such as ritual purity or the social structure of family and society Being the first such interdisciplinary approach it also represents the first monographic work on the topic since 1941 Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic David Frankfurter, 2019-03-19 In the midst of academic debates about the utility of the term magic and the cultural meaning of ancient words like mageia or khesheph this Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic seeks to advance the discussion by separating out three topics essential to the very idea of magic The three major sections of this volume address 1 indigenous terminologies for ambiguous or illicit ritual in antiquity 2 the ancient texts manuals and artifacts commonly designated magical or used to represent ancient magic and 3 a series of contexts from the written word to materiality itself to which the term magic might usefully pertain The individual essays in this volume cover most of Mediterranean and Near Eastern antiquity with essays by both established and emergent scholars of ancient religions In a burgeoning field of magic studies trying both to preserve and to justify critically the category itself this volume brings new clarity and provocative insights This will be an indispensable resource to all interested in magic in the Bible and the Ancient Near East ancient Greece and Rome Early Christianity and Judaism Egypt through the Christian period and also comparative and critical theory Contributors are Magali Bailliot Gideon Bohak Vronique Dasen Albert de Jong Jacco Dieleman Esther Eidinow David Frankfurter Fritz Graf Yuval Harari Naomi Janowitz Sarah Iles Johnston Roy D Kotansky Arpad M Nagy Daniel Schwemer Joseph E Sanzo Jacques van der Vliet Andrew Wilburn Perspectives on Panopolis: An Egyptian town from Alexander the Great to the Arab Conquest Egberts, Brian Muhs, Vliet, 2020-03-23 Panopolis the modern town of Akhm m in Southern Egypt was in Graeco Roman times an important religious and cultural centre Its gigantic temple was a stronghold of traditional Egyptian religion In Late Antiquity it became a major centre of Hellenistic literature and learning and at the same time of Coptic monasticism The sources for Graeco Roman Panopolis are numerous and diverse They not only include numerous texts of all genres in various scripts and languages but archaeological artefacts too This volume brings together seventeen contributions dealing with epigraphy both hieroglyphic and Greek Greek papyri Demotic funerary texts Coptic literature and local monastic architecture Without neglecting the heuristic problems which these various sources pose they conjure up a vivid picture of a world marked by profound religious and cultural change Exploring Aniconism Mikael Aktor, Milette Gaifman, 2020-05-21 This book explores the phenomenon of aniconism the denotation of the presence of gods saints or spiritual forces using non figural visual markers that do not resemble these supranatural entities The contributors show how various types of aniconism differ in how they mediate divine presence and relate to other modes of representation Aniconism is rarely absolute each aniconic form needs to be considered within a spectrum of visual modes ranging from the abstract to the anthropomorphic

The chapters examine aniconism in paleolithic cultures in ancient Egypt Israel and Greece in early Christianity and Islam in medieval and contemporary Hinduism and in 17th 19th century Scottish Gaelic contexts The volume also provides a critical historiography of aniconism as an academic concept a new fine tuned terminology and some general characteristics of aniconic expressions in the context of the broader field of material religion Offering a multi faceted discussion of this important category of religious material culture this book will be of interest to those with an interest in aniconism as well as those involved in the wider study of how religion intersects with art and anthropology This book was originally published as a special issue of the Religion journal

Experiencing Byzantium Claire

Nesbitt,Mark Jackson,2016-04-22 From the reception of imperial ekphraseis in Hagia Sophia to the sounds and smells of the back streets of Constantinople the sensory perception of Byzantium is an area that lends itself perfectly to an investigation into the experience of the Byzantine world The theme of experience embraces all aspects of Byzantine studies and the Experiencing Byzantium symposium brought together archaeologists architects art historians historians musicians and theologians in a common quest to step across the line that divides how we understand and experience the Byzantine world and how the Byzantines themselves perceived the sensual aspects of their empire and also their faith spirituality identity and the nature of being in Byzantium The papers in this volume derive from the 44th Spring Symposium of Byzantine Studies held for the Society for the Promotion of Byzantine Studies by the University of Newcastle and University of Durham at Newcastle upon Tyne in April 2011 They are written by a group of international scholars who have crossed disciplinary boundaries to approach an understanding of experience in the Byzantine world Experiencing Byzantium is volume 18 in the series published by Ashgate on behalf of the Society for the Promotion of Byzantine Studies
