in the Modern Sunday School Robert Perry Shepherd,1911 Breakdown of Will George Ainslie,2001-03-19 Ainslie argues that our responses to the threat of our own inconsistency determine the basic fabric of human culture He suggests that individuals are more like populations of bargaining agents than like the hierarchical command structures envisaged by cognitive psychologists The forces that create and constrain these populations help us understand so much that is puzzling in human action and interaction from addictions and other self defeating behaviors to the experience of willfulness from pathological over control and self deception to subtler forms of behavior such as altruism sadism gambling and the social construction of belief This book integrates approaches from experimental psychology philosophy of mind microeconomics and decision science to present one of the most profound and expert accounts of human irrationality available It will be of great interest to philosophers and an important resource for professionals and students in psychology economics and political science The Kindergarten for Teachers and Parents ,1904 Kindergarten Primary Magazine ,1906
