almost all of the poems Rilke wrote including many poems from his Diaries this large book challenges new ideas about what went into the making of Rilke over twenty years of production from his early beginnings under the tutelage of Lou Salom right through to his famous final works the Sonnets to Orpheus and the Duino Elegies Volume 1 focuses largely on The Book of Hours Volume 2 on The Book of Images the two parts of New Poems The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge and the first Elegies written while at Duino Volume 3 on those all crucial self transforming ten years beyond Duino that lead up to the Sonnets to Orpheus and Rilke's eventual completion of the Elegies Two major theses are put forward in this book the first touching on Rilke's well known relationship to his former lover and mentor Lou Salom who is understood to have been a far more problematic influence on him than we had supposed the second touching on an equally crucial and at some point saving influence on Rilke from the literary sphere which is shown to be that of the great visionary poet who went by the name of Novalis Behind the grand story of Rilke's poetic emergence lies the fundamental and long standing reality of his repression by Lou and what that would sow paradoxically by way of a sublimated achievement as sublimely poignant as it is finally tragic

The Technological Unconscious in German Modernist Literature Larson Powell, 2008 Even after the end of modernism and postmodernism the grandiose fantasies of artifice and self-reference that have informed so much modernist literature still resonate in the social constructivism of current literary and cultural theory in the idea that we can perform or construct identities or social roles without external constraint as if we had consumer choice of self Larson Powell's book posits nature as a limit to such fantasies redefining aesthetic modernity's conception of and relation to nature and therefore its relation to reality He shows how nature no longer the idealized maternally coded Utopia of the Romantics becomes the trace of specific political sexual and technological traumas The book's four chapters center on the representation of nature in German prose and especially poetry by Rainer Maria Rilke Gottfried Benn Bertolt Brecht and Alfred Döblin from the years 1900 to 1945 while making reference to other literatures as well Powell's term the Technological Unconscious refers to a point of intersection between psychoanalysis and social and scientific theories of modernism and also to the philosophical mediation between history and nature a motif important from Kant to Adorno Powell critiques the tendency toward jargon of an often merely rhetorical theory while continuing to develop the philosophical and conceptual inheritance of Continental traditions He analyzes in connection with the works treated the conceptions of subject and system in the theories of Adorno Luhmann and Lacan and their relation to their complement nature The Technological Unconscious is thus an important polemical intervention both in the debates over interdisciplinarity and in those between eclectic culturalist theories such as New Historicism and postcolonialism on the one hand and systems theory and psychoanalysis on the other Book Jacket Art Made from Books,2013-08-20 Artists around the world have lately been turning to their bookshelves for more than just a good read opting to cut paint carve stitch or otherwise transform the printed page into whole new beautiful thought provoking works of art Art Made from Books is the definitive guide to this compelling art form showcasing groundbreaking work by today s most showstopping practitioners From Su Blackwell s whimsical pop up landscapes to the stacked book sculptures of Kylie Stillman each portfolio celebrates the incredible creative diversity of the medium A preface by pioneering artist Brian Dettmer and an introduction by design critic Alyson Kuhn round out the collection Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett,2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings Race, Modernity, Postmodernity W. Lawrence Hogue,1996-10-03 Reads and interprets eight works of literature by people of color foregrounding the philosophical debate about modernity vs postmodernity rather than solely issues of race The Tao and the Logos Longxi Zhang,1992-04-17 The author investigates the metaphorical nature of poetic language highlighting the central figures of reality and meaning in both Eastern and Western thought the Tao and the Logos The Beginning of Terror David Kleinbard,1993 Beginning with Rilke s novel The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge published in 1910 The Beginning of Terror examines the ways in which the poet mastered the illness that is so frightening and crippling in Malte and made the illness a resource for his art Kleinbard goes on to explore Rilke s poetry letters and nonfiction prose his childhood marriage and the relationship between illness and genius in the poet and his work a subject to which Rilke returned time and again This psychoanalytic study also defines the complex connections between Malte s and Rilke s fantasies of mental and physical fragmentation and the poet s response to Rodin s disintegrative and re integrative sculpture during the writing of The Notebooks and New Poems One point of departure is the poet's sense of the origins of his illness in his childhood and particularly in his mother's blind narcissistic self absorption and his father's emotional constriction and mental limitations Kleinbard examines the poet's struggle to purge himself of his deeply felt identification with the ghostly and unreal Phia Rilke whose hopes that her son would be a major poet he was fulfilling The book also elucidates Rilke's attempt to convert his father Josef Rilke before he died to confidence and satisfaction in his son's alien achievements and contains chapters on Rilke's relationships with Lou Andreas Salome and Auguste Rodin who served as parental surrogates for Rilke Jacket Unmasking Gravity's Rainbow Charles Hohmann, 2025-09-19 Gravity's Rainbow remains one of the most enigmatic and ambitious novels of the 20th century a kaleidoscope of paranoia power sex science and entropy set against the crumbling ruins of World War II In Unmasking Gravity's Rainbow Charles Hohmann unravels the novel's dense web of references and motifs and guides the reader through the novel's key symbols from the mysterious V 2 rocket to the silent systems of control and situates it within the broader landscape of postmodern literature and Cold War anxiety Whether you're a first time reader or a seasoned Pynchon scholar this book offers a clear eyed entry point into one of the most formidable literary achievements of our time Duino Elegies: A New and Complete Translation Rainer Maria

Tavis, 1994 Explores the biographical and textual evidence of Russia's importance in shaping the writer Rainer Maria Rilke's aesthetic perception During Rilke's two trips to Russia at the turn the century he made connections with a number of important artists including Leo Tolstoy and Nikolai Leskov and the author traces the impact of these meetings and other experiences in Russia upon Rilke's writing Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Rilke: Neue Gedichte Anthony Phelan, 1992 A Death of One's Own Jared

Stark, 2018-03-15 To be or not to be who asks this question today and how What does it mean to issue or respond to an appeal for the right to die In A Death of One's Own the first sustained literary study of the right to die Jared Stark takes up these timely questions by testing predominant legal understandings of assisted suicide and euthanasia against literary reflections on modern death from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Rigorously interdisciplinary and lucidly argued Stark's wide ranging discussion sheds critical light on the disquieting bioethical and biopolitical dilemmas raised by contemporary forms of medical technology and legal agency More than a survey or work of advocacy A Death of One's Own examines the consequences and limits of the three reasons most often cited for supporting a person's right to die: that it is justified as an expression of personal autonomy or self-ownership; that it constitutes an act of self-authorship of choosing a final chapter in one's life; and that it enables what has come to be called death with dignity. Probing the intersections of law and literature, Stark interweaves close discussion of major legal, political, and philosophical arguments with revealing readings of literary and testimonial texts by writers including Balzac, Melville, Benjamin, and Amory. A thought-provoking work that will be of interest to those concerned with law and humanities, biomedical ethics, cultural history, and human rights, A Death of One's Own opens new and suggestive paths for thinking about the history of modern death as well as the unsettled future of the right to die.
