him to behave and respond to the kindness he was not used to so the lady instructed her children to be very kind to him She encouraged them to feed him so that he would trust her and her children Over time this improved his acceptance of his new surroundings and he became responsive to everyones adoration Eventually the lady became interested in dog training believing that this would benefit both the lady and her dog This later developed into a pastime that brought Ringer and his trainer to the world of Obedience training and competition This story tells of that journey and of how the lady became aware of the methods of encouraging a discipline which allowed Ringer and herself to understand the commands and how she desired him to behave The purpose of this story is about the ladies application of what she learned as it related to raising her children How it calmed her children down allowing them to feel secure and loved even though they were being disciplined
