Oscar Vorobjovas-Pinta

Rise And Fall Of Gay Culture:

The Rise and Fall of Gay Culture Daniel Harris, 1997-05 In an unprecedented analytic examination of the daily lives of gay men respected and confrontational essayist Daniel Harris investigates the artifacts rituals and institutions of gay culture focusing on a central historical question What happens to a sensibility that was developed in response to ostracism when that subculture becomes less excluded 30 photos Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian bohème these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin's constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin's city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the unmaking of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm's book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history Gay Artists in Modern American Culture Michael S. Sherry, 2007 Sherry explores the prominent role gay men have played in defining the culture of mid 20th century America including such icons as Tennessee Williams Edward Albee Aaron Copland Samuel Barber Montgomery Clift and Rock Hudson

Queer Theory and Social Change Max H. Kirsch, 2013-04-15 Queer Theory and Social Change argues that there is a crisis within Queer theory over whether or not its theories can actually deliver change Max Kirsch presents a challenging alternative to the current fascination with post modern analyses of identity culture and difference It emphasizes the need for a discussion of the importance of communities and the role of globalization on queer movements Queer Style Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2013-08-29 Queer Style offers an insight into queer fashionability by addressing the role that clothing has played in historical and contemporary lifestyles From a fashion studies perspective it examines the function of subcultural dress within queer communities and the mannerisms and messages that are used as signifiers of identity Diverse dress is examined including effeminate pansy masculine macho clone the lipstick and butch lesbian styles and the extreme styles of drag kings and drag queens Divided into three main sections on history subcultural identity and subcultural style Queer Style will be of particular interest to students of dress and fashion as well as those coming to subculture from sociology and cultural studies

Beyond the Closet Steven Seidman,2013-10-18 Gay life has become increasingly open in the last decade In Beyond the Closet Steven Seidman a well known author and leading scholar in sexuality is the first to chronicle this lifestyle change and to look at the lives of contemporary gays and lesbians to see how their out status has changed This compelling well written and smart account is an important step forward for the gay and lesbian community Gay Tourism Oscar

Vorobjovas-Pinta,2021-06-14 This book examines the emerging and shifting issues in the field of gay tourism how these relate to significant societal and technological changes and the implications of these changes for theory policy and practice It addresses the political and sociocultural discourses evident within gay tourism consumption and explores the conceptualisations of gay tourism within the contexts of tourist profiles and identities While gay travel research has been dominated by Western perspectives and traditions this book incorporates voices from non Western perspectives and cultures The volume investigates the value of gay tourism that facilitates our engagement with tourism experiences leisure opportunities and pleasure It will be a useful resource for students lecturers and researchers in tourism human geography cultural studies and sociology Queering the Midwest Clare Forstie,2022-10-25 Drag shows that test the capacity of bars persist alongside wishes for stronger community among River City s LGBTQ population In this examination of LGBTQ community in a small Midwestern city Clare Forstie highlights the ambivalence of LGBTQ lives in the rural Midwest Drawing on in depth interviews ethnographic research and friendship mapping Forstie reveals the ways that community spaces are disappearing and emerging LGBTQ people feel safe and unrecognized and friendships do and don t matter In this community non LGBTQ allies are essential support for their LGBTQ friends and organizations but sometimes their support comes at a cost Those who find they feel most comfortable and safe also align with community norms forming with and connecting to families and identities that are the majority in River City Forstie offers the story of a community that does not fit neatly into a narrative of progress or decline Rather it s a little bit of both Forstie s ambivalent community framework reveals the ways we might think about our communities and relationships more authentically embracing the contradictions that inform the possibilities for change Hard Hats, Rednecks, and Macho Men Derek Nystrom,2009-10-21 Everywhere you look in

1970s American cinema you find white working class men The persistent appearance of working class characters in these and other films of the 1970s reveals the powerful role class played in the key social and political developments of the decade Reframing Bodies Roger Hallas,2009-12-02 Examines how queer filmmakers and viedographers bore witness to the historical trauma of the AIDS epidemic in the late 1980s and 1990s Screening Queer Memory Anamarija

screen and interrogates the specificity of queer memory She poses several questions How are the pasts of LGBTQ people and communities visualised and commemorated on screen How do these representations comment on the influence of film and television on the construction of queer memory How do they present the passage of memory from one generation of LGBTQ people to another Finally which narratives of the queer past particularly of the activist past are being commemorated and which obscured Horvat exemplifies how contemporary British and American cinema and television have commented on the specificity of queer memory how they have reflected aspects of its construction as well as participated in its creation In doing so she adds to an under examined area of queer film and television research which has privileged concepts of nostalgia history temporality and the archive over memory Films and television shows explored include Cheryl Dunye's The Watermelon Woman 1996 Todd Haynes Velvet Goldmine 1998 Joey Soloway's Transparent 2014 2019 Matthew Warchus Pride 2014 and Tom Rob Smith's London Spy 2015

The Television Studies Reader Robert Clyde Allen, Annette Hill, 2004

The Television Studies Reader brings together key writings in the expanding field of television studies providing an overview of the discipline and addressing issues of industry genre audiences production and ownership and representation The Reader charts the ways in which television and television studies are being redefined by new and alternative ways of producing broadcasting and watching TV such as cable satellite and digital broadcasting home video internet broadcasting and interactive TV as well as exploring the recent boom in genres such as reality TV and docusoaps It brings together articles from leading international scholars to provide perspectives on television programmes and practices from around the world acknowledging both television's status as a global medium and the many and varied local contexts of its production and reception Articles are grouped in seven themed sections each with an introduction by the editors Institutions of Television Spaces of Television Modes of Television Making Television Social Representation on Television Watching Television Transforming Television

Swinging Single Hilary Radner, Moya Luckett, 1999 Critics and defenders alike connect today's widespread anxieties about sexuality and culture to the political activism of the 1960s and the counterculture's preoccupation with the individual pursuit of pleasure In contrast the essays in Swindling Single attribute the new sexual mores of that era not to its political upheavals but to a confluence of social cultural and economic factors that encouraged personal gratification and altered traditionally defined gender roles Contributors analyze a broad range of topics the commercialization of avant garde and exploitation films new visions of female sexuality in That Girl and The Avengers the social context of such cultural icons as Hugh Hefner and Charles Manson the intersection of race and sexuality in Eldridge Cleaver's Soul on Ice and depictions of sexual pleasure in pornography and scientific films

Pure Jared Stearns, 2024-04-22 The untold story of the world's most famous X rated star who rose to fame as the face of Ivory Snow and the star of Behind the Green Door but struggled to find her true self in a world of sex scandal and shattered dreams Marilyn

Chambers was the embodiment of the free spirited Seventies the world's most famous X rated star and an unappreciated talent whose work in adult films hindered her dreams of becoming a serious actress Raised in an affluent Connecticut suburb Marilyn catapulted to fame when it was learned that not only had she starred in the groundbreaking X rated film Behind the Green Door but was also the model on the box of Ivory Snow laundry detergent product tagline 99 44 100% Pure Marilyn was the first woman known primarily for her work in adult films to cross over to mainstream entertainment She sustained a versatile three decade career in entertainment including roles in dramatic plays a Broadway musical revue her own television show and the lead role in David Cronenberg's film Rabid But her success in adult films also proved to be her undoing Marred by a violent relationship with her abusive husband manager Chuck Traynor she developed the persona of a twenty four hour a day sex star In the process she lost her sense of self and spent much of her life searching for her true identity With recollections from family and friends many of whom have never spoken publicly along with Marilyn's own words and never before published photos Jared Stearns vividly captures the revolutionary career of one of the twentieth century's most misunderstood icons

Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2015-11-13 In 1952 John Cage shocked audiences with 4 33 his compositional ode to the ironic power of silence From Cage's minimalism to Chris Burden's radical performance art two decades later in one piece he had himself shot the post war American avant garde shattered the divide between low and high art between artist and audience They changed the cultural landscape Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment This inventive and jaunty narrative captures the excitement of liberation in American culture The roots of this release as Cotkin demonstrates began in the 1950s boomed in the 1960s and became the cultural norm by the 1970s More than a detailed immersion in the history of cultural extremism Feast of Excess raises provocative questions for our present day culture

Committed Relationships and the Law Oran Doyle, William Binchy, 2007 The questioning of traditional family forms is not a new phenomenon However it has recently developed a new dimension in the gay rights movement's claim for legal recognition of committed relationships other than traditional marriage This collection of essays explores the moral practical and legal issues that arise from proposals to recognise such committed relationships The history of the Irish gay rights movement and its contribution to the current issue of partnership recognition are traced The roles played by marriage in the procreation and raising of children and as the supreme expression of inter personal commitment are also explored from different perspectives in separate essays Egalitarian arguments in favour of partnership recognition are advanced by Oran Doyle and Robert Wintemute while William Binchy makes the case on the basis of personal autonomy for life long marriage John Mee explores in detail the current proposals for reform Eoin Carolan and Eimear Brown assess the likely impact of the Constitution and the European Convention on Human Rights respectively Ursula Kilkelly examines the issues that arise where children are born into or become part of the committed relationships of their parents This timely collection of essays will stimulate those interested in this issue and provide practical guidance on the legal scope for and limits on possible change

Electronica, Dance and Club Music Mark J. Butler, 2017-07-05 Discos clubs and raves have been focal points for the development of new and distinctive musical and cultural practices over the past four decades This volume presents the rich array of scholarship that has sprung up in response Cutting edge perspectives from a broad range of academic disciplines reveal the complex questions provoked by this musical tradition Issues considered include aesthetics agency the body in dance movement and space composition identity including gender sexuality race and other constructs musical design place pleasure policing and moral panics production techniques such as sampling spirituality and religion sub cultural affiliations and distinctions and technology The essays are contributed by an international group of scholars and cover a geographically and culturally diverse array of musical scenes

Gay Rights and Moral Panic F. Fejes, 2016-02-25 Using the 1977 campaign against the Dade County Florida gay rights ordinance as a focal point this book provides an examination of the emergence of the modern lesbian and gay American movement the challenges it posed to the accepted American notions of sexuality and how American society reacted in turn
