Foreign Policy John Siko, 2014-06-16 South Africa is a major player in African diplomacy Its economic diplomatic and military resources far outstrip those of other nations on the continent and it has since the country's 1994 democratic transition sought to take a lead role in the continent's relations with other power blocs particularly during the 1999-2008 presidency of Thabo Mbeki While Mbeki's push for greater African engagement in the global political sphere drew widespread praise other positions notably its seeming inaction toward Zimbabwe and perceived abandonment of its stated emphasis on human rights in foreign policy were more controversial both at home and abroad John Siko has had insider access to South Africa's leading foreign policy players and has been able to ask why Pretoria has taken its various stances and who has mattered in influencing those decisions a topic little examined since 1994 In addition he examines the foreign policy process over the past century determining that despite ANC promises of greater democratic engagement on foreign policy the process has changed quite little The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris

Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed

Apartheid based on Dousemetzis s groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas s life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid s posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid The Oxford Handbook of Business Groups Asli M.
