The Poetic Power of Place James J. Fox, 2006-09-01 This collection of papers is the fourth in a series of volumes on the work of the Comparative Austronesian Project Each paper describes a specific Austronesian locality and offers an ethnographic account of the way in which social knowledge is vested maintained and transformed in a particular landscape The intention of the volume is to consider common patterns in the representation of place among Austronesian speaking populations

Power in the Name Joseph L. Kimmel, 2025-05-19 How do divine names channel power This project analyzes first of all the invocation of particular divine names e.g. Jesus Aphrodite to access power for activities like healing protecting and harming In so doing it focuses on texts and artifacts e.g. amulets from ancient Mediterranean communities including both early Christian documents and Greek magical papyri Additionally it compares these materials with empowered names from a very different context 10th century Tibet where names were similarly invoked to access otherworldly power based upon Indic understandings of language In both contexts therefore a primary feature of this project is the analysis of religious experience mediated via invocation of particular names The project then builds upon this primary level onomastic analysis to consider how and why names were believed to work in this manner Towards this end the work comparatively considers major onomastic theories from the ancient Mediterranean world including those of Plato Origen Tertullian and Iamblichus While the main focus of the project is the ancient Mediterranean world the book will also address the Indo-Tibetan linguistic theories undergirding artifacts from that context

Wilhelm Müller's Lyrical Song-Cycles Alan P. Cottrell, 2020-05-01 The poetry of Wilhelm Müller to whom Heine expressed indebtedness for his renewal of the forms of the German Volkslied had rarely been discussed in depth prior to this volume originally published in 1970 Cottrell's study is an interpretation of Müller's three most successful song cycles Die schöne Müllerin Die Winterreise and Frühlingskranz The first two interpreted in chapters one and two are famed through Schubert's musical settings Chapter three offers an interpretation of the Fr hlingskranz A last chapter considers M ller's poetic imagination Full texts of the poems discussed are included in the Appendix and are indexed by titles and first lines

Religion Hent de Vries, 2008 What do we talk about when we talk about religion Is it an array of empirical facts about historical human civilizations Or is religion what is in essence unpredictable perhaps the very emergence of the new In what ways are the legacies of religion its powers words things and gestures reconfiguring themselves as the elementary forms of life in the twenty first century Given the Latin roots of the word religion and its historical Christian uses what sense if any does it make to talk about religion in other traditions Where might we look for common elements that would enable us to do so Has religion as an overarching concept lost all its currency or does it ineluctably return sometimes in unexpected ways the moment we attempt to do without it This book explores the difficulties and double binds that arise when we ask What is religion Offering a marvelously rich and diverse array of perspectives it begins the task of rethinking religion and religious studies in a contemporary world Opening essays on the question What is religion are followed by clusters exploring the relationships among religion theology and philosophy and the links between religion politics and law Pedagogy is the focus of the following section Religion is then examined in particular contexts from classical times to the present Pentacostal revival leading into an especially rich set of essays on religion materiality and mediatization The final section grapples with the ever changing forms that religion is taking such as spirituality movements and responses to the ecological crisis Featuring the work of leading scholars from a wide array of disciplines traditions and cultures Religion Beyond a Concept will help set the agenda for religious studies for years to come It is the first of five volumes in a collection entitled The Future of the Religious Past the fruit of a major international research initiative funded by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research
