popular fiction memoir and biography Children's Literature in Action Sylvia M. Vardell, 2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5-12 covers the latest trends, titles and tools for choosing the best books and materials as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities. The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries. Author Sylvia M. Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children's literature to deliver something different: a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian with emphasis on practical action and library applications. Its contents address seven major genres: picture books, traditional tales, poetry, contemporary realistic fiction, historical fiction, fantasy, and informational books. Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature based instruction. Chapters are enriched by author comments, collaborative activities, featured books, special topics, and activities including selected awards and celebrations, historical connections, recommended resources, issues for discussion, and assignment suggestions. This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards.

The Collar Sue Sorensen, 2014-06-11 Combining thematic analysis and stimulating close readings, The Collar is a wide ranging study of the many ways heroic or comic, shrewd or dastardly Christian ministers have been represented in literature and film. Since all Christians are expected to be involved in ministry of some type, the assumptions of secular culture about ministers affect more than just clergy. Ranging across several nations, particularly the U.S., Britain, and Canada, denominations and centuries, The Collar aims to encourage creative and faithful responses to the challenges of Christian leadership and to provoke awareness of the times when leadership expectations become too extreme. Using the framework of novels, plays, TV, and movies to make inquiries about pastoral passion, frustration, and fallibility, Sue Sorensen's well informed, sprightly and perceptive book will be helpful to pastors, parishioners, those interested in practical theology, and anyone who enjoys evocative literature and film.

A Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English Margaret Mallett, 2015-10-23 A Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential education writers to provide insight, guidance, and clarity about key issues affecting early years practitioners and primary English teachers. The book brings together key extracts from classic and contemporary writing and contextualises these in both theoretical and practical terms. The extracts are accompanied by a summary of the key ideas and issues, raised questions to promote discussion and reflective practice, and annotated further reading lists to extend thinking. Taking a thematic approach and including a short introduction to each theme, the chapters cover Models of and approaches to early years and primary English, Speaking and listening in English lessons, story telling, drama, booktalk and debate, Reading and responding to texts in English lessons, Writing in English lessons, finding a voice, Knowledge about language, grammar, spelling, punctuation and handwriting. The rich landscape of children's literature Non-fiction in English lessons Planning assessing and recording children's progress the learning cycle Aimed at trainee and newly qualified teachers those working towards Masters level qualifications and all those involved in the teaching of early years and primary English this accessible but critically provocative text will be an essential resource for those that wish to deepen their understanding of early years and primary English education
