Rock around the Clock Yannis Tzioumakis, Siân Lincoln, 2023-10-18 Examining one of the earliest films made specifically for young audiences in US cinema Rock around the Clock 1956 this book explores the exploitation production company that made the film and the ways it represented young people especially in terms of their association with rock n roll music and culture Providing new avenues of approaching the film the book looks at how Rock around the Clock has attracted significant scholarly attention despite its origins as a low budget production made by master exploitation filmmaker Sam Katzman It challenges accounts that see the film s young people as juvenile delinquents using instead the label cultural rebels as a signifier of youth s ability to resurrect a moribund music industry and rejuvenate a stale youth culture This book also questions the nature of the label exploitation as applied to the film by examining Columbia Pictures role as a resource provider for Katzman s film comparing Rock around the Clock to contemporaneous films with a youth focus that were produced in different industrial contexts and investigating its relationship to adaptation by asking whether the film is an example of a postliterary adaptation Rich on archival research and industrial and textual analysis Rock around the Clock will interest both film studies and youth cultures scholars

What a Difference a Day Makes Steve Bergsman, 2023-10-30 In What a Difference a Day Makes Women Who Conquered 1950s Music Steve Bergsman highlights the Black female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s Many of the singers of this era became wildly famous and respected and even made it into the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame However there were many others such as Margie Day Helen Humes Nellie Lutcher Jewel King and Savannah Churchill who made one or two great records in the 1950s and then disappeared from the scene The era featured former jazz and blues singers who first came to prominence in the 1940s and others who pioneered early forms of rock n roll In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of white women singers of the same era Although song styles were parallel the careers of Black and white female singers of the period ran in very different directions as the decade progressed The songs of African American vocalists like Dinah Washington and Etta James were segregated to the R B charts or covered by pop singers in the early and mid 1950s but burst into prominence in the last part of the decade and well into the 1960s White singers on the other hand excelled in the early 1950s but saw their careers decline with the advent of rock music In this volume Bergsman takes an encyclopedic look at both the renowned and the sadly faded stars of the 1950s placing them and their music back in the spotlight Rock 'n' Roll is Here to Pay Steve Chapple,Reebee Garofalo,1977 Here Comes the Night Joel Selvin,2014-04-15 I don t know where he s buried but if I did I d piss on his grave Jerry Wexler best friend and mentor Here Comes the Night Bert Berns and the Dirty Business of Rhythm and Blues is both a definitive account of the New York rhythm and blues world of the early 60s and the harrowing ultimately tragic story of songwriter and record producer Bert Berns whose meteoric career was fueled by his pending doom His heart damaged by rheumatic fever as a youth doctors told Berns he would not live to see twenty one Although his name is little remembered today Berns worked alongside all the greats of the era Jerry Leiber and Mike Stoller Ahmet Ertegun and Jerry Wexler Burt Bacharach Phil Spector Gerry Goffin and Carole King anyone who was anyone in New York rhythm and blues In seven quick years he went from nobody to the top of the pops producer of monumental R B classics songwriter of Twist and Shout My Girl Sloop and others His fury to succeed led Berns to use his Mafia associations to muscle Atlantic Records out of a partnership and intimidate new talents like Neil Diamond and Van Morrison he signed to his record label only to drop dead of a long expected fatal heart attack just when he was seeing his grandest plans and life s ambitions frustrated and foiled
