Rockefeller Carnegie And Canada American Philanthropy And The Arts And Letters In Canada:

Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Canada Jeffrey David Brison, 2005 In the first half of the twentieth century the Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation helped to create and maintain a cultural and intellectual infrastructure in Canada that benefited key institutions such as University of Toronto McGill University the National Gallery the Humanities Research Council of Canada and the Canadian Social Science Research Council Jeffrey Brison documents how American philanthropy facilitated the transformation from a private localized system of cultural intellectual and academic patronage to a complex nation based system of incorporated patronage a system in which the major patron was the federal state His study calls into question our essentialistic notions of contrasting national identities and the now mythologized juxtaposition of an American culture fuelled by the free market with a Canadian one sustained by state support Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Canada Jeffrey Brison, 2005-12-01 In the first half of the twentieth century the Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation helped to create and maintain a cultural and intellectual infrastructure in Canada that benefited key institutions such as University of Toronto McGill University the National Gallery the Humanities Research Council of Canada and the Canadian Social Science Research Council Jeffrey Brison documents how American philanthropy facilitated the transformation from a private localized system of cultural intellectual and academic patronage to a complex nation based system of incorporated patronage a system in which the major patron was the federal state His study calls into question our essentialistic notions of contrasting national identities and the now mythologized juxtaposition of an American culture fueled by the free market with a Canadian one sustained by state support Scholars, Missionaries, and Counter-Imperialists Andrew C. Holman, Brian Payne, 2022-03-13 For more than half a century the field of Canadian Studies has attracted North American scholars of the highest caliber to examine Canada its distinctive social makeup its fascinating colonial and postcolonial history its intriguing literature its political structure and its changing place in the world Scholars, Missionaries, and Counter-Imperialists The American Review of Canadian Studies 1971 2021 traces the birth and growth of that field by reproducing 15 exemplary articles published in the pages of that journal from its establishment until the present day For five decades the American Review of Canadian Studies ARCS acted as a bellwether for the field revealing its strengths projecting new directions and inquiries and reflecting the changing topics and methods that scholars used to study Canada This book captures the history of that field in one robust volume Carefully selected by the co editors of ARCS the chapters in this edited volume are prefaced by an introductory essay that assesses the accomplishments of the field and brief chapter introductions that place them into context Forgotten Partnership Redux , Northern Getaway Dominique Brégent-Heald, 2022-10-15 For more than a century posters advertisements and brochures have characterized Canada as a desirable tourist destination offering spectacular scenery wild animals outdoor recreation and state of the art accommodations However these explicitly commercial displays are not the only marketing tools at the country's disposal beginning in the 1890s film also played a role in selling Canada In Northern Getaway Dominique Br gent Heald investigates the connections between film and tourism during the first half of the twentieth century exploring the economic pedagogical geopolitical and socio cultural contexts and aspirations of tourism films From the first moving images of the 1890s through the end of the 1950s a complex web of public and private stakeholders in Canadian tourism experimented sometimes in collaboration with Hollywood with a variety of film forms 16 mm or 35 mm feature or short films fiction or nonfiction professional or amateur filmmakers to promote Canada Spectators particularly Americans saw Canada as a tourist destination on screens in motion picture theatres schools and fairgrounds Rooted in settler colonial representations that celebrate the nation s unspoiled but welcoming wilderness landscapes these films also characterize Canada as a technologically and industrially advanced settler country Using evidence from a wide range of archival sources and drawing from current scholarship in film history and tourism studies Northern Getaway demonstrates how Canada was an innovator in using film to shape and project a recognizable destination brand

Harold Innis and the North William J. Buxton, 2013-06-01 Harold Innis is widely understood as the proponent of the Laurentian school of historiography which mapped Canadian development along an East West axis Harold Innis and the North turns the axis North South by examining Innis s intense and abiding interest in the North and providing new perspectives on this seminal figure in Canadian political economy and communication studies This collection reveals that Innis s advocacy of the North was closely bound up with his vision of northern Canada as the site of a second industrial revolution based on mining hydro electric power pulp and paper and enabled by new forms of transportation Long preoccupied with Canada s coming of age as a balanced and integrated industrial nation state Innis grappled with the same issues about the North in the Canadian nation that we are dealing with today Chapters explore the breadth of Innis s northern activities including his early studies of the fur trade his biography of eighteenth century explorer and cartographer Peter Pond his review essays on the North for the Canadian Historical Review his leadership of the Rockefeller sponsored Arctic Survey and his trip to the Soviet Union Harold Innis and the North crafts a new narrative about the nature and scope of Innis s intellectual project and provides a unique appreciation of his multi faceted professional identity Contributors include Sergei Arkhipov North Ossetian State University and NGO Vladikavkaz Institute of Economics Jeffrey Brison Queens George Colpitts Calgary Matthew Evenden UBC Barry Gough Churchill College Cambridge and Kings College London Paul Heyer Wilfrid Laurier Jim Mochoruk North Dakota Liza Piper Alberta Shirley Roburn Concordia Peter van Wyck Concordia Jeff Webb Memorial

The Origins of the Arts Council Movement Anna Rosser Upchurch, 2016-11-17 This important new book offers an intellectual history of the arts council policy model identifying and exploring the ideas embedded in the model and actions of intellectuals philanthropists and wealthy aesthetes in its establishment in the mid twentieth century The book examines the history of arts advocacy for national arts policies in the UK Canada and the USA offering an interdisciplinary approach that combines social and intellectual history political philosophy and literary analysis The book has much to offer academics cultural policy and management students artists arts managers arts advocates cultural policymakers and anyone interested in the history and current moment of public arts funding in the West     Spirited Commitment Roderick MacLeod, Eric John Abrahamson, 2010 An institutional history of one of Canada's premier philanthropic organizations

Local Library, Global Passport J. Patrick Boyer, 2008-03-25 Limited time offer A local library passport to a larger world for its individual patrons is also a democratic institution whose contribution to the strength of a community is out of all proportion to its size or membership Several thousand Carnegie libraries were built a century ago when Andrew Carnegie who had risen from poverty to become the richest man in the world vowed to donate all his money before he died and set about giving millions of people around the world the same gift of reading he had with access to a library as a factory working boy Across the United States the United Kingdom Canada and other corners of the English speaking world he created the free republic of libraries This is the story of one of them By tracing evolution of library service in the Canadian town of Bracebridge from 1874 to the present day within the broad sweep of larger cultural and economic patterns Boyer's engaging book provides a specific example of the universal transformation of books and information technologies and the libraries that house them from the 19th to 21st centuries Most readers will find endearing and tantalizing parallels with their own library experience wherever they live Written to coincide with the 100th anniversary of the Andrew Carnegie Library in Bracebridge in 2008 Boyer's book is an inspired and engaging effort to show patterns and perils that probably hold true for most local libraries although some of the dramatic and comedic episodes here are surely unique This story is so rich it could be a feature movie     The International History of Communication Study Peter Simonson, David W. Park, 2015-10-14 The International History of Communication Study maps the growth of media and communication studies around the world Drawing out transnational flows of ideas institutions publications and people it offers the most comprehensive picture to date of the global history of communication research and education This volume reaches into national and regional areas that have not received much attention in the scholarship until now including Asia Latin America Africa and the Middle East alongside Europe and North America It also covers communication study outside of academic settings in international organizations like UNESCO and among commercial and civic groups It moves beyond the traditional canon to cover work by forgotten figures including women scholars in the field and those outside of the United States and Europe and it situates them all within the broader geopolitical institutional and intellectual landscapes that have shaped communication study globally Intended for scholars and graduate students in communication media studies and journalism this volume pushes the history of communication study in new directions by taking an aggressively international and comparative perspective on the historiography of the field Methodologically and conceptually the volume breaks new ground in bringing comparative transnational and global frames to bear and puts under the spotlight what has heretofore only lingered in the penumbra of the history of communication study     Rethinking Professionalism Kristina Huneault, Janice Anderson, 2012 The first collection of scholarly essays on women and art in Canadian history

Democratic Communications James F. Hamilton, 2009-08-01 This is the first book to take issue with the long standing assumptions about alternative media and democratic communications and place them in a detailed cultural and historical context Ranging from prophecy in sixteenth century England to the self managed projects of critical literacy and social change of today it assesses the historical heritage present conditions and future possibilities of today's remade media landscape for democratic communications

The Museum Movement Ian McShane, 2025-03-04 The Museum Movement provides the first systematic overview of the museum movement of the early twentieth century which encouraged museums to play a greater role in education and civic uplift Highlighting the key role played by the Carnegie Corporation in guiding museum development in the late colonial period this book shows that the movement was strongly influenced by the racial politics of the period and that its focus on local histories and civic engagement sought to boost the historical legitimacy and continued vitality of small towns and their dominant white populations Demonstrating that the museum movement placed new emphasis on the importance of professionalisation interpretation and audience engagement McShane shows how by the late 1930s the movement had helped lay the foundations of museology This book also constructs a genealogy of the new museology the next wave of museum reform that emerged in the 1970s by reflecting critically on the newness of some of its ideas Indicating that new thinking about audience display media and the economics of culture has a longer history this book also provides historical perspectives on current interests in informal and social learning the formation of museum publics and institutional convergence The Museum Movement explores the intersections and crosscurrents of modernism and settler colonialism and will thus appeal to academics and students with an interest in museum studies heritage history colonial studies and race

New Brunswick at the Crossroads Tony Tremblay, 2017-10-25 What is the relationship between literature and the society in which it incubates Are there common political social and economic factors that predominate during periods of heightened literary activity New Brunswick at the Crossroads Literary Ferment and Social Change in the East considers these questions and explores the relationships between periods of creative ferment in New Brunswick and the socio cultural conditions of those times The province's literature is ideally suited to such a study because of its bicultural character in both English and French periods of intense literary creativity occurred at different times and for different reasons What emerges is a cultural geography in New Brunswick that has existed not in isolation from the rest of Canada but often at the creative forefront of imagined alternatives in identity and citizenship At a time when cultural industries are threatened by forces that seek to negate difference and impose uniformity New Brunswick at the Crossroads provides an understanding of the intersection of cultures and social economies contributing to critical discussions about what constitutes the creative in Canadian society especially in rural non central spaces like New Brunswick

Picturing the Land Marilyn J. McKay, 2011-04-12 Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marilyn McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada Patronizing the Public William J. Buxton, 2009-08-16

Patronizing the Public American Philanthropy's Transformation of Culture Communication and the Humanities is the first detailed and comprehensive examination of how American philanthropic foundations have shaped numerous fields including dance drama education film film music folklore journalism local history museums radio television as well as the performing arts and the humanities in general Drawing on an impressive range of archival and secondary sources the chapters in the volume give particular attention to the period from the late 1920s to the late 1970s a crucial time for the development of philanthropic practice To this end it examines how patterns and directions of funding have been based on complex negotiations involving philanthropic family members elite networks foundation trustees and officers cultural workers academics state officials corporate interests and the general public By addressing both the contours of philanthropic power as well as the processes through which that power has been enacted it is hoped that this collection will reinforce and amplify the critical study of philanthropy's history Corporate Patronage of Art and Architecture in the United States, Late 19th Century to the Present Monica E. Jovanovich, Melissa Renn, 2019-04-18 This interdisciplinary collection of case studies rethinks corporate patronage in the United States and reveals the central role corporations have played in shaping American culture This volume offers new methodologies and models for the subject of corporate patronage and contains an extensive bibliography on corporate patronage art collections and exhibitions sponsorship and philanthropy in the United States The case studies herein go beyond the usual focus on corporate sponsorship and collecting to explore the complex organizational networks and motivations behind corporate commissions Featuring chapters on Margaret Bourke White Julie Mehretu Maxfield Parrish Pablo Picasso Diego Rivera Eugene Savage Millard Sheets and Kehinde Wiley as well as studies on Andrew Carnegie Andrew Mellon John D Rockefeller Sr and Jr and Dorothy Shaver and companies such as Herman Miller and Lord and Taylor this volume looks at a wide array of works ranging from sculpture photography mosaics and murals to advertisements department store displays sportswear medical schools and public libraries Distant Stage Eric Fillion, 2022-11-04 It is a little known fact that the first cultural agreement Canada signed was with Brazil in 1944 The two countries rapprochement launched a flurry of activity connecting Montreal to Rio de Janeiro amid the turbulence of war and its aftermath Why Brazil And what could songs and paintings achieve that traditional diplomacy could not Distant Stage examines the neglected histories of Canada Brazil relations and the role played by culture in Canada's pursuit of an international identity The efforts of French Canadian artists intellectuals and diplomats are at the heart of both Eric Fillion demonstrates how music and the visual arts gave state and non state actors new connections to the idea of nation which in turn informed their sense of place in the world Tracing the origins of Canadian cultural diplomacy to South America the book underscores the significance of race and religion in the country s international history showing how Brazil served as a distant stage where Canadian identity politics and aspirations could play out Both a timely invitation to think about cultural diplomacy as a critical practice and a reflection on the interplay between internationalism and nationalism Distant Stage draws attention to the ambiguous yet essential roles played by artists in international and intercultural relations

Conquering Disease Kjelle Marylou,2014-06-10 Conquering Disease explores the crisis of world disease and the people and organizations that are working to solve the crisis This title also focuses on people who have been helped the progress that has already been made and the challenges still left to be met The young reader analyzes the stories and develops their own opinion of what can be done to solve the world disease crisis The book has been developed to address many of the Common Core specific goals higher level thinking skills and progressive learning strategies from informational texts for middle grade and junior high level students

Bringing Art to Life Andrew Horrall,2009-09-14 Only thirty nine when he took over the National Gallery in 1955 Jarvis already had an extraordinary record of achievement and social mobility at home and in England he had trained with Canada s greatest artists won a Rhodes scholarship lunched at the Algonquin Round Table in New York managed an aircraft factory written a bestseller produced films run a slum settlement and moved in a London social circle that included No l Coward and Vivien Leigh As head of the National Gallery Jarvis was a provocative public educator advocating his idea of a museum without walls in countless public appearances Instrumental in bringing modern art to the National Gallery he shook artists and the art minded public out of a period of national complacency This first detailed account of the controversy surrounding his time at the gallery provides an important context for the ongoing and contested role of publicly supported arts and art institutions in this country
