Semantics in Adaptive and Personalised Systems Pasquale Lops, Cataldo Musto, Fedelucio Narducci, Giovanni Semeraro, 2019-09-18 This monograph gives a complete overview of the techniques and the methods for semantics aware content representation and shows how to apply such techniques in various use cases such as recommender systems user profiling and social media analysis Throughout the book the authors provide an extensive analysis of the techniques currently proposed in the literature and cover all the available tools and libraries to implement and exploit such methodologies in real world scenarios The book first introduces the problem of information overload and the reasons why content based information needs to be taken into account Next the basics of Natural Language Processing are provided by describing operations such as tokenization stopword removal lemmatization stemming part of speech tagging along with the main problems and issues Finally the book describes the different approaches for semantics aware content representation such approaches are split into exogenous and endogenous ones depending on whether external knowledge sources as DBpedia or geometrical models and distributional semantics are used respectively To conclude several successful use cases and an extensive list of available tools and resources to implement the approaches are shown Semantics in Adaptive and Personalised Systems definitely fills the gap between the extensive literature on content based recommender systems natural language processing and the different types of semantics aware representations

Muscles in the Movies John D. Fair, David L. Chapman, 2020-11-16 John Fair and David Chapman tell the story of how filmmakers use and manipulate the appearance and performances of muscular men and women to enhance the appeal of their productions The authors show how this practice deeply rooted in western epistemological traditions evolved from the art of photography through magic lantern and stage shows into the motion picture industry arguing that the sight of muscles in action induced a higher degree of viewer entertainment From Eugen Sandow to Dwayne The Rock Johnson muscular actors appear capable of performing the miraculous and with the aid of stuntmen and filming contrivances they do By such means muscles are used to perfect the art of illusion inherent in movie making from its earliest days
