Rodeo Girls Go Round The Outside:

Festival Places Chris Gibson, John Connell, 2011 Festivals have burgeoned in rural areas revitalising old traditions and inventing new reasons to celebrate How do festivals contribute to tourism community and a rural sense of belonging What are their cultural environmental and economic dimensions This book answers such questions featuring contributions from leading geographers historians anthropologists tourism scholars and cultural researchers It draws on a range of case studies from the rustic charm of agricultural shows and family circuses to the effervescent festival of Elvis Presley impersonators in Parkes from wildflower collecting to the cosmopolitan beats of ChillOut Australia s largest non metropolitan gay and lesbian festival Festivals as diverse as youth surfing carnivals country music musters Aboriginal gatherings in the remote Australian outback Scottish highland games and German Christmas celebrations are united in their emphasis on community conviviality and fun Chris Gibson is Professor in Human Geography at the University of Wollongong John Connell is Professor of Geography at the University of Sydney For well over a decade they have been researching and writing about music tourism and festivals in Australia and beyond More recently they were part of a team undertaking Australia s largest ever study of rural festivals with 480 festivals participating in the research Insights from that research project feature throughout this book

Reports from a Wild Country Deborah Bird Rose, 2004 Explores some of Australia s major ethical challenges Written in the midst of rapid social and environmental change and in a time of uncertainty and division it offers powerful stories and arguments for ethical choice and commitment The focus is on reconciliation between Indigenous and Settler peoples and with nature

Rodeo Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence, 1984-05-15 Rodeo people call their sport more a way of life than a way to make a living Rodeo is in fact a rite that not only expresses a way of life but perpetuates it reaffirming in a ritual contest between man and animal the values of American ranching society Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence uses an interpretive approach to analyze rodeo as a symbolic pageant that reenacts the winning of the West and as a stylized expression of frontier attitudes toward man and nature Rodeo contestants are the modern counterparts of the rugged and individualistic cowboys and the ethos they inherited is marked by ambivalence they admire the wild and the free yet desire to tame and conquer Based on extensive field work and drawing on comparative materials from other stock tending societies Rodeo is a major contribution to an understanding of the role of performance in society the culturally constructed view of man s place in nature and the structure and meaning of social relationships and their representations
