Rodeo An Anthropologist Looks At The Wild And The Tame:

Rodeo, an Anthropologist Looks at the Wild and the Tame Elizabeth A. Lawrence, Rodeo Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence, 1984-05-15 Rodeo people call their sport more a way of life than a way to make a living Rodeo is in fact a rite that not only expresses a way of life but perpetuates it reaffirming in a ritual contest between man and animal the values of American ranching society Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence uses an interpretive approach to analyze rodeo as a symbolic pageant that reenacts the winning of the West and as a stylized expression of frontier attitudes toward man and nature Rodeo contestants are the modern counterparts of the rugged and individualistic cowboys and the ethos they inherited is marked by ambivalence they admire the wild and the free yet desire to tame and conquer Based on extensive field work and drawing on comparative materials from other stock tending societies Rodeo is a major contribution to an understanding of the role of performance in society the culturally constructed view of man's place in nature and the structure and meaning of social relationships and their representations

The Power of Animals Brian Morris, 2020-12-22 The multiple ways in which people relate to animals provide a revealing window through which to examine a culture Western cultures tend to view animals either as pets or food and often overlook the vast number of roles that they may play within a culture and in social life more generally their use in medicine folk traditions and rituals This comprehensive and very readable study focuses on Malawi people and their rich and varied relationship with animals from hunting through to their use as medicine More broadly through a rigorous and detailed study the author provides insights which show how the people's relationship to their world manifests itself not strictly in social relations but just as tellingly in their relationships with animals that in fact animals constitute a vital role in social relations While significantly advancing classic African ethnographic studies this book also incorporates current debates in a wide range of disciplines from anthropology through to gender studies and ecology

On the Job Margo DeMello, 2021-01-13 This one volume encyclopedia examines jobs and occupations from around the world that are unique and out of the ordinary from bike fishermen in the Netherlands and professional wedding guests in South Korea to elephant dressers in India It's not surprising that the first question we are asked by strangers often has to do with what we do for a living It's another way of asking Who are you and what are you about But what happens when the answer to that question is I am a gondolier or I am an Instagram influencer This book answers that question focusing on approximately 100 unusual occupations around the world Arranged alphabetically entries define the jobs and detail their historical social and cultural significance Entries also examine where the job is located how it came to be how people get into the position and what the economic and future outlook is for that job While the entries focus on contemporary jobs the encyclopedia also includes sidebars that highlight unique jobs from history to give the reader a sense of how unusual and often terrible some jobs once were Students will find this book useful in looking at cultures around the world

Texas Tough Robert Perkinson, 2010-03-11 A vivid history of America's biggest baddest prison system and how it came to lead the nation's punitive revolution In the prison business all roads lead to Texas The most locked down state in the nation has led the way in criminal justice severity from assembly line executions to isolation supermaxes from prison privatization to sentencing juveniles as adults Texas Tough a sweeping history of American imprisonment from the days of slavery to the present shows how a plantation based penal system once dismissed as barbaric became the national template Drawing on convict accounts official records and interviews with prisoners guards and lawmakers historian Robert Perkinson reveals the Southern roots of our present day prison colossus While conventional histories emphasize the North s rehabilitative approach he shows how the retributive and profit driven regime of the South ultimately triumphed Most provocatively he argues that just as convict leasing and segregation emerged in response to Reconstruction so today s mass incarceration with its vast racial disparities must be seen as a backlash against civil rights Illuminating for the first time the origins of America s prison juggernaut Texas Tough points toward a more just and humane future Gender, Whiteness, and Power in Rodeo Tracey Owens Patton, Sally M. Schedlock, 2012-08-31

The lure of cowgirls and cowboys has hooked the American imagination with the lure of freedom and adventure since the turn of the twentieth century The cowboy and cowgirl played in the imagination and made rodeo into a symbolic representation of the Western United States As a sport that is emblematic of all things Western rodeo is a phenomenon that has since transcended into popular culture Rodeo s attraction has even spanned oceans and lives in the imaginations of many around the world From the modest start of this fantastic sport in open fields to celebrate the end of a long cattle drive or to settle a friendly who s the best bet between neighboring ranches rodeo truly has grown into an edge of the seat money drawing and crowd cheering favorite pastime However rodeo has diverse history that largely remains unaccounted for unexamined and silenced In Gender Whiteness and Power in Rodeo Tracey Owens Patton and Sally M. Schedlock visually explore how race gender and other issues of identity complicate the mythic historical narrative of the West The authors examine the experiences of ethnic minorities specifically Latinos American Indians and African Americans and women who have continued to be marginalized in rodeo Throughout the book Patton and Schedlock questioned the binary divisions in rodeo that exists between women and men and between ethnic minorities and Whites divisions that have become naturalized in rodeo and in the mind of the general public Using iconic visual images along with the voices of the marginalized Patton and Schedlock enter into the sometimes acrimonious debate of cowgirls and ethnic minorities in rodeo

Animals and the Law Jordan Curnutt, 2001-11-02 Offers a comprehensive overview of the legislation and legal issues surrounding animals Written by Jordan Curnutt Animals and the Law covers everything from the Silver Spring monkeys subjects in the first U S lab raided by police where criminal charges were filed against a scientist conducting federally funded research to sex with animals Among the subjects reviewed are kosher and Halal food restrictions mad cow disease and cattle cannibalism animals in laboratories and as entertainment in circuses zoos rodeos horse racing cockfighting and more Also included are appendixes of animal organizations cases statutes and regulations and an extensive bibliography

Reversible America Frédéric Saumade, Jean-Baptiste Maudet, 2024-07-01 Rodeo cattle ranching and bullfighting converge in the arenas of race gender and ethics in Reversible America In Southwestern California these sports manifest in spectacular expressions of transcultural interactions that continue to develop through border crossings Using an interdisciplinary scope this unique look into the subculture negotiates the paradoxes and connections between the popular American performances Iberian bullfighting and Native American hunting methods along with the relationship between human and non human beings and systems of value across borders

Dislocating the Frontier Deborah Bird Rose, Richard Davis, 2006-03-01 The frontier is one of the most pervasive concepts underlying the production of national identity in Australia Recently it has become a highly contested domain in which visions of nationhood are argued out through analysis of frontier conflict DISLOCATING THE FRONTIER departs from this contestation and takes a critical approach to the frontier imagination in Australia The authors of this book work with frontier theory in comparative and unsettling modes The essays reveal diverse aspects of frontier images and dreams as manifested in performance decolonising domains language and cross cultural encounters

Sport and Its Female Fans Kim Toffoletti, Peter Mewett, 2012-10-12 Why do women follow sports How do they participate from the sidelines and what is the significance of this contribution What can female fandom tell us about gender relations in sport This book explores these and related questions by bringing together the varied strands of research being conducted internationally across the social sciences and humanities on this emerging and topical field While sports spectatorship is a popular and well respected site of analysis no book length scholarly contribution documents women s experiences of sports fandom For this reason there is an obvious need for a book that offers researchers students and non professional readers an authoritative introduction to women s modes of sport support Sport and Its Female Fans will be a landmark contribution in the field of sport research and in studies of sports fandom making an original contribution to the growing yet under researched area of female sports spectators

African American Consciousness Jr. Conyers, 2017-07-12 African American Consciousness focuses on ideas of culture race and class within the interdisciplinary matrix of Africana Studies Even more important it uses a methodology that emphasizes interpretation and the necessity of interdisciplinary research and writing in a global society Worldview culture analytic thinking and historiography can all be used as tools of analysis and in the process of discovery use pedagogy and survey research of Africana history Advancing the idea of Africana Studies mixed methodology and triangulation the contributors provide alternative approaches toward examining this phenomena with regard to place space and time The essays in this volume include Reynaldo Anderson Black History dot com Greg Carr Black Consciousness Pan Africanism and the African World History Project Karanja Carroll A Genealogical Review of the Worldview Concept and Framework in Africana Studies Denise Martin Reflections on African Celestial Culture Serie McDougal Teaching Black Males Demetrius Pearson Cowboys of Color Pamela Reed Heirs to Disparity and Andrew Smallwood Malcolm X s Leadership and Legacy The researchers in this volume investigate explore and review patterns of functional normative and expressive behavior The past and present of Africana culture is represented showing how reflexivity can be an adjustable concept to organize process and interpret data Moreover humanism and social science demonstrate how researchers establish extract and identify the limitations and alternative approaches to research of the historic conditions of black Americans

Red Lodge and the Mythic West Bonnie Christensen, 2002 Tracing the story of Red Lodge from the 1880s to the present Christensen tells how a mining town managed to endure the vagaries of the West's unpredictable extractive industries economy She connects Red Lodge to a myriad of larger events and historical forces to show how national and regional influences have contributed to the development of local identities exploring how and why westerners first rejected and then embraced western images and how ethnicity wilderness and historic preservation became part of the identity that defined one town

BOOK JACKET Equestrian Cultures in Global and Local Contexts Miriam Adelman, Kirrilly Thompson, 2017-06-13 This edited volume demonstrates the broader socio cultural context for individual human horse relations and equestrian practices by documenting the international value of equines socially culturally as subjects of academic study and as drivers of public policy It broadens our understanding of the importance of horses to humans by providing case studies from an unprecedented diversity of cultures The volume is grounded in the contention that the changing status of equines reveals and moves us to reflect on important material and symbolic societal transformations ushered in by post modernity which affect local and global contexts alike Through a detailed consideration of the social relations and cultural dimensions of equestrian practices across several continents this volume provides readers with an understanding of the ways in which interactions with horses provide global connectivity with localized identities and vice versa It further discusses new frontiers in the research on and practice of equestrianism framed against global megatrends and local micro trends

Accessibility, Inclusion, and Diversity in Critical Event Studies Rebecca Finkel, Briony Sharp, Majella Sweeney, 2018-09-14 Most early social research into planned events had the effect of broadcasting narratives of dominant cultures and privileged groups More recently however convergences of gender sexualities ethnicities age class religion and intersectional analyses and events studies have started to drive new critical understanding of the impacts of events on non mainstream non majority communities around the globe This timely book addresses current gaps in the literature surrounding issues of accessibility inclusion and diversity in various event landscapes Structured into four parts covering the main types of events the chapters present original topics using innovative methodological approaches Each chapter employs a case study to illustrate the key intertwining issues in these various experiential realms Further the chapters are all cross or interdisciplinary drawing on gender sexualities cultural race ethnicity studies as well as multiple literatures that feed into critical events studies and exploring a variety of global examples This significant book opens the path to further research on the role and importance of accessibility inclusion and diversity in events environments worldwide It will be of interest to academics and researchers of critical event studies as well as a number of related social science disciplines

Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel, Matt Eaton, Tim Harvie, 2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton s flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth

The Animal Substitute Marjolein Efting Dijkstra, 2010 Presents an interdisciplinary study that combines art history ethnology and sociology to examine the ways in which such animal substitutes as North American duck decoys and other utilitarian objects from a variety of cultures have influenced modern and contemporary art practices

The Lost Frontier Mark Asquith, 2014-06-19 The success of The Shipping News and the film of Brokeback Mountain brought Proulx international recognition but their success merely confirms what literary critics have known for some time Proulx is one of the most provocative and stylistically innovative writers in America today She is at her best in the short story format and the best of these are to be found in her Wyoming trilogy in which she turns her eye on America s West both past and present Yet despite the vast amount of print expended reviewing her books there has been nothing published on the Wyoming Stories There is appetite for such a work the plethora of critical work on McCarthy s Border Trilogy indicates that the reinvention of the West is a subject for serious academic study Provided by publisher

Focusing Biblical Studies: The Crucial Nature of the Persian and Hellenistic Periods Jon L. Berquist, Alice Hunt, 2012-10-25 This volume makes a positive intervention into maximalist minimalist debates about Israelite historiography by pointing to the events that happened during the Persian and Hellenistic periods During this historical epoch traditions about Israel and Judah s founding became fixed as markers of ethnic identity and much of the canonical Hebrew Bible came into its present form Concentrating on these events a clearer historical picture emerges The entire volume is set within the context of Douglas A Knight s contributions which have encouraged a rigorous social scientific and tradition historical approach to the Hebrew Bible and ancient Israel in general      The Animal Manifesto Marc Bekoff,2010 In this inspirational call to action Marc Bekoff the world s leading expert on animal emotions gently shows that improving our treatment of animals is a matter of rethinking our many daily decisions and expanding our compassion footprint He demonstrates that animals experience a rich range of emotions including empathy and compassion and that they clearly know right from wrong Driven by moral imperatives and pressing environmental realities Bekoff offers six compelling reasons for changing the way we treat animals whether they re in factory farms labs circuses or our vanishing wilderness The result is a well researched informative guide that will change animal and human lives for the better
