Roissy Express A Journey Through The Paris Suburbs

Emile Chabal

Roissy Express A Journey Through The Paris Suburbs:

Roissy Express François Maspero, 1994 Accompanied by photographer Anaik Frantz François Maspero embarked on a journey along the RER the express subway which leads through the Paris suburbs Getting off the train at each stop he and Frantz present a picture of daily life in France which tourists seldom see a world where names don't make sense where immigrants from Burkino Faso live in run down tower blocks called Debussy on the avenue Karl Marx their children dodging the police between the lycée Jules Valles and the Yuri Gagarin youth club a world where there are still memories of the Commune the Popular Front or the camp at Drancy from where French officials sent a hundred thousand Jews to Auschwitz a world where no one is a racist but National Front posters are everywhere Maspero's aim is to put this world back on the map

Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke, 2016-02-12 An exploration of walking and mapping as both form and content in art projects using old and new technologies shoe leather and GPS From Guy Debord in the early 1950s to Richard Long Janet Cardiff and Esther Polak more recently contemporary artists have returned again and again to the walking motif Today the convergence of global networks online databases and new tools for mobile mapping coincides with a resurgence of interest in walking as an art form In Walking and Mapping Karen O'Rourke explores a series of walking mapping projects by contemporary artists She offers close readings of these projects many of which she was able to experience firsthand and situates them in relation to landmark works from the past half century Together they form a new entity a dynamic whole greater than the sum of its parts By alternating close study of selected projects with a broader view of their place in a bigger picture Walking and Mapping itself maps a complex phenomenon

Natura Urbana Matthew Gandy, 2022-03-08 A study of urban nature that draws together different strands of urban ecology as well as insights derived from feminist posthuman and postcolonial thought Postindustrial transitions and changing cultures of nature have produced an unprecedented degree of fascination with urban biodiversity The other nature that flourishes in marginal urban spaces at one remove from the controlled contours of metropolitan nature is not the poor relation of rural flora and fauna Indeed these islands of biodiversity underline the porosity of the distinction between urban and rural In Natura Urbana Matthew Gandy explores urban nature as a multilayered material and symbolic entity through the lens of urban ecology and the parallel study of diverse cultures of nature at a global scale Gandy examines the articulation of alternative and in some cases counterhegemonic sources of knowledge about urban nature produced by artists writers scientists as well as curious citizens including voices seldom heard in environmental discourse The book is driven by Gandy's fascination with spontaneous forms of urban nature ranging from postindustrial wastelands brimming with life to the return of such predators as wolves and leopards on the urban fringe Gandy develops a critical synthesis between different strands of urban ecology and considers whether urban political ecology broadly defined might be imaginatively extended to take fuller account of both the historiography of the ecological sciences and recent insights derived from feminist posthuman and postcolonial thought

Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 As theorists have begun using geographical concepts and metaphors to think about the complex and differentiated world it is important to reflect on their work and its impact on our thoughts on space This revealing book explores the work of a wide range of prolific social theorists Included contributions from an impressive range of renowned geographical writers each examine the work of one writer ranging from early this century to contemporary writers Among the writers discussed are Georg Simmel Mikhail Bakhtin Gilles Deleuze Helene Cixous Henri Lefebvre Jacques Lacan Pierre Bourdieu Michel Foucault and Franz Fanon Ideal for those interested in the spatial turn in social and cultural theory this fascinating book asks what role space plays in the work of such theorists what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space The Routledge Research Companion to Heritage and Identity Peter Howard, 2016-03-16 Heritage represents the meanings and representations conveyed in the present day upon artifacts landscapes mythologies memories and traditions from the past It is a key element in the shaping of identities particularly in the context of increasingly multicultural societies This Research Companion brings together an international team of authors to discuss the concepts ideas and practices that inform the entwining of heritage and identity They have assembled a wide geographical range of examples and interpret them through a number of disciplinary lenses that include geography history museum and heritage studies archaeology art history history anthropology and media studies This outstanding companion offers scholars and graduate students a thoroughly up to date guide to current thinking and a comprehensive reference to this growing field Airspaces David Pascoe, 2004-08-01 This book argues that airspace the transitional area between check in desk and baggage carousel must be regarded as a discrete destination on any map of our age City Worlds John Allen, Doreen Massey, Steve Pile, 2005-06-23 For the first time in history half of the worlds population is living in mega cities Never before have we confronted such a geography of the worlds people Analysing cities through spatial understanding City Worlds explores how different worlds within the city are brought into close proximity The authors outline new ways to address the ambiguities of cities their promise and potential their problems and threats City Worlds Doreen B. Massey, John Allen, Steve Pile, 1999 Analysing cities through spatial understanding this book explores how different worlds within the city are brought into close proximity and outlines new ways to address some of the ambiguities of cities their promise potential and problems France Emile Chabal, 2020-10-06 France is the most visited country in the world It attracts millions of tourists most of whom come in search of beautiful architecture good food and fine art But appearances can be deceptive France is not only a place of culture and glamour it also carries the bitter memories of violence division and broken promises In this arresting book Emile Chabal a leading specialist of contemporary France tells the story of a paradoxical country From the calamitous defeat by Hitler s armies in 1940 to the spectacular gilets jaunes protests he explores the contradictions that have shaped French history over the last eighty years The picture that emerges is one of a nation struggling to reconcile its core political values with the realities of a diverse society Listen to the author talk about the book with Roxanne Panchasi on the New Books Network Podcast

Post-Suburban Europe Nicholas A. Phelps, N. Parsons, Dimitris Ballas, Andrew Dowling, 2006-07-28 The term edge city describes the rapid growth of urban centres at the edge of established cities Widely discussed in the US very little has been written about European edge cities This book gives a comparative analysis of examples in Greece Spain Paris Finland and the UK with a theoretical analysis of edge cities and post suburban Europe

Paralyses John Culbert, 2011-01-01 Modernity has long been equated with motion travel and change from Marx's critical diagnoses of economic instability to the Futurists glorification of speed Likewise metaphors of travel serve widely in discussions of empire cultural contact translation and globalization from Deleuze's nomadology to James Clifford's traveling cultures John Culbert in contrast argues that the key texts of modernity and postmodernity may be approached through figures and narratives of paralysis motion is no more defining of modern travel than fixations resistance and impasse concepts and figures of travel he posits must be rethought in this more static light Focusing on the French and Francophone context in which paralyzed travel is a persistent motif Culbert also offers new insights into French critical theory and its often paradoxical figures of mobility from Blanchot's Spas to Barthes's Derivés Derrida's Spéculations and Glissant's Diversions Here we see that paralysis is not merely the failure of transport but rather the condition in which travel by coming to a crisis calls into question both mobility and stasis in the language of desire and the order of knowledge Paralyses provides a close analysis of the rhetoric of empire and the economy of tourism precisely at their points of breakdown which in turn enables a deconstruction of master narratives of exploration conquest and exoticism A reassessment of key authors of French modernity from Nerval and Gautier to Fromentin Paulhan Beckett Leiris and Boudjeda Paralyses also constitutes a new theoretical intervention in debates on travel translation ethics and postcoloniality

New Europe Donald McNeill, 2014-05-12 New Europe Imagined Spaces traces the radical transformation of European places and spaces over the last two decades Instead of the familiar schoolbook map of a Europe of nation states the book unpacks the differing imaginations of European identity in recent years Taking as its central problem the fluid nature of cultural and political identity it moves firmly away from and calls into question the perspective of the nation state as the primary source of imagined identity for Europeans The book contributes to key debates such as the emerging Europe of the Regions and the return of the city state examines the rebranding of the nation state and explores the impact of Europeanisation on existing place identity Emphasising mobility and movement the chapters explore borderlands and travel and also include a detailed discussion of the everyday life of Europeans Throughout iconic images of contemporary Europe are invoked EuroDisney the Reichstag Barcelona's Ramblas and the Bilbao Guggenheim and the way in which mundane artefacts and practices such as football walking cars food passports and the Euro help construct identity is considered New Europe Imagined Spaces adopts a multidisciplinary approach to studying Europe providing students with an exploration of contemporary European space and place identity

Unsettling Cities John Allen, Doreen Massey, Michael

Pryke,2005-08-12 This text examines the global nature of cities cities whose openness has shaped their dynamism and character It explores cities as sites of movement migration and settlement where different peoples cultures and environments combine Unsettling Cities explores the mix of proximity and difference that exists in the rich and diverse texture of city life The contributors reveal the association between the changing fortunes of cities and the power and influence of global networks The New Imperial Histories Reader Stephen Howe,2020-07-24 In recent years imperial history has experienced a newfound vigour dynamism and diversity There has been an explosion of new work in the field which has been driven into even greater prominence by contemporary world events However this resurgence has brought with it disputes between those who are labelled as exponents of a new imperial history and those who can by default be termed old imperial historians This collection not only gathers together some of the most important influential and controversial work which has come to be labelled new imperial history but also presents key examples of innovative recent writing across the broader fields of imperial and colonial studies This book is the perfect companion for any student interested in empires and global history Mobile Methods Monika Büscher,John Urry,Katian Witchger,2010-09-13 In the twenty first century more than ever everything and everybody seems to be on the move Global flows of people goods food money information services and media images are forming an intensely mobile background to everyday life Social scientists too are on the move seeking new analytical purchase on these important aspects of the social world by trying to move with and to be moved by the fleeting distributed multiple non causal sensory emotional and kinaesthetic Mobile Methods addresses the challenges and opportunities of researching mobile phenomena Drawing on extensive interdisciplinary discussion the book brings together a collection of cutting edge methodological innovations and original research reports to examine some important implications of the mobilities turn for the processes of research and the realm of the empirical Through analysis that addresses questions such as how are social relationships and social institutions made in and through mobility and how do people experience mobility in twenty first century world cities the authors mobilize sociological analysis bringing new insights and opening up new opportunities for engagement with contemporary challenges This book is a key text for undergraduate and postgraduate students of disciplines including Human Geography Social Policy Sociology and Research Methods Spatial Ecologies Verena Andermatt Conley,2012-01-01 Spatial Ecologies asks why French cultural and critical theory since 1968 has turned from investigating questions of time to examining space Verena Conley ranges over the work of Henri Lefebvre Michel de Certeau Jean Baudrillard Marc Auge Paul Virilio Bruno Latour and Etienne Balibar to analyze how they reconsidered the experience of space in the midst of political and economic turmoil and to find out what writing about space can tell us about life in late capitalism Conley links this question to Heidegger s concept of habituality and shows how this concept of space informs much of French theory Postcolonial minorities in Britain and France Shailja Sharma,2016-11-26 This book compares the postcolonial populations of Britain and France examining the ways in which they are redefining citizenship Bearing in mind the different histories and political systems of each country it considers questions of national identity values the place of religion secularism and public spaces all integral to determining what makes a country a true nation Recent security threats have made the debate around minorities and assimilation all the more pressing and this book delves deep into the issues of feminism Islam and group identities It will be of interest to students and scholars of race religion and migration studies

Thomas Hirschhorn Lisa Lee, 2025-09-30 A groundbreaking study of the crossover relationship between art and graphic design in the work of widely acclaimed artist Thomas Hirschhorn b 1957 Drawing extensively from unknown or little known works and previously unpublished documents from the artist's archive Thomas Hirschhorn from Graphic Design to Art explores the formative decade of 1984 to 1994 It tells the story of Hirschhorn's initial commitment to the print medium with its basis in mass culture and distribution as a vehicle for his political energies Lisa Lee analyzes for the first time in Hirschhorn scholarship his works of self-commissioned graphic design which combine rudimentary collage and diagrammatic languages to assert an essential publicness She describes Hirschhorn's growing disenchantment with the practical and political limitations of graphic design and simultaneously his realization that artmaking with its freedoms and attendant responsibilities was the only framework in which to realize his political ambitions Finally and crucially the book offers original interpretations of Hirschhorn's dedicated reinvention of composition exhibition and dissemination of artworks to better embody his utopian desire to intervene in the world Lee shows that nearly all the artistic strategies we associate with Hirschhorn were first articulated in this formative decade the use of quotidian materials the appropriation of vernacular forms the processing of mass-circulated images an embrace of quantity and an emphasis on urban peripheries

Migration in Comparative Perspective Margaret Byron, Stéphanie Condon, 2008-01-07 This book presents a comparative perspective on post-war Caribbean migration to Britain and France Both migrations were responses to the link between former colonies and colonial powers However the movements of labor occurred within separately and differently evolving political contexts affecting the migration outcomes Today Caribbean communities in Europe display complex features of continuity and change Condon and Byron examine trends in migration patterns household and family structures social fields employment and housing trajectories in detail This systematic comparison with its innovative focus on gender and life course is an excellent addition to the existing literature on the Caribbean diaspora

Urban Change and the European Left Donald McNeill, 2005-08-02 This book helps make sense of the shape of contemporary urban change and describes the way in which cities are central to the construction of place-based political identities
