Mattes, 2004 Violence and Social Injustice Against Lesbian Gay and Bisexual People helps you look past the stereotypical picture of violence against sexual minorities the public physical assaults on gay lesbian bisexual and transgendered youth by hypermasculine male thugs and directs you toward the many daily acts of quiet violence that go on unhindered in the workaday settings of our legal social educational and law enforcement institutions You ll learn about the frightening prevalence of complacency homophobic ignorance and apathy that pervades our police departments courts high schools and churches Also armed with this critical insight and statistical research you ll be better equipped to wage a non violent war of fairness and mutual respect against the daily senseless violence of policy and practice that threatens to render gay lesbian bisexual and transgendered people unwelcome and battered citizens in their own communities You ll find that Violence and Social Injustice Against Lesbian Gay and Bisexual People is ideal for aiding social workers counselors teachers and criminal justice officials in removing the unseen acts of violence from the policies and practices of the public sector These and other specific areas will give you the information and the fortitude necessary to evoke positive change in your community legal issues relating to same sex marriage the connection between social injustice and violence violence against sexual minority youth sexual identity and ethnic minorities practice and policy recommendations As this book shows violence against sexual minorities can be subtly woven into the very fabric of some of our most long standing respected social institutions For too long the sexual minorities of color for example and the lesbian who suffers physical assault at the hands of a partner have had little or no help from social workers law enforcement or education for fear of receiving either complete negligence or increased antagonism But now in Violence and Social Injustice Against Lesbian Gay and Bisexual People you ll find the facts and tools necessary for turning the ugliness of communal violence into social justice for people of all sexual orientations The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology John Webster, Kathryn Tanner, Iain Torrance, 2009-09-11 The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology brings together a set of original and authoritative accounts of all the major areas of current research in Christian systematic theology offering a thorough survey of the state of the discipline and of its prospects for those undertaking research and teaching in the field The Handbook engages in a comprehensive examination of themes and approaches guiding the reader through current debates and literatures in the context of the historical development of systematic theological reflection Organized thematically it treats in detail the full array of topics in systematic theology as well as questions of its sources and norms its relation to other theological and non theological fields of enquiry and some major trends in current work Each chapter provides an analysis of research and debate on its topic The focus is on doctrinal rather than historical questions and on major rather than ephemeral debates The aim is to stimulate readers to reach theological judgements on the basis of consideration of the range of opinion Drawn from Europe the UK and North America the authors are all leading practitioners of the discipline Readers will find expert guidance as well as creative suggestions about the future direction of the study of Christian doctrine Philippians and Philemon Daniel L. Migliore, 2014-08-15 In this latest volume in the Belief series Daniel L. Migliore plumbs the depth of Paul's letters to the Philippians and to Philemon With splendid theological reflection Migliore explores central themes of these remarkable letters themes that include the practice of prayer righteousness from God and the work of reconciliation and transformation through Jesus Christ Migliore shows how Philippians continues to speak to churches that like the church at Philippi struggle to be faithful to Christ worry about the future and need guidance And in Philemon Migliore finds a letter with importance far beyond its size a letter that can enrich our understanding of the fullness of the gospel that Paul proclaims In both books Migliore deftly shows Paul as a remarkable theologian and pastor with a message instructive to the church of every age Christian Character Formation Gifford A. Grobien, 2019-05-16

Christian Character Formation investigates worship and formation in view of Christian anthropology particularly union with Christ Traditions which value justification by faith wrestle to some degree with how to describe and encourage ethical formation when salvation and righteousness are presented as gracious and complete The dialectic of law and gospel has suggested to some that forgiveness and the advocacy of ethical norms contend with each other By viewing justification and formation in light of Christ's righteousness which is both imputed and imparted it is more readily seen that forgiveness and ethics complement each other In justification God converts a person by which he grants new character Traditional Lutheran anthropology says that this regeneration grants a new nature in mystical union with Jesus Christ By exploring the Finnish Luther School led by Tuomo Mannermaa Gifford A. Grobien explains how union with Christ imparts righteousness and the corresponding new character to the believer Furthermore as means of grace the Word and sacraments are the means of establishing union with Christ and nurturing new character Considering Oswald Bayer's suffering the word of Christ Louis Marie Chauvet's symbolic order and Bernd Wannenwetsch's understanding of worship as Christianity's unique form of life Grobien argues that worship practices are the foundational and determinative context in which grace is offered and in which the distinctively Christian ethos supports virtues consistent with Christian character This understanding is also coordinated with Stanley Hauerwas's narrative ethics and Luther's teaching of virtue and good works in view of the Ten Commandments

A Philosophical Anthropology of the Cross Brian Gregor, 2013-03-18 What does the cross both as a historical event and a symbol of religious discourse tell us about human beings In this provocative book Brian Gregor draws together a hermeneutics of the self through Heidegger Gadamer Ricoeur and Taylor and a theology of the cross through Luther Kierkegaard Bonhoeffer and Jungel to envision a phenomenology of the cruciform self The result is a bold and original view of what philosophical anthropology could look like if it took the scandal of the cross seriously instead of reducing it into general philosophical concepts Reading Paul with the Reformers Stephen J. Chester, 2017-07-11 In debates surrounding the New Perspective on Paul the sixteenth century Protestant Reformers are often characterized as the apostle's misinterpreters in chief In this book Stephen Chester challenges that conception with a careful and nuanced reading of the Reformers Pauline exegesis Examining the overall contours of Reformation exegesis of Paul Chester contrasts the Reformers with their opponents and explores particular contributions made by such key figures as Luther Melancthon and Calvin He relates their insights to contemporary debates in Pauline theology about justification union with Christ and other central themes arguing that their work remains a significant resource today Published in the 500th anniversary year of the Protestant Reformation Chester's Reading Paul with the Reformers reclaims a robust understanding of how the Reformers actually read the apostle Paul

Eberhard Jüngel and Existence Deborah Casewell, 2021-05-30 This book interrogates the contemporary Lutheran theologian Eberhard Jüngel's theological anthropology arguing that Jüngel's thought can provide a model for theological engagement with philosophical accounts of existence Focusing on Jüngel's theology of existence the author explores the thought of philosophers including Heidegger and Hegel their influence on and application to his theology and argues that Jüngel's account of humanity should be seen as a response to atheistic existentialist accounts of existence In showing how Jüngel's theology is informed by and dependent on philosophical thought this book provides a new lens on the interplay between philosophy theology and religion in twentieth century German thought It will be of particular interest to researchers in philosophy theology and philosophy of religion

The Doctrine of Atonement Jack D. Kilcrease, 2018-03-22 Post Enlightenment theology has frequently rejected the historic Christian doctrine of substitutionary atonement For theologians standing in the tradition of the Lutheran Confessions rejection of substitutionary atonement is particularly problematic because it endangers the unconditional nature of the justification through faith If one rejects vicarious satisfaction then the only alternative is to make redemption dependent on what sinners do for themselves In this study Jack Kilcrease argues for substitutionary atonement within the perspective of what he calls the Confessional Lutheran Paradigm The author also critiques a wide variety of modern Lutheran theologians understandings of atonement Werner Elert Gustaf Aulen Gustaf Wingren Robert Jenson Eberhard Jüngel Wolfhart Pannenberg and Gerhard Forde As Kilcrease demonstrates although these authors often give many fine theological insights their distortion or misrepresentation of the doctrine of atonement carries over to a problematic understanding of law gospel and justification through faith

Jürgen Moltmann's Ethics of Hope Dr Timothy Harvie, 2013-05-28 This book develops a thorough account of the sphere of human moral action in sustained dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann By examining God's role as promise giver particularly in the Christian understanding of resurrection this work describes the occupancy of both history and space in moral terms This leads to an understanding of Jesus' description of the kingdom of God to feature prominently in describing both the possibility and content of human moral action By offering an account of each of the main doctrines found in Moltmann's corpus the role of the future the Trinity the Holy Spirit and anthropology this book locates how each contributes to the understanding of ethics from a Christian perspective and subsequently applies these findings to the contemporary issue of poverty and global economics

Narrative and the Triune Reality Wai Luen Kwok, 2022-05-13 Robert Jenson is commended as one of the greatest American theologians in the twentieth century This book proposes a critique of Jenson's narrative Trinitarianism by comparing it with Eberhard Jungel's theology It argues for the importance of the double dimensions of event and communicative linguistics of the Divine narrative

The Work of Faith Justin Nickel, 2020-08-31 Many scholars assume that Luther advocates for a Christian life in which human beings are always passive recipients of God's grace as it is delivered in preaching and mere instruments through which God works to serve their neighbors The Work of Faith Divine Grace and Human Agency in Martin Luther's Preaching offers a different reading of Luther's views on human agency by drawing on a fresh source Luther's preaching Using Luther's sermons in the Church Postil as a primary source Justin Nickel argues that Martin Luther preached as though Christians have real if secondary agency in the lives they lead before God and neighbor As a result Nickel presents a Luther substantively concerned with how Christians lead their lives

Lex Aeterna Jordan Cooper, 2017-03-09 Martin Luther's theological revolution depended in a significant part upon the distinction between law and gospel Within the last hundred years several authors have reevaluated the reformer's understanding of this paradigm in light of its development within the Lutheran orthodox tradition Some authors have argued that the Lutheran scholastic view of God's law departs from that of Luther Specifically it is contended that the Lutheran orthodox argued for a definition of the law which defines it as God's eternal will in contradiction to Luther's approach wherein the law is defined almost exclusively in negative terms as a temporal order to eventually be replaced and superseded by the gospel In this work Jordan Cooper argues for the continued validity of the Lutheran orthodox definition of the law Throughout this text he contrasts the perspective of Radical Lutheran theologians like Gerhard Forde with that of earlier Lutheran writers such as Martin Chemnitz and Johann Gerhard It is argued that Forde's view is inadequate to address contemporary ethical and pastoral issues and that the Lutheran scholastic doctrine of the law as God's eternal will remains a necessary concept for the contemporary church

Mission Shaped by Promise Jukka A. Kääriäinen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God

Cross Narratives Neal J. Anthony, 2010-06-01

Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ and specifically its expression through the ubiquitous presence of the humanity of Christ is a fundamental integral expression of that same theology. This expression of Luther's theology of the cross, Anthony asserts, provides both a fuller elaboration and an important and creative corrective with reference to recent signal expressions of the theology of the cross. As contemporary theologians of the cross have articulated most notably Douglas John Hall and the late Alan E. Lewis, the theology of the cross through a transformation of the divine attributes that honors the integrity of created beings is preeminently a theology of redemption from within within redemption. In the process of outlining and analyzing these theologies of within redemption, Anthony exposes an impasse created by these theologies regarding the relationship of within redemption to individual human narratives. It is through Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ, Anthony contends, that complete within redemption can be expressed. Anthony also evaluates the Christology of Karl Barth from the perspective of his findings. Not only is Anthony's work an innovative and fresh application of Luther's Christology for contemporary discussions of the theology of the cross, but it places Luther's Christology at the cutting edge of contemporary discussions regarding the theology of the cross and its within redemption.

Transfiguring a Theologia Crucis through James Cone Brach S. Jennings, 2023-10-18 Brach S. Jennings unites thematic investigations into hermeneutics and material dogmatics related to fundamental theology with a concern for contemporary situations of global oppression in order to propose a new theologia crucis through James H. Cone's Black Theology of Liberation. Jennings's study connects a theology of wisdom sapientia with political prophetic theology for the three publics of academy, society, and church today.

Faithful to Save Kent Eilers, 2011-07-14 Faithful to Save is an exposition and analysis of Pannenberg's doctrine of reconciliation as it appears in his three-volume Systematic Theology. It suggests that this doctrine is best approached by bearing in mind its three most salient characteristics, all of which are interdependent and when kept in view make the essential tenets of Pannenberg's account transparent. God acts freely and immediately in and for creation; history is a function of the faithfulness of God to his creation; reconciliation is an expression of this faithfulness towards sinful creation. God's holding fast to creation despite its self-destructive self-assertion. On the basis of a detailed examination of the central texts, it argues that Pannenberg's doctrine of reconciliation at once marks out God's action in the world as the true Infinite and issues an invitation to consider how such a God extends himself in reconciling love to his creatures so that their finite creatureliness is at every turn affirmed and found to be in the end good.

Sanctification Michael Allen, 2017-10-24 Sanctification, the act or process of becoming holy, is one of the gifts of the gospel of Jesus Christ, but it is often misunderstood by the modern church. Sanctification offers a Christ-centered and clear account of the doctrine by viewing it within its wider biblical and historical context. Churches too often allow their definitions of holiness to be prompted by existential goals or the social mores of the Christian community. It is not surprising then that many view holiness as accidental or expendable, even as a legalistic posture opposed to the freedom of the gospel and separate from the gift of grace. Sanctification, part of the New

Studies in Dogmatics series defines holiness in theological terms by Providing a framework by discussing the core Christian doctrines associated with it such as the character of God the nature of creation and the covenantal shape of life with God Considering the ways in which the gospel of Jesus not only prompts us to holy action but provides holiness as one of its blessings Attending to the ways in which the gift of sanctification relates to human means so that we can appreciate its connection to human nature responsibility and the pedagogy of exemplars and of law ABOUT THE SERIES New Studies in Dogmatics seeks to retrieve the riches of Christian doctrine for the sake of contemporary theological renewal Following in the tradition of G C Berkouwer s Studies in Dogmatics this series provides thoughtful concise and readable treatments of major theological topics expressing the biblical creedal and confessional shape of Christian doctrine for a contemporary evangelical audience The editors and contributors share a common conviction that the way forward in constructive systematic theology lies in building upon the foundations laid in the church s historic understanding of the Word of God as professed in its creeds councils and confessions and by its most trusted teachers

The Knowledge of God Michael Allen, 2022-01-13 The Knowledge of God turns to consider the knowledge of God revealed in the Word of God with several essays addressing the doctrine of God then the person of Christ and finally the miracle of the church Michael Allen shows the exegetical shape of historical and dogmatic reasoning as well as the significance of thinking about these topics in their interrelationships with a range of other Christian themes not least the doctrine of the living and true God In each of these topics the theme of the promise and nature of God s presence whether in his own life or then in the economy of the incarnation and of the church proves to be a unifying thread The gospel is shown to be rooted backward in God s own life and to have consequence forward for the ongoing life of Christ displayed in his church This volume explores what it means to learn of and come to know God who has life in himself and then shares his life with us in the coming of his Son and the ongoing presence amidst his body the church of Christ

Luther on Faith and Love Sun-Young Kim, 2014 There has been a distinct tendency in modern scholarship to underestimate Luther s teaching on love by overemphasizing his teaching on justification Calling this tendency into question this volume advances the thesis that Luther s teaching on faith and love operates as the overriding thematic pair in the dynamics of Christ and the law structurally and conceptually undergirding the 1535 Galatians commentary The research situates itself in the landscape of Luther scholarship via a special attention to Finnish Luther scholars and scholarship

Hanging by a Promise Joshua C. Miller, 2015-02-13 Oswald Bayer is one of the most important contemporary interpreters of Martin Luther and confessional Lutheran theologians As a Luther scholar Bayer has identified the precise reformational turning point in Luther s life and theology which is also the central point for a truly Lutheran theology the promise of a forgiving and justifying God preached in Jesus Christ As a Lutheran theologian Bayer stresses that this promise of God is the ultimate subject matter of all theology and that all other theological topics have the justifying promise of God as their basis and boundary Hanging by a Promise investigates how Bayer addresses Luther s topic of the hidden God a God of wrath who accomplishes everything from the standpoint of the justifying promise of God Luther's doctrine of the hidden God has been taken up discussed and interpreted by many in the modern Protestant theological tradition Yet Bayer addresses it in a way in which others before him have not Going beyond interpretation and evaluation Bayer actually makes use of Luther's hidden God in his own theology For Bayer the hidden God is the counterpoint to God's gracious promise given in the preached Christ a counterpoint that brings serious tension into the very heart of theology
