Remorse, Penal Theory and Sentencing Hannah Maslen,2015-04-30 This monograph addresses a contested but under discussed question in the field of criminal sentencing should an offender s remorse affect the sentence he or she receives Answering this question involves tackling a series of others is it possible to justify mitigation for remorse within a retributive sentencing framework Precisely how should remorse enter into the sentencing equation How should the mitigating weight of remorse interact with other aggravating and mitigating factors Are there some offence or offender characteristics that preclude remorse based mitigation Remorse is recognised as a legitimate mitigating factor in many sentencing regimes around the world with powerful effects on sentence severity Although there has been some discussion of whether this practice can be justified within the literature on sentencing and penal theory this monograph provides the first comprehensive and in depth study of possible theoretical justifications Whilst the emphasis here is on theoretical justification the monograph also offers analysis of how normative conclusions would play out in the broader context of sentencing decisions and the guidance intended to structure them The conclusions reached have relevance for sentencing systems around the world The Conscious Mind David J. Chalmers,1997 Writing in a rigorous thought provoking style the author takes us on a far reaching tour through the philosophical ramifications of consciousness offering provocative insights into the relationship between mind and brain 50 People Who Messed up the World Alexander Parker,Tim Richman,2017-11-09 Who would top your list of the fifty people who have done the most to make the modern world a worse place I can t imagine how they whittled it down to just 50 people comedian Nik Rabinowitz A fantastic thought provoking book that renews my appreciation for history It reminds us how we got here and how we can avoid things getting worse Mandla Shongwe SAFM Lifestyle A fascinating terrific read Gareth Cliff CliffCentral From despotic mass murderers to sports cheats and from corrupt politicians to truly dreadful celebrities who has had the most damaging or vexatious impact in their particular sphere of modern life This line up of the very worst of the twentieth century and beyond includes the obvious candidates those who have caused extraordinary damage through their murderous paranoia brutal avarice or demented self regard Stalin King Leopold Idi Amin and the like But murderous dictators aside there are plenty of others who deserve recognition for their role in making the world a significantly more dangerous or at the very least more annoying place terrorist Carlos the Jackal Robert Oppenheimer the man who gave the world the atomic bomb notorious sports cheat Lance Armstrong and the one and only President Donald Trump who has of course succeeded in making the world both more annoying and more dangerous
