Loseke,1992-01-01 Explores how standardized images of problems and people inform and shape social services for women who have been assaulted Feminist Transformations and Domestic Violence Activism in Divided Berlin, 1968-2002 Jane Freeland,2024-07-19 This is the first in depth historical study of feminist activism against domestic violence in divided Berlin between 1968 and 2002 Starting in the 1970s feminists in West and then East Berlin campaigned against domestic violence as a key issue of women s inequality They exposed the harmful gender norms that left women unprotected and vulnerable to abuse in the home and called for this to change Indeed domestic violence has been one of the issues most effectively addressed by the women s movement in Germany Since the first shelter opened in West Berlin in 1976 women s shelters have spread throughout the country and today up to 45 000 women a year turn to emergency housing in Germany with many more accessing helplines and crisis centres Situating domestic violence activism within a broader history of feminism in post war Germany Feminist Transformations traces the evolution of this movement both across political division and reunification and from grassroots campaign to established professionalised social service In doing so it brings the histories of feminism in East and West Berlin together for the first time and explores how feminism successfully changed women s rights in Germany But it also asks what popular and political support for domestic violence activism has meant for feminism and the advancement of women s rights more broadly Examining the trajectory of feminism in Germany Jane Freeland reveals the limitations of gender equality as advancements in women s rights were often built on the reassertion of patriarchal gender roles Social Change, Gender and Violence V. Nikolic-Ristanovic,2013-04-17 Based on large research material collected in Hungary Macedonia Serbia and Bulgaria Social change Gender and Violence is the book which explores the impact of transition from communism and war on everyday life of women and men as well as the way how everyday life and gender related changes affect women s vulnerability to domestic violence and trafficking in women The book also explores the impact of micro level changes on development of civil society women s movement and legal and policy changes regarding violence against women This is a unique book which tries to look at violence against women as connected to oppression of both women and men It argues that violence against women in post communist and war affected societies is significantly connected to the increase of social stratification economic hardship unemployment instability uncertainty and related social stresses changes in gender identity and structural inequalities brought by new world order Using largely accounts of more than hundred interviewed people the author shows vividly how in post communist societies the contradictions of capitalism are interlaced with the mostly negative relics of communism Moreover the book shows how contradictory processes in post communist societies have led to a rather paradoxical result political pluralism and a capitalist economic system generated both violence against women and a women s movement albeit not the conditions for a reduction of violence

The Insatiability of Human Wants Regenia Gagnier,2000-12 What is the relationship between our conception of humans as producers or creators as consumers of taste and pleasure and as creators of value Combining cultural history economics and literary criticism Regenia Gagnier s new work traces the parallel development of economic and aesthetic theory offering a shrewd reading of humans as workers and wanters born of labor and desire The Insatiability of Human Wants begins during a key transitional moment in aesthetic and economic theory 1871 when both disciplines underwent a turn from production to consumption models In economics an emphasis on the theory of value and the social relations between land labor and capital gave way to more individualistic models of consumerism Similarly in aesthetics theories of artistic production or creativity soon bowed to models of taste pleasure and reception Using these developments as a point of departure Gagnier deftly traces the shift in Western thought from models of production to consumption From its exploration of early market logic and Kantian thought to its look at the aestheticization of homelessness and our own market boom The Insatiability of Human Wants invites us to contemplate alternative interpretations of economics aesthetics and history itself

Women Escaping Violence Elaine J. Lawless,2013-03-07 The statistics are alarming Some say that once every nine minutes a woman in the United States is beaten by her spouse or partner Others claim that once every four minutes a woman in the world is beaten by her spouse or partner More women go to emergency rooms in the United States for injuries sustained at the hands of their spouses and partners than for all other injuries combined Shelters for battered women are filled beyond capacity every single day of the year Despite the overwhelming evidence that violence in our homes is a daily reality most of us are not willing to acknowledge this private violence or talk about it openly Women Escaping Violence brings women s stories to the attention of the academy as well as the reading public While we may be unwilling or unable to talk about the issue of battered women many of us are ready to read what women have to say about their endangered lives Considerable scholarship is emerging in the area of domestic violence including many self help books about how to identify and escape abuse Women Escaping Violence offers the unique view of battered women's stories told in their own words as well as a feminist analysis of how these women use the power of narrative to transform their sense of self and regain a place within the larger society Lawless shares with the reader the heart wrenching experiences of battered women who have escaped violence by fleeing to shelters with little more than a few items hastily shoved into a plastic bag and often with small children in tow The book includes women's stories as they are told and retold within the shelter in the presence of other battered women and of caregivers It analyzes the uses made of these narratives by those seeking to counsel battered women as well as by the women themselves

Shoro,2017-08-21 Honour killing is considered the worst form of domestic violence against human beings particularly against women It is clear that societies across the world through their laws and their courts continue to countenance legal defences which overwhelmingly benefit males committing violence against females Despite the statistics that honour killings are being reported from all over the world the greatest number of shocking reports of honour killings come from Muslim countries Unfortunately Pakistan is among those countries where women are facing various forms of violence in the name of religion customs and traditions and cases of honour killing are regularly reported there It is imperative to understand and see killings in the name of honour from the perspective of those who have been directly affected by the socio religious cultural norms which condone them The findings gathered here show that honour killing is not only family or community violence or a tradition to preserve honour but that behind these killings ulterior purposes are being served and therefore the number of the killings is increasing every year in Pakistan This book will allow the reader to understand precisely the menace of honour killing and to consider how it can be addressed to save innocent lives and to stop these severe violations of human rights
