Ships And Memories Merchant Seafarers In Canadas Age Of Steam:

Ships and Memories Eric W. Sager, 2011-11-01 Canada is a great maritime nation Although ships and the sea have been part of its history for centuries very little is known about the men and women who have worked in its coastal and lake fleets Ships and Memories is a fascinating account of life at sea during the age of steam In it seafarers tell their own stories and remember the good times as well as the bad in peace and war and during the depression Eric Sager draws on interviews with master mariners engineers able seamen cooks stewards and many others who worked aboard steamships from 1920 to 1950

Mediterranean Seafarers in Transition , 2022-10-17 This volume discusses the effects of industrialization on maritime trade labour and communities in the Mediterranean and Black Sea from the 1850s to the 1920s The 17 essays are based on new evidence from multiple type of primary sources on the transition from sail to steam navigation written in a variety of languages Italian Spanish French Greek Russian and Ottoman Questions that arise in the book include the labour conditions wages career and retirement of seafarers the socio economic and spatial transformations of the maritime communities and the changes in the patterns of operation ownership and management in the shipping industry with the advent of steam navigation The book offers a comparative analysis of the above subjects across the Mediterranean while also proposes unexplored themes in current scholarship like the history of navigation Contributors are Luca Lo Basso Andrea Zappia Leonardo Scavino Daniel Muntane Eduard Page Campos Enric Garcia Domingo Katerina Galani Alkiviadis Kapokakis Petros Kastrinakis Kalliopi Vasilaki Pavlos Fafalios Georgios Samaritakis Kostas Petrakis Korina Doerr Athina Kritsotaki Anastasia Axaridou and Martin Doerr Negotiating Identities in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Montreal Bettina

Bradbury, Tamara Myers, 2011-11-01 Negotiating Identities in 19th and 20th Century Montreal illuminates the cultural complexity and richness of a modernizing city and its people The chapters focus on sites where identities were forged and contested over crucial decades in Montreal's history Readers will discover the links between identity place and historical moment as they meet vagrant women sailors in port unemployed men of the Great Depression elite families shopkeepers reformers notaries and social workers among others This is a fascinating study that explores the intersections of state people and the voluntary sector to elucidate the processes that took people between homes and cemeteries between families and shops and onto the streets This book will be of interest to a wide range of social and cultural historians critical geographers students of gender studies and those wanting to know more about the fascinating past of one of Canada's most lively cities

Maritime History at the Crossroads Frank Broeze, 2017-10-18 This volume seeks to critically review the contemporary state of maritime historiography as it stands at the volume's publication date of 1995 The volume is comprised of thirteen essays each focused on the recent research into the maritime concerns of a particular geographical location listed as follows Australia Canada China Denmark Germany Greece Ibero America India the Netherlands the Ottoman Empire Spain the United States and a final chapter concerning historians and maritime labour in Britain Australia and New Zealand One concern made evident by the collection is the lack of stable identity and cohesive aims within maritime history the subject holds many conflicting definitions and concepts The purpose of this volume is to explore the recent developments in maritime history plus the growth of scholarly interest to provide a beacon and stimulus for future work and to clearly direct and define maritime historiography toward a solid position in the field of history Uncovering Labour in Information Revolutions, 1750-2000: Volume 11 Aad Blok,Greg Downey,2003-12-15 Discussion of the current Information Revolution tends to focus on technological developments in information and communication and overlooks both the human labour involved in the development maintenance and daily use of information and communication technologies ICTs and the consequences of the implementation of these ICTs for the position and divisions of labour This volume aims to redress this imbalance by exploring the role position and divisions of information and communication labour in the broadest sense through periods of revolutionary technological change The Infinite Bonds of Family Cynthia R. Comacchio,1999-01-01 With this book Cynthia Comacchio presents the first historical overview of domestic life in Canada showing how families have both changed and remained the same through transitions brought about by urbanization industrialization and war Negotiating Identities in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Montreal Tamara Myers,2014 Negotiating Identities in 19th and 20th Century Montreal illuminates the cultural complexity and richness of a modernizing city and its people The chapters focus on sites where identities were forged and contested over crucial decades in Montreal s history Readers will discover the links between identity place and historical moment as they meet vagrant women sailors in port unemployed men of the Great Depression elite families shopkeepers reformers notaries and social workers among others This is a fascinating study that explores the intersections of state people and the voluntary sector to elucidate the processes that took people between homes and cemeteries between families and shops and onto the streets This book will be of interest to a wide range of social and cultural historians critical geographers students of gender studies and those wanting to know more about the fascinating past of one of Canada s most lively cities Power At Work Marcel van der Linden,Nicole Mayer-Ahuja,2023-07-04 Between working men and women which may include free wage earners chattel slaves indentured labourers sharecroppers domestic servants and many others and those employing them there has always been a constant mostly silent but sometimes overt struggle concerning employers discretionary power and over the interpretation of formal and informal rules There is a constantly shifting frontier of control that is an ongoing struggle for control in the workplace with managers and supervisors trying to increase their power over their subordinates and their subordinates in reaction trying to maintain and increase their relative autonomy The detailed case studies in this volume span three centuries and cover different parts of the world Still they speak to each other in many ways highlighting the fact that power at work whether on the shopfloor or beyond results from a wide range of complex interrelations Between technological innovations and the ways in which they are actually implemented Between the division of labour at the site of production or service provision and changing standards of social segmentation beyond the premises of the company which can be reinforced or weakened by management strategies of utilizing labour power as well as workers reaction to these strategies And finally between politics in production which shape the relations between capital and labour on the shopfloor and state politics of production which cannot be understood without reference to broader developments in economy and society

Global and Transnational Sport Souvik Naha,2019-10-23 The eight chapters in this book explore more than 150 years of the development of several modern sports baseball basketball cricket football handball ice hockey and lacrosse across the two Americas Asia Australia and Europe some analysing a century of events since the mid nineteenth century and some only a few years in the very present Drawing on the methods of history international relations political science and sociology the contributing authors examine various theories of sporting globalization The chapters take a balanced look at the concepts of the nation state and the connected world which are the substantive core around which modern human society is ordered They construct stories of entanglements and convergences from within and without the nation state in which the national and the non national are not mutually exclusive The key features of this collection are how cultural elements are introduced to sport how changes are perceived how sporting practices and institutions can be defined at geopolitical and other levels how we might conceptualize the perimeter of judging the national transnational or the local translocal paradigms and how we could complicate the understanding of sport knowledge transfer by ascribing different degrees of importance to origin process purpose outcome personnel and network This book is a multidisciplinary exploration into the development of modern sporting culture from global and transnational history perspectives The chapters originally published as a special issue in Sport in Society

La Ciotat in the Age of Steam (1836-1916) Kalliopi Vasilaki,2025-09-12 La Ciotat a small port town in the French Mediterranean underwent a profound metamorphosis during the nineteenth century Once a small maritime community it was transformed into the technical base and shipbuilding centre of the Compagnie des Messageries maritimes France s largest steam navigation company This book charts the journey of a maritime society through its industrial growth and discovers its economic demographic labour and social changes Drawing on unpublished archival material it explores how technological changes and the dominance of a single private shipping company reshaped the town s identity and redefined its relationship with the sea

Shipping Lords and Coolie Stokers Ravi Ahuja,2024-10-29 A TRAGIC SHIPPING ACCIDENT OPENS A WINDOW ON RACIALIZED LABOUR MANAGEMENT IN AN AGE OF IMPERIALISM When eighty seven passengers and crew died in the shipwreck of the Royal Mail ship Egypt in 1922 the accident gave rise to a racist international press campaign against the employment of Indian seafarers such as those who made up most of the ship s crew This was not unusual at a time when a fifth of the British mercantile marine s workforce was recruited from the subcontinent Ravi Ahuja explains the business logic behind a labour regime steeped in racist irrationalism and examines the scope for solidarity among a divided workforce in an age of imperialism an issue that is no less relevant in our own time

Tracks on the Ocean Sara Caputo,2024-10-22 An engaging look at ocean routes complicated beginnings and elusive impact Sara Caputo's Tracks on the Ocean is a sweeping history of how we have understood routes of travel over the ocean and how we came to represent that movement as a cartographical line Focusing on the representation of sea journeys in the Western world from the early sixteenth century to the present Caputo deftly argues that the depiction of these lines is inextricable from European imperialism the rise of modernity and attempts at mastery over nature Caputo recounts the history of ocean tracks through an array of lively stories and characters from the expeditions of Captain James Cook in the eighteenth century to tracks depicted in Moby Dick and popular culture of the nineteenth century to the use of navigational techniques by the British navy She discusses how tracks evolved from tools of surveying into tools of surveillance and eventually into paths of environmental calamity The impulse to record tracks on the ocean is Caputo argues reflective of an ongoing desire for order schematization and personal visibility as well as occupation and permanent ownership in this case over something that is unoccupiable and impossible to truly possess Both beautifully written and deeply researched Tracks on the Ocean shares how the lines drawn on maps tell the audacious and often tragic and violent stories of ocean voyages

Ships and Memories Eric W. Sager, 1993 Eric Sager draws on interviews with master mariners engineers able seamen cooks stewards and many others who worked aboard steamships from 1920 to 1950 Among those interviewed is Molly Kool of Alma New Brunswick the first woman in Canada to earn a master's certificate Charley Carr of Victoria pastry chef and cook in ocean liners Captain George King of West Vancouver who remembers the day in 1925 when the Canadian Navigator blew up in Barbados and Niels Jannasch founder of the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic in Halifax In language charged with passion nostalgia and at times bitterness they recall the dangers of seafaring the loneliness aboard ship and the difficulty of supporting families ashore but they also remember with earthy humour the rowdy adventures in port
