Ships Medicine Chest First Aid:

The Ship's Medicine Chest and First Aid at Sea United States. Public Health Service,1947 International Medical Guide for Ships World Health Organization,2007 This publication shows designated first aid providers how to diagnose treat and prevent the health problems of seafarers on board ship This edition contains fully updated recommendations aimed to promote and protect the health of seafarers and is consistent with the latest revisions of both the WHO Model List of Essential Medicines and the International Health Regulations Publisher s description The Ship's Medicine Chest and Medical Aid at Sea U. S. Public Health Service,2001 The Ships Medicine Chest and Medical Aid at Sea is published primarily for the information and guidance of the Master and other licensed and certified crew members who may be directly or indirectly responsible for the administration of medical treatment at sea on vessels which do not carry a physician This book attempts to describe in nontechnical language the diseases and medical emergencies most commonly encountered while at sea and the first aid and follow up care required until the patient can be evaluated and treated by a physician It must be emphasized that the care and treatment of a patient at sea is much different than while ashore The medications and treatments suggested in this book are based on the fact that a physician is not physically available and that such treatment must be carried out by intelligent seamen and ships officers who have received training in the delivery of health care It is used on fishing vessels by outdoorsmen explorers and backwoodsmen as a guide when professional medical care is not available International Medical Guide for Ships World Health Organization,1988 The Ship's Medicine Chest and First Aid at Sea United States. Public Health Service,1955 Manual on Ship Sanitation and First-aid for Merchant Seamen Robert Watson Hart,1923 Handbook of Nautical Medicine W.H.G. Goethe,E.N. Watson,D.T. Jones,2012-12-06 International cooperation on the health of seafarers began many years ago As early as 1921 an international convention regarding this matter was presented to govern ments of maritime countries for ratification The First World Health Assembly in 1948 recommended that WHO should establish with the International Labour Of fice a Joint Committee on the hygiene of seafarers The first session of this Com mittee held in 1949 defined the problems affecting the health of seamen and made a number of recommendations In the opinion of this Joint Committee the health of seamen called for interna tional attention for a nu mb er of reasons By the nature of his work the seafarer is obliged to travel from country to country and is exposed to great variations of cli mate and also to any disease that may be prevalent in the port of call He may there fore become a carrier of disease so that the protection of his health is of importance not only to himself and the other members of the crew but also to the populations of other countries he visits Yet on account ofthe nature ofhis employment it is diffi cult to provide the seafarer with the same standard of health care that is gene rally available to other sections of the population Correspondence Courses of the U.S. Maritime Service Insititue for All Personnel of the U.S. Maritime Service and U.S. Merchant Marine United States.
