Shoah And The War:

Holocaust Literature and Representation Phyllis Lassner, Judith Tydor Baumel-Schwartz, 2023-02-09 Each scholar working in the field of Holocaust literature and representation has a story to tell Not only the scholarly story of the work they do but their personal story their journey to becoming a specialist in Holocaust studies What academic political cultural and personal experiences led them to choose Holocaust representation as their subject of research and teaching What challenges did they face on their journey What approaches genres media or other forms of Holocaust representation did they choose and why How and where did they find a scholarly home in which to share their work productively Have political social and cultural conditions today affected how they think about their work on Holocaust representation How do they imagine their work moving forward including new challenges responses and audiences These are but a few of the questions that the authors in this volume address showing how a scholar's field of research and resulting writings are not arbitrary and are often informed by their personal history and professional experiences

Postnational Memory, Peace and War Nigel Young, 2019-11-26 This book examines the phenomenon of modern memory as a reaction to total war an aspiration to truth seeking provoked by the independent forces of modern war and collective violence which is transnational or postnational in character Using examples from prose and poetry film and theatre painting and photography and music and the popular arts the author traces a narrative path through the events of the twentieth century defining the tradition of modern memory in terms of its essentially anti-militaristic anti-war character as expressed in the manner in which it represents recalled violence and atrocity Through a series of thematic discussions of two world wars the Shoah urbicide and nuclear weapons

Postnational Memory explores the formation of transnational memory drawing on examples from industrialized societies with a focus on memory of real events and their reproduction in literature and the arts often including personal recollections that link the self to the represented past As such by asking how the concept of modern memory is constructed through the victims of war and genocide the book constitutes an alternative to national memories and hegemonic militarist or ethnocentric histories Surveying the emergence of new transnational forms of remembering the past it will appeal to students and scholars of sociology memory studies and peace studies as well as those working in disciplines such as modern and international history cultural studies and military studies

In the Shadows of the Holocaust and Communism Alena Heitlinger, 2011-12-31 When traumatic historical events and transformations coincide with one's entry into young adulthood the personal and historical significance of life course transitions interact and intensify In this volume Alena Heitlinger examines identity formation among a generation of Czech and Slovak Jews who grew up under communism coming of age during the de-Stalinization period of 1962-1968 Heitlinger's main focus is on the differences and similarities within and between generations and on the changing historical and political circumstances of state socialism communism that have shaped an individual's consciousness and identity as a Jew assimilated Czech Slovak Czechoslovak and where relevant as an migrant or an immigrant The book addresses a larger set of questions about the formation of Jewish identity in the midst of political upheavals secularization assimilation and modernity Who is a Jew How is Jewish identity defined How does Jewish identity change based on different historical contexts How is Jewish identity transmitted from one generation to the next What do the Czech and Slovak cases tell us about similar experiences in other former communist countries or in established liberal democracies Heitlinger explores the official and unofficial transmission of Holocaust remembering and non remembering the role of Jewish youth groups attitudes toward Israel and Zionism and the impact of the collapse of communism This volume is rich in both statistical and archival data and in its analysis of historical institutional and social factors Heitlinger's wide ranging approach shows how history generational and individual biography intertwine in the formation of ethnic identity and its ambiguities

After the Holocaust David Cesarani, Eric J. Shoah: a Review of Holocaust Studies and Commemorations, 1978

Hitler's Shadow War Donald M. McKale, 2006-03-17 In Hitler's Shadow War World War II scholar Donald M. McKale contends that the persecution and murder of the Jews Slavs and other groups was Hitler's primary effort during the war not the conquest of Europe According to McKale Hitler and the Nazi leadership used the military campaigns of the war as a cover for a genocidal program that centered on the Final Solution Hitler continued to commit extensive manpower and materials to this shadow war even when Germany was losing the battles of the war's closing years

Sexual Violence Against Jewish Women During the Holocaust Sonja Maria Hedgepeth, Rochelle G. Saidel, 2010 The first book in English to

Women's Holocaust Writing S. Lillian Kremer, 1999-01-01 Women's Holocaust Writing the first book of literary criticism devoted to American Holocaust writing by and about women extends Holocaust and literary studies by examining women's artistic representations of female Holocaust experiences Beyond racial persecution women suffered gender related oppression and coped with the concentration camp universe in ways consistent with their prewar gender socialization Through close insightful reading of fiction S Lillian Kremer explores Holocaust representations in works distinguished by the power of their literary expression and attention to women's diverse experiences

Searching for Justice After the Holocaust Michael J. Bazyler, Kathryn Lee Boyd, Kristen Nelson (Lawyer), Rajika Shah, 2019 The Nazis and their state sponsored cohorts stole mercilessly from the Jews of Europe In the aftermath of the Holocaust returning survivors had to navigate a frequently unclear path to recover their property from governments and neighbors who had failed to protect them and who often had been complicit in their persecution This book is about the less publicized area of post Holocaust restitution involving immovable real property confiscated from European Jews and others during World War II

The Holocaust Is Over; We Must Rise From Its Ashes Avraham Burg, 2008-10-28 Thought provoking compelling and original this book is bound to spark a heated debate around the world

Jacket Like Salt for Bread. The Jews of Bosnia and Herzegovina Francine Friedman, 2021-11-22 This book is the only comprehensive treatment in any language of a rather exotic Balkan Jewish community It places the Jewish community of Bosnia and Herzegovina into the context of the Jewish world but also of the world within which it existed for around five hundred years under various empires and regimes The Bosnian Jews might have remained a mostly unknown community to the rest of the world had it not played a unique role within the Bosnian Wars of the early 1990s providing humanitarian aid to its neighbor Serbs Croats and Muslims Watch Francine Friedman's presentation on The Jews of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Jiří Holý, Agata Firlej, Hana Nichtburgerová, 2021-06-21 The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018 An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades The publication is the result of long term

Final Solution David Cesarani, 2016-11-08 The first year 1933 Judenpolitik 1934 1938 Pogrom 1938 1939 War 1939 1941 Barbarossa 1941 Final solution 1942 Total war 1943 The last phase 1944 1945 Murder in Our Midst Omer Bartov, 1996 He shows how the way we understand ourselves reflects the ambivalent effects of the Holocaust on our perceptions of war and violence history and memory progress and barbarism Ethnicity, Belonging and Biography Gabriele Rosenthal, Artur Bogner, 2009 The subjects of ethnicity and collective belonging have enjoyed high priority on the agenda for social science research over the last 20 years This volume focuses on research on the perspectives and biographical experiences of concrete historical actors within the contexts of migration cultural diversity and social conflicts

Holocaust Mothers and Daughters Federica K. Clementi, 2013-12-03 In this brave and original work Federica Clementi focuses on the mother daughter bond as depicted in six works by women who experienced the Holocaust sometimes with their mothers sometimes not The daughters memoirs which record the all too human qualities of those who were persecuted and murdered by the Nazis show that the Holocaust cannot be used to neatly segregate lives into the categories of before and after Clementi's discussions of differences in social status along with the persistence of antisemitism and patriarchal structures support this point strongly demonstrating the tenacity of trauma individual familial and collective among Jews in twentieth century Europe

The Church of England and the Holocaust Tom Lawson, 2006 Explores the Church of England's understanding of the Third Reich and its impact on the reactions to and memory of the Holocaust in Britain Argues that the Anglican Church did not engage with the Third Reich through the prism of the persecution of the Jews English Christians commonly perceived Nazism as significant through its anti Christianity as an attack on Christian culture and not through its antisemitism In the 1930s the Church was opposed to war but when Nazi antisemitism became much more pronounced after 1938 the Church incorporated this persecution into its image of Nazism as anti Christian While there was some concern for Jewish victims especially on the part of George Bell and William Temple particular concern was expressed for the German Christian victims of totalitarianism This led the Anglican Church after the war to favor reconstruction of West Germany as a buffer against communism and anti Christianity The Church objected to war crimes trials as being opposed to Christian forgiveness vs the Jewish value of vengeance a view which sought to reduce the significance of Nazi antisemitism and the Holocaust

A Tale of Two Narratives Grace Wermtenbol, 2021-05-27 The Holocaust and the Nakba are foundational traumas in Israeli Jewish and Palestinian societies and form key parts of each respective collective identity This book offers a parallel analysis of the transmission of these foundational pasts in Israeli Jewish and Palestinian societies by exploring how the Holocaust and the Nakba have been narrated since the signing of the 1993 Oslo Accords The work exposes the existence and perpetuation of ethnocentric victimhood narratives that serve as the theoretical foundations for an ensuing minimization or even denial of the other's past Three established realms of societal memory transmission provide the analytical framework for this study official state education commemorative acts and mass mediation Through this analysis the work demonstrates the interrelated nature of the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the contextualization of the primary historical events while also highlighting the universal malleability of mnemonic practices Interdisciplinary Handbook of Trauma and Culture Yochai Ataria, David Gurevitz, Haviva Pedaya, Yuval Neria, 2016-09-15 This lofty volume analyzes a circular cultural relationship not only how trauma is reflected in cultural processes and products but also how trauma itself acts as a critical shaper of literature the visual and performing arts architecture and religion and mythmaking The political power of trauma is seen through US Israeli and Japanese art forms as they reflect varied roles of perpetrator victim and witness Traumatic complexities are traced from spirituality to movement philosophy to trauma theory And essays on authors such as Kafka Plath and Cormac McCarthy examine how narrative can blur the boundaries of personal and collective experience Among the topics covered Television a traumatic culture From Hiroshima to Fukushima comics and animation as subversive agents of memory in Japan The death of the witness in the era of testimony Primo Levi and Georges Perec Sigmund Freud s Moses and Monotheism and the possibility of writing a traumatic history of religion Placing collective trauma within its social context the case of the 9 11 attacks Killing the killer rampage and gun rights as a syndrome This volume appeals to multiple readerships including researchers and clinicians sociologists anthropologists historians and media researchers
