Nature Spirituality Mark G. Boyer, 2013-09-17 The presence of the Divine is everywhere That is both a comfort and a challenge We are consoled to know that God is with us but being human we need a sign something to touch see hear taste smell We need something of the ordinary to name the non touchable invisible unable to be heard tasteless odorless God's presence with us So we employ metaphors figures of speech which literally denote one kind of object in place of another to suggest a likeness or analogy In this book the metaphors used for God come out of the Bible they are the four elements of nature for the Greeks wind water earth and fire Wind is a metaphor for God's Spirit Water refers to God as the source of life Earth from which we are created bears God's fingerprints and footprints And fire reminds us of the God who purifies and draws all creation to himself This nature spirituality book consists of four chapters wind water earth fire each of which contains twenty four part exercises of prayer a few verses from Scripture a reflection a journal exercise and a concluding prayer

Shook Foil Kwame Senu Neville Dawes, 1997 When the guitars tickle a bedrock of drum and bass when the girl a shock out and a steady hand curve round her sweat smooth waist when the smell of Charlie mingles with the chemicals of her hair and the groove is of the sweetest friction how is a young man to keep his way pure Kwame Dawes's poetry rises to new heights in these psalms of confession and celebrations of reggae's power to prophesy to seek after righteousness and seduce the body and mind Here is poetry walking the bassline which darts sweetly around the rigid lick of the rhythm guitar yet expresses all the sadness and alienation at the heart of reggae This for Dawes is the earth which never tells me my true home and where behind every chekeh of the guitar there is the ancestral memory of the whip's crack Shook Foil dramatises the conflict between the purity of essences and the taints of the actual not least in the poems which focus on Bob Marley's life Here is the rhygin word weaving prophet and the philanderer with the desperate hunger for yard pumpum the revealer of truths and the buffalo soldier who has married yard with show biz affluence Above all there is the intense sadness of Marley's death for how can one live without the duppy conqueror's defiant wail in an island gone dark for the passing of his song But for Shook Foil there is always the gossamer's hope that the dead will rise from dub ruins and patch a new quilt of sound for the feet to prance on And when the high hat shimmering and the bass drum thumping what else to do
