Blackwell, 2020-11-23 Although fantasy and supernatural literature have long and celebrated histories many critics contend that the fantastic and the supernatural have no place in the logical rational world of the detective story This book is the first extensive study of the fantastic in detective fiction and it explores the highly debated question of whether detective fiction and the fantastic can comfortably coexist The locked room mystery which often uses the fantastic as a red herring to eventually be debunked by reason and logic has long been among the most popular subgenres of detective fiction This book also explores stories featuring almost supernaturally gifted detectives stories where the supernatural is truly encountered and stories with ambiguous endings Close to 500 detective stories from 1841 to 2000 in which the fantastic or supernatural plays a central role are discussed and analyzed Although not all the stories are judged to be successful as detective tales in the great majority the fantastic enlivens the tale and deepens the mystery without weakening the detective elements The Contemporary American Crime Novel Andrew Pepper, 2000 As America's ethnic and racial character undergoes explosive transformation its crime fictions trace contest and celebrate the changes The Contemporary American Crime Novel is an exciting book that offers a comprehensive review of recent developments in American crime fiction exploring America's dynamic fragmented multicultural landscape and how it has transformed the codes and conventions of the crime novel Featured authors include James Ellroy James Lee Burke Sara Paretsky Barbara Wilson Chester Himes Walter Mosley Faye Kellerman Alex Abella and Chang Rae Lee Contemporary

European Crime Fiction Monica Dall'Asta, Jacques Migozzi, Federico Pagello, Andrew Pepper, 2023-04-20 This book represents the first extended consideration of contemporary crime fiction as a European phenomenon Understanding crime fiction in its broadest sense as a transmedia practice and offering unique insights into this practice in specific European countries and as a genuinely transcontinental endeavour this book argues that the distinctiveness of the form can be found in its related historical and political inquiries It asks how the genre's excavation of Europe's history of violence and protest in the twentieth century is informed by contemporary political questions It also considers how the genre's progressive reimagining of new identities forged at the crossroads of ethnicity gender and sexuality is offset by its bleaker assessment of the corrosive effects of entrenched social inequalities political corruption and state violence The result is a rich vibrant collection that shows how crime fiction can help us better understand the complex relationship between Europe's past present and future Seven chapters are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Hamburg Noir Jan Karsten, 2025-08-05 The historic northern port city of Hamburg now joins Berlin as the Akashic Noir Series continues its foray across the German landscape From the introduction by Jan Karsten The many facets of Hamburg's ambivalent identity forged over centuries are on full display in the stories collected in this anthology Here we have assembled some of the city's finest and best known writers luminaries in the world of crime fiction and German literature featuring multiple recipients of the German Crime Fiction Award and the Hubert Fichte Prize among others Relative newcomers rub shoulders with established authors some of whose work now spans decades The fourteen stories in this collection all look to where good crime fiction has always looked toward lesser known settings and living situations repeatedly drawing our attention to lives overlooked the lost souls and the powerless who have slipped through the cracks of commerce The perspectives on the metropolis are as diverse as the writers' backgrounds resulting in a varied depiction of Hamburg as a colorful hodgepodge of people inhabiting a lively city of millions Between water and spirits between power and oblivion between dream and reality BRAND NEW STORIES BY Nora Luttmer Till Raether Matthias Wittekindt Ingvar Ambjörnsen Bela B Felsenheimer Jasmin Ramadan Frank G hre Timo Blunck Katrin Seddig Tina Uebel Zo Beck Brigitte Helbling Kai Hensel and Robert Brack Translated by Noah Harley Geoffrey C Howes and Paul David Young
