Short History Of Judaism Three Meals Three Epochs:

A Short History of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1992 One of the world's experts on classical Jewish history and literature offers an authoritative interpretation of the three major periods of Jewish history from the time of the Bible up to the present. What emerges is a captivating account of the life-forming nature of a dynamic religion in vastly differing historical contexts. Glossary, maps, illustrations, photographs. Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01 The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history, literature, and religion, and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves. Under this premise, Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place. How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said. Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions, Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult, often unasked or neglected questions about the nature, background, and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism, and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism. This publication has also been published in paperback. Please click here for details. Biblical Covenantalism, Volume 3 Douglas W. Kennard, 2015-12-04 VOLUME ONE Biblical Covenantalism in Torah, Judaism, Covenant, Nomism, and Atonement. VOLUME TWO Biblical Covenantalism in Prophets, Psalms, Early Judaism, and Gospels. Judaism, Covenant, Nomism, and Kingdom Hope. VOLUME THREE Biblical Covenantalism in New Testament Epistles, Engagement of the New Perspective, and New Covenant Atonement. Biblical covenantalism is the backbone of the Old Testament and the root of salvation and ethics. This book offers a nuanced exploration of biblical theology with an emphasis on how biblical covenants set a complex trajectory for Israel's covenant relationships, salvation, ethics, and eschatology. Suzerainty treaty form positions the Mosaic covenant in a Deuteronomistic framework that elects Israel and rewards them with blessings based upon obedience to the stipulations of the covenant within which God has embraced them. Such a framework fits within covenant nomism (law), especially considering the majority of the stipulations' similarity to ancient Near Eastern law codes. This perspective deepens awareness of biblical trajectory in interaction with early Jewish and Christian sources. Jewish metaphors inform Old Testament rabbinic and Messianic atonement. This view positions itself between the New Perspective and traditional Reformation views, as well as Covenant theology and Dispensationalism, even as it distances itself from American Covenantalism, Theonomy, Natural law, and the prayer of Jabez. The biblical and second temple Jewish material provides a nuanced new perspective of Judaism. From this same covenantal root, the Biblical covenants ground an eschatological hope for the nation of Israel. The Structure of Religion William J. Leffler, Paul H. Jones, 2005-12-14 The Structure of Religion Judaism and Christianity presents a unique approach to understand each religion within its own context by addressing the differences in the ways in which each manifests itself in the world. Because it is frequently the differences in attitudes and behaviors, and not just beliefs, that constitute the major stumbling blocks to improved Jewish Christian relations today this book seeks to enhance respect for and appreciation of the other by utilizing a structural approach to both religions

The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10 The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications Here Neuser has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre Neuser then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah's and the Talmuds programs for the social order of Israel the doctrines of economics politics and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively Then come the two foci of discourse Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester England and Mayer Gruber of Ben Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California Berkeley has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis

Lathrop, This sequel to Gordon Lathrop's highly successful Holy Things is an exercise in liturgical theology viewing the activities of worship as a means of defining and discussing the concept church It centers on community and assembly to discuss the sacraments It focuses on ecumenism and inculturation as central test cases for a liturgically derived idea of church In hopes of invigorating the local church Lathrop explores the meaning of the term church the relationship of the local liturgical assembly and other Christian assemblies catholicity the personal and communal character of liturgical assembly the unity of the churches the critical principles of liturgy and culture openness to what is radically other and liturgical evangelization Lathrop's work grounds a notion of church that is personal yet communal universal but not triumphalistic

Jerusalem Crucified, Jerusalem Risen Mark S. Kinzer,2018-10-30 The good news euangelion of the crucified and risen Messiah was proclaimed first to Jews in Jerusalem and then to Jews throughout the land of Israel In Jerusalem Crucified Jerusalem Risen Mark Kinzer argues that this initial audience and geographical setting of the euangelion is integral to the eschatological content of the message itself While the good news is universal in concern and cosmic in scope it never loses its particular connection to the Jewish people the city of Jerusalem and the land of Israel The crucified Messiah participates in the future exilic suffering of his people and by his resurrection offers a pledge of Jerusalem s coming redemption Basing his argument on a reading of the Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel of Luke Kinzer proposes that the biblical message requires its interpreters to reflect theologically on the events of post biblical history In this context he considers the early emergence of Rabbinic Judaism and the much later phenomenon of Zionism offering a theological perspective on these historical developments that is biblically rooted attentive to both Jewish and Christian tradition and minimalist in the theological constraints it imposes on the just resolution of political conflict in the Middle East Hope and Otherness: Christian

Eschatology and Interreligious Hospitality Jakob W. Wirén,2017-11-01 In Hope and Otherness Jakob Wirén analyses the place and role of the religious Other in contemporary eschatology In connection with this theme he examines and compares different levels of inclusion and exclusion in Christian Muslim and Jewish eschatologies He argues that a distinction should be made in approaches to this issue between soteriological openness and eschatological openness By going beyond Christian theology and also looking to Muslim and Jewish sources and by combining the question of the religious Other with eschatology Wirén explores ways of articulating Christian eschatology in light of religious otherness and provides a new and vital slant to the threefold paradigm of exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism that has been prevalent in the theology of religions Jakob Wirén s study pushes forward the frontiers of three disciplines all at the same time theology of religions comparative religions and eschatology This is a challenging and important book Gavin D Costa University of Bristol Professor of Catholic Theology 2017 This book explores of the status of religious others in Christian eschatology and of eschatology itself as a privileged place for reflecting on religious otherness Wirén mines not only Christian but also Jewish and Muslim sources to develop an inclusive eschatology Hope and Otherness thus represents an important contribution to both theology of religions and comparative theology Catherine Cornille Boston College Professor of Comparative Theology 2017

Searching Her Own Mystery Mark S. Kinzer,2015-03-30 Vatican II s Declaration on the Relation of the Church to Non Christian Religions Nostra Aetate transformed the Catholic view of the Jewish people and the Jewish religious tradition Asserting that the Church discovers her link to the stock of Abraham when searching her own mystery Nostra Aetate intimated that the mystery of Israel is inseparable from the mystery of the Church As interlocking mysteries each community requires the other in order to understand itself In Searching Her Own Mystery noted Messianic Jewish theologian Mark S Kinzer argues that the Church has yet to explore adequately the implications of Nostra Aetate for Christian self understanding The new Catholic teaching concerning Israel should produce fresh perspectives on the entire range of Christian theology including Christology ecclesiology and the theology of the sacraments To this end Kinzer proposes an Israel ecclesiology rooted in Israel Christology in which a restored ecclesia ex circumcissione the church from the circumcision assumes a crucial role as a sacramental sign of the Church's bond with the Jewish people and genealogical Israel's irrevocable election
