installment Her storytelling skills are superior her characters are so vivaciously sketched they jump off the page This is the funniest series ever Laugh out loud humor mixed with danger and intrigue with a splash of loving but dysfunctional family thrown in for a great read and a good time a fun series not to be missed Love Franki Amato and her craziness Great series I laughed over and over I LOVE this series Ms Andrighetti has mastered the difficult task of combining priceless comedy with chilling intrigue This is a fun series and I love Franki s grandma Voodoo witches the family and New Orleans add twists turns and laugh out loud funny Andrighetti is clearly a talented author She has me wondering if she s also a comedian I love Franki who seems to not be able to keep out of trouble Her stripper landlady Glenda is a hoot The books in this series are hilarious and a joy to read The main character is fantastic and the secondary characters are perfect in bringing out Franki s talents You never know what to expect but you ll love the crooked pathways that get you there Any writer who can make you laugh like this deserves to be read

Conjure in African American Society Jeffrey E. Anderson, 2008-08 From black sorcerers client based practices in the antebellum South to the postmodern revival of hoodoo and its tandem spiritual supply stores the supernatural has long been a key component of the African American experience What began as a mixture of African European and Native American influences within slave communities finds expression today in a multimillion dollar business In Conjure in African American Society Jeffrey E Anderson unfolds a fascinating story as he traces the origins and evolution of conjuring practices across the centuries Though some may see the study of conjure as a perpetuation of old stereotypes that depict blacks as bound to superstition the truth Anderson reveals is far more complex Drawing on folklore fiction and nonfiction music art and interviews he explores various portrayals of the conjurer backward buffoon rebel against authority and symbol of racial pride He also examines the actual work performed by conjurers including the use of pharmacologically active herbs to treat illness psychology to ease mental ailments fear to bring about the death of enemies and acquittals at trials and advice to encourage clients to succeed on their own By critically examining the many influences that have shaped conjure over time Anderson effectively redefines magic as a cultural power one that has profoundly touched the arts black Christianity and American society overall

Riding with Death Jana Evans Braziel, 2017-06-22 On the southern end of the Grand Rue a major thoroughfare that runs through the center of Port au Prince waits the Haitian capital s automobile repair district This veritable junkyard of steel and rubber recycled parts old tires and scrap metal might seem an unlikely foundry for art Yet on the street s opposite end thrives the Grand Rue Galerie a working studio of assembled art and sculptures wrought from the refuse Established by artists Andr Eug ne and Jean H rard Celeur in the late 1990s the Grand Rue s urban environmental aesthetics defined by motifs of machinic urbanism Vodou bricolage the postprimitivist altermodern and performative politics radically challenge ideas about consumption waste and environmental hazards as well as consider innovative solutions to these problems in the midst of poverty insufficient social welfare lack of access to arts education and basic needs In Riding with Death Jana Evans Braziel explores the urban environmental aesthetics of the Grand Rue sculptors and the beautifully constructed sculptures they have designed from salvaged automobile parts rubber tires carved wood and other recycled materials Through first person accounts and fieldwork Braziel constructs an urban ecological framework for understanding these sculptures amid environmental degradation and grinding poverty Above all Braziel presents Haitian artists who live on the most challenged Caribbean island yet who thrive as creators reinventing refuse as art and resisting the abjection of their circumstances
