Matters of Life and Death Tobias Wolff.1983 A Matter of Life and Death Rosalind Bradley, 2016-08-18 This book brings together contributors from different backgrounds including a Holocaust survivor and a death row inmate to explore perspectives on death Each contributor offers commentary on a written or visual work that best expresses death to them A meaningful volume for the bereaved and those working in bereavement or spirituality A Dictionary of Anglo-American Proverbs & Proverbial Phrases, Found in Literary Sources of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries George B. Bryan, Wolfgang Mieder, 2005 A Dictionary of Anglo American Proverbs Proverbial Phrases Found in Literary Sources of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries is a unique collection of proverbial language found in literary contexts It includes proverbial materials from a multitude of plays auto biographies of well known actors like Britain's Laurence Olivier songs by William S Gilbert or Lorenz Hart and American crime stories by Leslie Charteris Other authors represented in the dictionary are Horatio Alger Margery Allingham Samuel Beckett Lewis Carroll Raymond Chandler Benjamin Disraeli Edward Eggleston Hamlin Garland Graham Greene Thomas C Haliburton Bret Harte Aldous Huxley Sinclair Lewis Jack London George Orwell Eden Phillpotts John B Priestley Carl Sandburg Harriet Beecher Stowe Jesse Stuart Oscar Wilde and more Many lesser known dramatists songwriters and novelists are included as well making the contextualized texts to a considerable degree representative of the proverbial language of the past two centuries While the collection contains a proverbial treasure trove for paremiographers and paremiologists alike it also presents general readers interested in folkloric linguistic cultural and historical phenomena with an accessible and enjoyable selection of proverbs and proverbial phrases Playing the Hand We Are Dealt Michael Jackson, 2024-10-01 The relationship between literature and life can be construed as a counterpoint of fate and freewill Rather than equating fate to the hand we are dealt which is reducible to the social or familial environments into which we are born this book explores the idea of fate through the books that shape our lives and under whose influence we write Writing in this sense is seen as beyond its utility of making meaning It is a way of recovering agency in the face of overwhelming experiences In juxtaposing factuality and fiction the author makes a case for a radically empirical approach to A Matter of Life and Death Ian Christie, 2021-10-21 Produced in the aftermath of the Second World human experience War Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's A Matter of Life and Death 1946 stars David Niven as an RAF pilot poised between life and death his love for the American radio operator June Kim Hunter threatened by medical political and ultimately celestial forces The film is a magical profound fantasy and a moving evocation of English history and the wartime experience with virtuoso Technicolor special effects In the United States it was released under the title Stairway to Heaven referencing one of its most famous images a moving stairway between earth and the afterlife Ian Christie's study of the film shows how its creators drew upon many sources and traditions to create a unique form of modern masque treating contemporary issues with witty allegory and enormous visual imagination He stresses the teamwork of Powell and

Pressburger s gifted collaborators among them Director of Photography Jack Cardiff production designer Alfred Junge and costume designer Hein Heckroth and explores the history of both British and international responses to the film Christie argues that the film deserves to be thought of as one of the greatest achievements of British cinema but of all cinema

The Other Shore Michael Jackson, 2013 In this book ethnographer and poet Michael Jackson addresses the interplay between modes of writing modes of understanding and modes of being in the world Drawing on literary anthropological and autobiographical sources he explores writing as a technics akin to ritual oral storytelling magic and meditation that enables us to reach beyond the limits of everyday life and forge virtual relationships and imagined communities Although Maurice Blanchot wrote of the impossibility of writing the passion and paradox of literature lies in its attempt to achieve the impossible a leap of faith that calls to mind the mystic's dark night of the soul unrequited love nostalgic or utopian longing and the ethnographer's attempt to know the world from the standpoint of others to put himself or herself in their place Every writer whether of ethnography poetry or fiction imagines that his or her own experiences echo the experiences of others and that despite the need for isolation and silence his or her work consummates a relationship with them Death Rosemary Altea, 2008-04-17 Spiritual medium and healer Rosemary Altea touched the lives of millions with her New York Times bestseller The Eagle and the Rose In this classic work Altea described how she discovered her gift and recounted the miraculous experiences she had in her early years of connecting the living with the dead In A Matter of Life and Death she shares inspiring new stories of working with her spirit guide Grey Eagle to help sick and troubled people heal to help people recognize their true path in life or to help people find peace in reuniting with departed loved ones Born and raised in England from the time she was a young girl Rosemary Altea heard voices and had visions of people who had died But feeling threatened by her mother the young Rosemary kept silent about the strange menacing faces she saw in the dark In the 1970s now in her mid thirties with a ten year old daughter of her own Rosemary was abandoned by her husband Nearing rock bottom emotionally she began to nurture her spiritual gifts She claims it was her spirit guide Grey Eagle who advised her to publish her first book The Eagle and the Rose Even as the world has come to accept even revere people who have the ability to communicate with the dead with various mediums gracing the bestseller list and with such television shows as The Medium and Ghost Whisperer high in the ratings in recent years Rosemary Altea has had to struggle to realize the transformational power of her work From defending her integrity as a medium in a vicious lawsuit to coping with the loss of a friend who was very close to her heart now Altea brings us A Matter of Life and Death detailing a new chapter in her rich personal history as she recounts story after story of remarkable encounters with the spirit world encounters that will amaze and inspire Altea s millions of fans The Politics of Storytelling Michael Jackson, 2002 Hannah Arendt argued that the political is best understood as a power relation between private and public realms and that storytelling is a vital bridge between these realms a site where individualised passions and shared views are contested and recombined In his new book

Michael Jackson explores and expands Arendt's ideas through a cross cultural analysis of storytelling that includes Kuranko stories from Sierra Leone Aboriginal stories of the stolen generation stories recounted before the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and stories of refugees renegades and war veterans Focusing on the violent and volatile conditions under which stories are and are not told and exploring the various ways in which narrative reworkings of reality enable people to symbolically alter subject object relations Jackson shows how storytelling may restore to the intersubjective fields of self and other self and state self and cosmos the conditions of viable sociality. The book concludes in a reflexive vein Shouting Down the Silence David C exploring the interface between public discourse and private experience Dougherty, 2010-10-01 Shouting Down the Silence presents the first complete biography of Stanley Elkin a preeminent novelist who consistently won high marks from critics but whose complexities of style seemed destined to elude the popular acclaim he hoped to attain From the publication of his second novel A Bad Man in 1967 to his death in 1995 Elkin was tormented by the desire for both material and artistic success Elkin's novels were taught in colleges and universities his fiction received high praise from critics and reviewers two of his novels won National Book Critics Circle Awards and his short stories were widely anthologized and yet he was unable to achieve renown beyond the avant garde or to escape the stigma of being an academic writer He wanted to be Faulkner but he had trouble being Elkin Drawing on personal interviews and an intimate knowledge of Elkins s life and works David C Dougherty captures Elkin s early life as the son of a charismatic intimidating and remarkably successful Jewish immigrant from Russia as well as his later career at Washington University in St Louis A frequent participant at the annual Bread Loaf Writers conference he was the friend and sometime antagonist of other important writers particularly Saul Bellow William Gass Howard Nemerov and Robert Coover Despite failed attempts to bridge the gap from his academic post to wide popular success Elkin continued to write essays stories and novels that garnered unerring praise His was a classic dilemma of an intellectual aesthete loath to make use of the common devices of popular appeal The book details the ambition the success the friction and the foibles of a writer who won fame but not the fame he wanted Things As They Are Michael Jackson, 1996-08-22 The real beauty of this book is that the thinking does not stop deep in the thickets of philosophic references Instead true to the spirit of phenomoenology we are provided with provocative accounts of how such thinking flows in contemporary anthropological practice XCP Cross Cultural Poetics In this timely collection thirteen contemporary ethnographers demonstrate the importance of phenomenological and existential ideas for anthropology In emphasizing the link between the empirical and the experiential these ethnographers also explore the relationship between phenomenology and other theories of the lifeworld such as existentialism radical empiricism and critical theory Panic Brooke Warner, Leonard Schmidt, 2002-08-14 Panic is not a single state with only one set of feelings and predictable emotions The essays and articles in this book span various disciplines psychology medicine literature and history tied together by the common thread of panic including how it is manifested in culture tradition and experience and its

differing treatments Included are original as well as previously published writings by Peter A Levine Paul Pitchford and Kim A Companion to the Anthropology of Death Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 2018-04-03 A thought provoking Newman examination of death dying and the afterlife Prominent scholars present their most recent work about mortuary rituals grief and mourning genocide cyclical processes of life and death biomedical developments and the materiality of human corpses in this unique and illuminating book Interrogating our most common practices surrounding death the authors ask such questions as How does the state wrest away control over the dead from bereaved relatives Why do many mourners refuse to cut their emotional ties to the dead and nurture lasting bonds Is death a final condition or can human remains acquire agency The book is a refreshing reassessment of these issues and practices a source of theoretical inspiration in the study of death With contributions written by an international team of experts in their fields A Companion to the Anthropology of Death is presented in six parts and covers such subjects as Governing the Dead in Guatemala After Death Communications ADCs in North America Cryonic Suspension in the Secular Age Blood and Organ Donation in China The Fragility of Biomedicine and more A Companion to the Anthropology of Death is a comprehensive and accessible volume and an ideal resource for senior undergraduate and graduate students in courses such as Anthropology of Death Medical Anthropology Anthropology of Violence Anthropology of the Body and Political Anthropology Written by leading international scholars in their fields A comprehensive survey of the most recent empirical research in the anthropology of death A fundamental critique of the early 20th century founding fathers of the anthropology of death Cross cultural texts from tribal and industrial societies The collection is of interest to anyone concerned with the consequences of the state and massive violence on life and death
