Matthew The Churchbook Matthew 1328:

Matthew Craig L. Blomberg, 1992-05-21 THE NEW AMERICAN COMMENTARY is for the minister or Bible student who wants to understand and expound the Scriptures. Notable features include commentary based on THE NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION the NIV text printed in the body of the commentary sound scholarly methodology that reflects capable research in the original languages interpretation that emphasizes the theological unity of each book and of Scripture as a whole readable and applicable exposition Matthew, a Commentary: The Churchbook, Matthew 13-28 Frederick Dale Bruner, 1990 Neuerwerbungen Theologie und allgemeine Religionswissenschaft Universität Tübingen. Universitätsbibliothek. Theologische Abteilung, 1991 Matthew: The Churchbook, Matthew 13-28 Frederick Dale Bruner, 2004 Recognized as a masterly commentary when it first appeared Frederick Dale Bruner's study of Matthew is now available as a greatly revised and expanded two volume work the result of seven years of careful refinement enrichment and updating Through this commentary crafted especially for teachers pastors and Bible students Bruner aims to help God's people love what Matthew's Gospel says but Bruner's work is at once broadly historical and deeply theological It is historical in drawing extensively on great church teachers through the centuries and on the classical Christian creeds and confessions It is theological in that it unpacks the doctrines in each passage chapter and section of the Gospel Consciously attempting to bridge past and present Bruner asks both what Matthew's Gospel said to its first hearers and what it says to readers today As a result his commentary is profoundly relevant to contemporary congregations and to those who guide them Bruner's commentary is replete with lively verse by verse discussion of Matthew's text While each chapter expounds a specific topic or doctrine the book's format consists of a vivid original translation of the text followed by faithful exegesis and critical analysis a survey of historical commentary on the text and current applications of the text or theme under study In this revision Bruner continues to draw on the best in modern scholarship including recent work by W D Davies and Dale C Allison Jr by Ulrich Luz and by many others adding new voices to the reading of Matthew At the same time he cites the classic commentaries of Chrysostom Jerome Augustine Luther Calvin Bengel and the rest who like Bruner himself were not simply doctrinal teachers but also careful exegetes of Scripture Such breadth and depth of learning assure that Bruner's Matthew will remain as a reviewer for Interpretation wrote the most dog-eared commentary on the shelf but Volume 2 of Bruner's commentary is called The Churchbook because Bruner sees Matthew 13-28 as concerned primarily with the life of the church and discipleship Continuing his Volume 1 Christbook exposition Bruner shows here how the focus of Matthew shifts from Jesus teaching about who he is to teaching mainly about what his church is Bruner's Churchbook commentary divides the second half of Matthew according to its major ecclesiological themes the church's faith chapters 13-17 the church's love 18-20 the church's history 21-23 the church's hope 24-25 and the church's passion 26-28 Eminently readable rich in biblical insight and ecumenical in tone Bruner's two volume commentary on Matthew now stands among the best in the field

Matthew Henry,2016-05-02 This is another volume in the series of Bible Commentaries of Matthew Henry In this Volume the entire text of the Gospel of Matthew is commented with notes of each chapter This Commentary will help you better understand the God s word Churches theological seminaries and Bible schools will find an excellent aid in this biblical commentary on the Gospel of Matthew Commentary on Matthew Saint Hilary (Bishop of Poitiers),2012 When the writing of Latin biblical commentaries was still in its infancy a young bishop from Poitiers in Gaul penned a passage by passage exposition on the Gospel of Matthew It is the first of its kind to have survived almost completely intact Published now for the first time in English translation Hilary s commentary offers a close look at Latin theology and exegesis before the Nicene Creed was considered the sole standard of orthodoxy Likely the earliest of Hilary s writings this commentary has none of the polemic against the Arians that figured so prominently in most of his later works Nonetheless there exists in this text an oft stated concern with those who interpreted the Incarnation as grounds for construing Christ as only a man rather than professing Christ as God and man Other noteworthy features of the commentary include Hilary s interest in the relation between Law and Gospel and his articulation of a Pauline based view of justification by faith In his view the importance of the Law before the Gospel was indisputable and necessary For Jews it was considered the way of redemption With the advent of Christ it became an eschatological guide directing all future believers into the grace that comes by faith Hilary s emphasis on God s righteousness conferred on a helpless race represents a far more pronounced application of Paul s thought than in any previous Latin writer ABOUT THE TRANSLATOR D H Williams is professor of patristics and historical theology at Baylor University His publications include books and articles on early Christian thought and literature as well as studies that seek to integrate the ancient Christian legacy with contemporary theology He is the editor of The Church s Bible Commentary on Matthew Matthew ,2018-02-06 Select ancient Christian writings on the Gospel of Matthew The Church s Bible series brings the rich classical tradition of biblical interpretation to life illuminating Scripture as it was understood during the first millennium of Christian history Compiled translated and edited by leading scholars these volumes lead contemporary clergy Bible teachers and students of Scripture into the inexhaustible spiritual and theological world of the early church This volume on Matthew contains select freshly translated excerpts from patristic commentators including John Chrysostom Irenaeus of Lyons Origen Tertullian and Augustine Ranging chronologically from the second century to the seventh century these selections splendidly display a neglected part of the church s interpretive tradition on Matthew Matthew Through
