Christodoulakis, 2014-06-28 The Symposium aimed at analysing and solving the various problems of representation and analysis of decision making in economic systems starting from the level of the individual firm and ending up with the complexities of international policy coordination The papers are grouped into subject areas such as game theory control methods international policy coordination and the applications of artificial intelligence and experts systems as a framework in economic modelling and control The Symposium therefore provides a wide range of important information for those involved or interested in the planning of company and national economics Empirical Models and Policy Making Mary Morgan, Frank den Butter, 2003-09-02 This collection written by highly placed practitioners and academic economists provides a picture of how economic modellers and policy makers interact The book provides international case studies of particular interactions between models and policy making and argues that the flow of information is two way The Political Economy of Fiscal Policy Miguel Urrutia, Shin'ichi Ichimura, Setsuko Yukawa, 1989 The book represents an attempt to test the applicability of this hypothesis through a comparative study of the fiscal policy and decision making process of six countries that taken together represent a broad range of political and bureaucratic systems

Computer-Based Management of Complex Systems Peter M. Milling, Erich O.K. Zahn, 2012-12-06 Especially during the last decade the systems approach gained wide spread attention and increased influence in the world of academics and business The holistic view of how individual elements interact with each other to form an entity not a collection of isolated parts becomes more and more important Whether it is called integration as in Computer Integrated Manufacturing organism in ecological studies or network like the communication network it is the system's idea which opens new dimensions for insights applications and development System Dynamics or Industrial Dynamics as it was called during its early years by its founder and mentor MIT's now Professor Emeritus Jay W Forrester pioneered the use of system concepts and computer simulation for the analysis of complex problems in business and management It was applied to study the dynamics of corporations cities national economies and finally the global problems of man and in his limited and fragile environment The field has reached a stage of self sustained development and momentum A few years ago the System Dynamics Society was founded a high quality academic journal is now published in its fifth volume and the annual International Conferences of the Society were institutionalized and took place in America Europe and Asia The organization of international meetings for this scientific community however is older than the System Dynamics Society itself The first conventions were held as special sections of conferences devoted to simulation or cybernetics

The Politics of Modelling Andrea Saltelli, Monica Di Fiore, 2023-08-10 Chapter 2 Pay no attention to the model behind the curtain Chapter 4 Mind the hubris Complexity can misfire and Chapter 8 Sensitivity auditing A practical checklist for auditing decision relevant models are published open access and free to read or download from Oxford Academic The widespread use of mathematical models for policy making and its social and political impact are at the core of this book While the discussion of mathematical modelling generally centres around technical features use and type of model the literature is increasingly acknowledging that the social nature of modelling its biases and responsibilities are equally worth investigating This book tackles these emerging questions by adopting a multidisciplinary approach to investigate how current modelling practices address contemporary challenges and fills a gap in the field which has historically focused on statistical and algorithmic modes of producing numbers Thanks to its multidisciplinary appeal this book will be essential reading for modellers public officials policymakers and scholars alike Part of this title is published open access This part is available to read and download as a PDF on Oxford Academic and is made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 International licence

Macroeconomic Analysis and Parametric Control of a National Economy Abdykappar A. Ashimov, Bahyt T. Sultanov, Zheksenbek M. Adilov, Yuriy V. Borovskiy, Dmitriy A. Novikov, Rakhman A. Alshanov, Askar A. Ashimov, 2012-11-08
This is a sequel to the book by Dr A Ashimov and his colleagues Macroeconomic Analysis and Economic Policy Based on Parametric Control The authors have expanded both the developed mathematical apparatus and the scope of problems and applications stemming from the practice of steering a national economy of a small country in the dynamic environment of the international economic order The developed theoretical foundation is used in Chapter 1 to suggest a decision support system operating in the framework of state economic policy making Chapter 2 presents various mathematical models built on the basis of the available statistical data and provides quality assessment of these models Parametric control problems are being formulated on the basis of these models as problems of mathematical programming and the obtained solutions are subjected to analyses and interpretations This is demonstrated by the analysis of the effect of uncontrollable factors on the problem solutions Chapter 3 is aimed at the modelling and analysis of cyclic phenomena in economics and their structural stability Chapter 4 presents solutions of specific problems of national economy and analysis and interpretation of their solutions In summary the authors formulate comprehensive mathematical models of some critical mechanisms in micro economics previously known only on a qualitative level They provide vigorous mathematical analysis of the models that justifies their applicability for the formulation of parametric control problems and the existence of model based solutions The complexity of the resultant problems is addressed by the formulation of the appropriate algorithms The described methodology leads to the development of computer based decision support systems

Economic Justice Kenneth Kipnis, Diana T. Meyers, 1985
Twenty distinguished philosophers and social theorists have contributed original papers to this stimulating investigation into the nature of the economically just society Collectively and in a remarkably coherent fashion these papers set out the problems of contemporary social theory within the context of the distributive justice vs property rights debate initiated by the works of John Rawls and Robert Nozick
