Models Of Sharing Graphs A Categorical Semantics Of Let And Letrec:

Models of Sharing Graphs Masahito Hasegawa, 2012-12-06 Models of Sharing Graphs presents a sound mathematical basis for reasoning about models of computation involving shared resources including graph rewriting systems denotational semantics and concurrency theory An algebraic approach based on the language of category theory is taken throughout this work which enables the author to describe several aspects of the notion of sharing in a systematic way In particular a novel account of recursive computation created from cyclic sharing is developed using this framework Foundations of Software Science and Computation Structures Andrew Pitts, 2015-03-31 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 18th International Conference on Foundations of Software Science and Computation Structures FOSSACS 2015 held in London UK in April 2015 as part of the European Joint Conferences on Theory and Practice of Software ETAPS 2015 The 28 full papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 93 submissions They are organized in topical sections named semantics of programming languages categorical models and logics concurrent probabilistic and timed systems automata games verification logical aspects of computational complexity and type theory proof theory and implicit computational complexity The book also contains one full paper invited talk Network Algebra Gheorghe Stefanescu, 2012-12-06 Network Algebra considers the algebraic study of networks and their behaviour It contains general results on the algebraic theory of networks recent results on the algebraic theory of models for parallel programs as well as results on the algebraic theory of classical control structures The results are presented in a unified framework of the calculus of flownomials leading to a sound understanding of the algebraic fundamentals of the network theory The term network is used in a broad sense within this book as consisting of a collection of interconnecting cells and two radically different specific interpretations of this notion of networks are studied One interpretation is additive when only one cell is active at a given time this covers the classical models of control specified by finite automata or flowchart schemes The second interpretation is multiplicative where each cell is always active covering models for parallel computation such as Petri nets or dataflow networks More advanced settings mixing the two interpretations are included as well Network Algebra will be of interest to anyone interested in network theory or its applications and provides them with the results needed to put their work on a firm basis Graduate students will also find the material within this book useful for their studies Theoretical Aspects of Computer Software Martin Abadi, Takayasu Ito, 1997-08-27 Content Description Includes bibliographical references and index Categories and Types in Logic, Language, and Physics Claudia Casadio, Bob Coecke, Michael Moortgat, Philip Scott, 2014-04-03 For more than 60 years Jim Lambek has been a profoundly inspirational mathematician with groundbreaking contributions to algebra category theory linguistics theoretical physics logic and proof theory This Festschrift was put together on the occasion of his 90th birthday The papers in it give a good picture of the multiple research areas where the impact of Jim Lambek's work can be felt The volume includes contributions by prominent researchers and by

Association for Theoretical Computer Science EATCS which first took place in 1972. This year the ICALP program consisted of the established Track A focusing on algorithms, automata, complexity and games and Track B focusing on logic, semantics and theory of programming and of the recently introduced Track C focusing on security and cryptography foundations. In response to the call for papers, the Program Committees received 477 submissions, the highest ever: 269 for Track A, 122 for Track B and 86 for Track C. Out of these 126 papers were selected for inclusion in the scientific program: 70 papers for Track A, 32 for Track B and 24 for Track C. The selection was made by the Program Committees based on originality, quality and relevance to theoretical computer science. The quality of the manuscripts was very high indeed and many deserving papers could not be selected. ICALP 2008 consisted of five invited lectures and the contributed papers. Programming Languages and Systems Hongseok Yang, 2011-11-18. This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 9th Asian Symposium on Programming Languages and Systems APLAS 2011 held in Kenting, Taiwan, in December 2011. This volume contains the proceedings of the 11th International Conference on Concurrency Theory CONCUR 2000 held in State College, Pennsylvania, USA, during 22-25 August 2000. The purpose of the CONCUR conferences is to bring together researchers, developers and students in order to advance the theory of concurrency and promote its applications. Interest in this topic is continuously growing as a consequence of the importance and ubiquity of concurrent systems and their applications and of the scientific relevance of their foundations. The scope covers all areas of semantics, logics and verification techniques for concurrent systems. Topics include concurrency-related aspects of models of computation, semantic domains, process algebras, Petri nets, event structures, real-time systems, hybrid systems, decidability, model checking, verification techniques, refinement techniques, term and graph rewriting, distributed programming, logic, constraint programming, object-oriented programming, typing systems and algorithms, case studies, tools and environments for programming and verification. The first two CONCUR conferences were held in Amsterdam, NL, in 1990 and 1991. The following ones in Stony Brook, USA; Hildesheim, D; Uppsala, S; Philadelphia, USA; Pisa, I; Warsaw, PL; Nice, F; and Eindhoven, NL. The proceedings have appeared in Springer LNCS as Volumes 458, 527, 630, 715, 836, 962, 1119, 1243, 1466 and 1664. Mathematical Theory of Programs [1], [2], 2010-10. New Structures for Physics Bob Coecke, 2011-01-15. This volume provides a series of tutorials on mathematical structures which recently have gained prominence in physics, ranging from quantum foundations via quantum information to quantum gravity. These include the theory of monoidal categories and corresponding graphical calculi, Girard's linear logic, Scott domains, lambda calculus and corresponding logics for typing, topos theory and more general process structures. Most of these structures are very prominent in computer science; the chapters here are tailored towards an audience of physicists
