Integrating Technology in Positive Psychology Practice Villani, Daniela, Cipresso, Pietro, Gaggioli, Andrea, Riva,

Giuseppe, 2016-02-29 Most research on the psychological impact of computers and the Internet has focused on the negative side of technology i.e. how the use/abuse of interactive systems and videogames can negatively affect mental health and behavior. On the other hand, less attention has been devoted to understanding how emerging technologies can promote optimal functioning at individual, group, and community levels. Integrating Technology in Positive Psychology Practice explores the various roles that technology can play in the development of psychological interventions aimed at helping people thrive. Exploring the ways in which ICT can be utilized to foster positive emotions, promote engagement in empowering activities, and support connectedness between individuals, groups, and communities, this timely publication is designed for use by psychologists, IT developers, researchers, and graduate students. Wellbeing in Higher Education Marcus A. Henning, Christian U. Krägeloh, Rachel Dryer, Fiona Moir, Rex Billington, Andrew G. Hill, 2018-04-09 Academic staff and students within higher education settings are confronted by a learning environment that is academically stimulating, informative, career-focused, and socially rich, which can be intensely competitive and highly charged. Within this learning environment, academic staff and students are often at risk of compromising their wellbeing in their pursuit of academic excellence. This book provides an examination of the key areas that are important to the sustenance of wellbeing within higher education settings, with a view to promoting healthy learning environments. The chapter authors are predominantly working in the Asia Pacific rim, but the book also includes more universal perspectives. The synthesis of the issues covered in the book is crucial to the understanding of higher education as not only an environment for gaining knowledge and skills relevant for success in academic and career domains, but also as an environment for developing socially adept and authentic communication skills. The ideas presented in this book will further assist academic staff and students to consider ways to more fully participate in their learning environment so that they can optimize their valuable contributions to the professional communities they serve. Functional Communication Quality, 2021-11-22 In this volume, researchers from American and European universities and institutes present their recent research on Functional Communication Quality. Functional refers to the purposes of the communication process. The relations between these purposes and the best way to describe them are some of the topics discussed. Communication refers to a complex interactive process. Relevant variables include the speech act of the participants, features of the message, chosen channel, moment, duration, frequency, environment. The participants in this process are individuals and groups, as well as organizations and parts of organizations. Quality can be described from several points of view: a technical point of view with efficiency as its goal; an operative point of view which aims for effectiveness; or an aesthetic point of view. This volume shows that a multi-perspective approach to Functional Communication Quality (FCQ) is the only way to obtain a better insight into this area of communication studies. The papers are grouped in four different chapters, each dealing with a different perspective on the theme: FCQ in an organizational context; FCQ and research methods; FCQ and text analysis; FCQ and electronic tools. The book also contains an overview of organizational communication research in France and Spain This volume will be of interest to a broad audience of researchers and students in the field of organizational communication studies and the field of writing studies communication consultants and communication managers professional writers and software engineers Digital Transformation in Accounting and Auditing Arif Perdana,Tawei Wang,2024-02-26 This book elucidates the digital transformation of accounting by examining the countless challenges academic institutions encounter in the wake of technological progress This underscores the importance of accountants in enhancing their skill set to align with today s evolving digital landscape The text evaluates cutting edge technologies such as artificial intelligence data analytics and blockchain exploring their impact on accounting decision making processes Through a comprehensive analysis of the intersection between these technologies and diverse industrial sectors this book illuminates the distinctive challenges and possibilities The book provides an essential reference for professionals and scholars seeking a thorough understanding of accounting domain in the digital age The Genetic Epistemologist ,1984 Competencies of Managers and Service Excellence in Military Hospitals Professor Emeritus Dr Syed Mohamed Aljunid,Dr Junaidah Kamarruddin,2023-06-06 Excellence in service is needed in the Military Hospitals in Malaysia to ensure the best and the most effective services are delivered One of the factors that contribute to the provision of excellent services is the presence of competent managers In this book we report the outcome of a study aimed to determine the level of service excellence among managers and the factors influencing it in five Military Hospitals under the Ministry of Defence Malaysia A cross sectional study was conducted using self administered questionnaires distributed to Military and Non Military managers with different demographic backgrounds and service characteristics The questionnaires consist of six components the background of the respondents the level of service excellence skills knowledge of the Blue Ocean Strategy BOS leadership style and organisational compliance By using the Structural Equation Model findings of the study showed that all independent variables i e skills knowledge on BOS leadership style and organisational compliance are significantly related to service excellence Using Stepwise Multiple Linear Regression it was discovered that managers in the lower grades as well as Non Military managers demonstrated significant service excellence In conclusion the service excellence of managers in Military Hospitals is strongly influenced by their competencies Military Hospitals administration should focus into the needs for training and suitable courses for Military managers in senior position to enhance their competencies
